Post Date: 09/10/2010, Retire Date: 09/30/2013

Last Reviewed: June 2013

1. The Army Study to Assess Risk and Resilience in Servicemembers (STARRS) report pertaining to suicides.
2. Issues dealing with Arlington National Cemetery.
3. Issues dealing with the Gulf Coast oil spill.
4. Information pertaining to the Fort Hood Shootings, Major Nidal Hasan, and related information regarding installation security, training/certification/personnel records of psychological medical personnel.
5. Accidents resulting in deaths or serious injury, including training accidents, problems with facilities or equipment, negligence of military personnel or government employees.
6. Medical care, benefits, or support for Wounded Warriors and their Families.
7. Requests involving members of Congress or Congressional travel.
8. Requests involving the current administration or former Senator Obama.
9. Significant decisions or developments affecting Army procurement and weapons programs.
10. Allegations of contracting fraud, waste, and abuse or contracting improprieties.
11. Military justice matters likely to generate media attention.
12. Whistleblower allegations or investigations.
13. Soldier suicides or Army suicide rates.
14. Recruiter misconduct and enlistment waivers.
15. Allegations or investigations concerning general officers or Army civilian leadership.
16. Senate confirmation of general officers or Army civilian leadership.
17. Treatment or interrogation of detainees; matters relating to Abu Ghraib.
18. Friendly fire incidents.
19. Security at Army laboratories, biosurety, and anthrax.
20. Military readiness of units and individual Soldiers (including medical & dental readiness).
21. Condition or quality of military housing, facilities, or equipment.
22. Requests pertaining to Secretary of the Army McHugh and Chief of Staff.
23. Records pertaining to Don't Ask Don't Tell.
24. Requests concerning the Dover Mortuary.
25. Cost of conferences/training.
26. Matters pertaining to sequestration planning.
27. Requests pertaining to Bradley Manning and Edward Snowden