Bridge Jam's Cause a Mystery

New Jersey Officials Say They Weren't Warned That Local Lanes Would Be Closed

By TED MANN and HEATHER HADDON CONNECT

No one denies that the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey triggered massive traffic jams when it shifted local toll lanes at the George Washington Bridge from New Jersey last week. But local officials, and some within the Port Authority itself, are scratching their heads over a larger question: Why?

Any Newman/The Record

Police and elected officials in Fort Lee, N.J., say they weren't given warning that the Port Authority planned to reduce the number of local access lanes directly from Fort Lee to the bridge from three to one—causing traffic to back up in the borough—and are still

Port Chief Fumed Over Bridge Jam

Patrick Foye Fired Off an Email Message After Learning of Lane Closures

By TED MANN CONNECT

The abrupt closure of local access lanes to the George Washington Bridge last month triggered a pointed private response from the executive director of the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey, who said the move likely broke state and federal laws and could have caused deaths because of snarled traffic.

The executive director, Patrick Foye, fired off an email message early on the morning of Sept. 13, after he learned of the lane closures and
