Dear Ms. Matthews:

I write in response to your informal access request for copies of the following records released by the Department of Canadian Heritage:

A-2013-00112: Correspondence, memoranda, and records of meetings related to the wording finally selected for the plaque beside the statue of the Famous Five located on Parliament Hill, including all suggested wordings and previous drafts.

A-2013-00118: The Own the Podium audited financial statements (including but not limited to, revenue and expense balance sheets and management discussion and analysis) and activity/accomplishment statements for the two most recent fiscal years.

A-2013-00148: 2013 ministerial briefing notes concerning Bill C-49, whose purpose was to amend the mandate of the Canadian Museum of Civilization.

You will find enclosed the relevant records. They are disclosed to you as they were released in the original request. They also include the exemptions and exclusions that were applied under the Access to Information Act.
