Lynn:

I hope you are well.

Tonight I had the opportunity to spend an evening at dinner with Jabo and I wanted to let you know that it was great to catch up with him and the company. I am sure you know that you are well-represented by his efforts. I felt right at home as we discussed what is happening throughout the country and with the CFSA. It seems like only yesterday when we were working together. Please pass along my hello and best wishes to Mr. Jones.

For what it is worth, I think the company is making a good investment with the RAGA organization. These AGs really appreciate the support. With some races, the RAGA provides seven-figure support. Wow, that is serious support and it would not come without the support of companies that invest in common ideals.

Jabo will probably fill you in on my plans, but they are progressing. Our AG, Mark Shurtleff does not plan on running in 2012 and he has brought me in to prepare me to replace him. So I'll not only have the experience as Chief Deputy, but I'll also have his backing. That will be important as I seek the nomination in 2012.

Anyway, I continue to stay close to Richard and to follow the industry with great interest. You were all there for me when I worked with Richard and I look forward to being in a position to help the industry as an AG following the 2012 elections. In the meantime, if there is anything Mark or I can do for you, please let me know.

Kip:

Here are some things you might say about my candidacy for AG:

1. I am currently the Chief Deputy AG for Utah. As the number 2 person in the office, I am leading out on many of the premier issues in the State. I am on TV, radio and in the printed media.
2. I have served 3 terms in the State legislature and have secured the nomination on the Republican ticket for Congress twice, narrowly losing to the better known incumbent. The important thing about that is that I know how to win the nomination and this race for AG will be all about the nomination. The Republican nominee will win this statewide race by a 30 point margin.
3. As AG, I will be in a position to help other AGs understand the importance of the cash advance industry. With the passage of the Dodd Frank bill, the CFPB was created, giving far reaching power to the State AGs. This industry will be a focus of the CFPB unless a group of AG's goes to bat for the industry. I am ready and willing to help lead out on that, and having worked with the Utah Association and also in Montana and Wyoming, I well understand and can help create a critical mass of support among the conservative AGs. I have already presented on a panel before AG's on the CFPB issue.
4. I have assembled the very best team in the State, and so far, no one of note has jumped into the race. I will be the clear front runner the moment I announce, which I am going to strategically delay for as long as possible.
5. I would like to raise as much as possible in the third and fourth quarters this year so my year end numbers look strong, to discourage others from jumping in and to dry up support for others.
6. My campaign budget will be $1.1 million. I have already raised more than $100k. I hope to raise $100k from the industry in 2011, and the OLA have committed to raise me 1/2 of that in the third quarter, and that much again early next year.
7. As much as possible, I would like to raise money from companies and individuals not tied to payday, so I do not make this a payday race. So if people you know have another company that does not do payday, so much the better.

The non-payday money needs to go to the "Protect Utah PAC." The Payday money needs to go to the "Utah Prosperity Foundation."

Please do not forward this email.

Thanks for your help.

John

Fundraiser for

Date: Monday February 24, 2014

When: 5 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Where: Capitol Hill Club, 300 First Street, SE, Washington, DC 20003

Come meet Utah Attorney General Sean Reyes, one of the most dynamic and successful young professionals in the country today. Having practiced for nearly fourteen years at Parsons Behle & Latimer, the largest law firm in Utah, Reyes became one of the first minority lawyers in Utah to make partner at a major firm.

Honored as the first-ever National Outstanding Young Lawyer by the American Bar Association, Reyes received a distinction bestowed on only one lawyer out of millions nationwide. He was also recognized as the Utah Young Lawyer of the Year, one of the forty most influential business leaders under the age of forty. His legal volunteer endeavors have included community education projects, free legal clinics, fundraising for pro bono legal services, clothing drives and service on various task forces and commissions.

In addition to his legal career and volunteer service, Reyes has been very involved in Utah politics. He has served as a county, state and national (alternate) delegate for the Republican Party and a member of the State Central Committee, the governing body of the Utah Republican Party. Reyes was appointed by Governor John Huntsman to serve as one of the youngest members of the prestigious Third District Judicial Nominating Commission and spent several years on a National Congressional Commission started by President George W. Bush. Appointed by Congress and the President, Reyes conducted public hearings throughout the country to advise the current Administration and Congress on Latino issues.

Last December, Reyes was appointed by Governor Gary Herbert as Utah's first Hispanic/Filipino Attorney General. In short order, Reyes has been tasked with several complex legal and administrative challenges including fighting the reversal of Utah's Amendment 3 same-sex marriage ban, appealing the 'Kody Brown' polygamy case, and spearheading a comprehensive culture change in Utah's AG office to achieve heightened morale. While seemingly overwhelming to many in Utah and nationwide, Reyes cites his new legal endeavor as a public servant duty and honor that he has prepared for all his life.

Subject: Bruning - Governor race

Got a good one for you something you don't see every day....Attorney General of Nebraska Jon Bruning is back and running for Governor....he is doing awesome and the front runner for the primary in less than 60 days....the primary is the race.

We are doing an event for him here in DC on March 19 for lunch....unlimited corporate money allowed. We have a bunch of companies signed on to help at this event

Wanted to run this DC invite on March 19 by you if you guys could help Jon?

News:

When we polled this Senate race last June, Attorney General Jon Bruning held a substantial lead, but he later opted out of the contest. He is now poised to enter the open governor's race any day to replace retiring Gov. Dave Heineman, R. Our new poll finds that Bruning will instantly lead that crowded field. Bruning draws 35 percent of the vote, ahead of 2006 Senate nominee Pete Ricketts (16 percent), state auditor Mike Foley (14 percent), and four other candidates. Charlie Janssen, who just announced he is quitting the race, was also tested in our survey, and came in fourth with just 6 percent.
