Response

Dear Professor Sir Ian Kennedy,

MP's pay should rise in line with increases for Britain's other public sector workers. If I were to accept a 10 per cent pay rise I would simply not be able to look the constituents I serve in the eye. I believe the vast majority of them would quite rightly be appalled. I strongly urge IPSA to provide a mechanism for MPs who wish to return any additional salary they receive that is over and above the amount awarded to other public sector workers in pay settlement to the Treasury so it can be put to better use.

Please see below my response the MPs' Pay Consultation.

Yours sincerely,

Gloria De Piero MP
