Dear Library User,

This is a notice that complaints have been received about persistent, noticeable odour from your person that is affecting other users' enjoyment of library facilities.

We respectfully request that you take steps to control this odour before your future visits to the library.

If you need access to free public showers or laundry facilities, you can access these at Trinity United Church, across the street from the library, during weekdays.

If you wish to discuss this matter further, you may speak to staff or contact the library's CEO at 905-953-5110 or via npl@newmarketpl.ca.

You are welcome to continue to use the library and we thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Library Management
