Hi Sharon,

I just tried to call you to give you an update on another contact from Lisa Demer. She wanted to know the exact date that Bristol left West. I refused to give that to her based on the Family Rights Act, FERPA, that governs student records. I told her our attorney advised me not to give her any more information than I did before (I told her that Bristol enrolled January 7, 2008 and withdrew May 7, 2008. She was frustrated but I told her I could not give any more information to her without parental consent. I don't know if she will try and get the info another way, but I did want you and the governor to know.
