

JOE SHANNON, JR.

CRIMINAL DISTRICT ATTORNEY
Tarrant County Texas

APRIL 05, 2012

Press Release

More Charged In TCU Drug Investigation

For Immediate Release

FORT WORTH –The Tarrant County Criminal District Attorney's Office today charged 14 more people in connection with the TCU drug investigation, bringing the total number of defendants to 23.

A complete list of those charged today is included below, along with nine others who were previously charged by this office (those names have been previously released and are included at the end of this release).

At this point, we believe police have submitted to us all of the active cases in connection with the investigation. These cases will be handled like every other case prosecuted by this office. Because it is unethical to comment about pending litigation, we cannot comment further about these cases or speculate about their outcomes:

- Scott Lee Anderson, 20, of Fort Worth, has been charged with two cases of delivery of marijuana, more than 1/4 ounce but less than 5 pounds, in a drug free zone. He was also charged with delivery of hydrocodone, less than 28 grams, in a drug free zone and delivery of less than one gram of oxycodone in a drug-free zone. All four charges are third-degree felonies punishable by two to 10 years in prison and up to a $10,000 fine.
- Tanner Wilson Brock, 21, of Fort Worth, has been charged with three cases of delivery of marijuana, more than 1/4 ounce but less than 5 pounds—all three charges are state jail felonies punishable by 180 days to two years in a state jail facility and up to a $10,000 fine. He was also charged with possessing a usable quantity of marijuana of 2 ounces or less, a Class B misdemeanor.
- Taylor Cowdin, 21, of Fort Worth, was charged with one case of delivery of marijuana, more than 1/4 ounce but less than 5 pounds, and one case of possessing a usable quantity of marijuana of less than 5 pounds but more than 4 ounces. Both charges are state jail felonies punishable by 180 days to two years in a state jail facility and up to a $10,000 fine.
- Matthew Davis, 19, of Fort Worth, was charged with four cases of delivery of marijuana, more than 1/4 ounce but less than 5 pounds—all four charges are state jail felonies punishable by 180 days to two years in a state jail facility and up to a $10,000 fine. He was also charged with possessing a usable quantity of marijuana, 2 to 4 ounces, a Class A misdemeanor.
- Jordan Donaldson, 22, of Fort Worth, was charged with delivery of marijuana, more than 1/4 ounce but less than 5 pounds—a state jail felony punishable by 180 days to two years in a state jail facility and up to a $10,000 fine. He was also charged with possessing less than 2 ounces of marijuana in a drug free zone—a Class A misdemeanor.

Melody McDonald

Public Information Officer

Tim Curry Criminal Justice Center

401 W. Belknap St.

Fort Worth, TX 76196

Phone: 817-884-3120

Cell: 817-821-3935

Email: mjmcdonald@tarrantcounty.com

Follow on Twitter: @TarrantDAOoffice

Drug Charges— Second Page

APRIL 05, 2012

Press Release

- Eduardo J. Hernandez, 20, of Fort Worth, has been charged with four cases of delivery of marijuana, more than 1/4 ounce but less than 5 pounds—each case is a state jail felony punishable by 180 days to two years in a state jail facility and up to a $10,000 fine. He was also charged with possession of less than 2 ounces of marijuana in a drug free zone and possessing a prohibited weapon, knuckles — both are Class A misdemeanors punishable by up to a year in the county jail.
- Tyler Andrew Horn, 21, of Fort Worth, has been charged with delivery of marijuana, more than 1/4 ounce but less than 5 pounds—a state jail felony punishable by 180 days to 2 years in a state jail facility and up to a $10,000 fine. He was also charged with delivery of marijuana, less than 1/4 ounce—a Class A misdemeanor.
- Jonathan Jones, 20, of Fort Worth, has been charged with delivery of marijuana, more than 1/4 ounce but less than 5 pounds, in a drug free zone — a third degree felony punishable by 2 to 10 years in prison and up to a $10,000 fine. He was also charged with possessing cocaine, less than a gram in a drug free zone—a third degree felony punishable by two to 10 years in prison and up to a $10,000 fine.
- Michael Gragg King, 20, of Fort Worth, has been charged with three cases of delivery of marijuana, more than 1/4 ounce but less than 5 pounds— each case is a state jail felony punishable by 180 days to two years in a state jail facility and up to a $10,000 fine. He was also charged with possession of less than 2 ounces of marijuana— a class B misdemeanor.
- Hunter McLaughlin, 24, of Fort Worth, has been charged with four cases of delivery of marijuana, more than 1/4 ounce but less than 5 pounds—each case is a state jail felony punishable by 180 days to two years in a state jail facility and up to a $10,000 fine.
- Richard Clay Putney, 20, of Richmond, VA, has been charged with two cases of delivery of marijuana, more than 1/4 ounce but less than 5 pounds, in a drug free zone — both charges are third-degree felonies punishable by two to 10 years in prison and up to a $10,000 fine. He was also charged with delivering less than 1/4 ounce of marijuana in a drug free zone and possessing a usable quantity of marijuana of 2 ounces or less in a drug free zone — both of those charges are Class B misdemeanors.
- Peter Signavong, 21, of Fort Worth, has been charged with four cases of delivering cocaine, more than 1 gram but less than 4 grams— all four cases are second-degree felonies punishable by 2 to 20 years in prison and up to a $10,000 fine. He was also charged with delivering less than one gram of ecstasy— a state jail felony punishable by 180 days to two years in a state jail facility and up to a $10,000 fine. He was also charged with possessing a usable quantity of marijuana, less than 5 pounds but more than 4 ounces; possessing less than one gram of methamphetamine; and possessing less than one gram of cocaine —all three charges are state jail felonies punishable by 180 days to two years in a state jail facility and up to a $10,000 fine. Additionally, he was charged with delivery of marijuana, less than 1/4 ounce—a Class A misdemeanor.
- David Yendry, 20, of Fort Worth, has been charged with three cases of delivery of marijuana, more than 1/4 ounce but less than 5 pounds, in a drug free zone —each case is a third-degree felony punishable by two to 10 years in prison and up to a $10,000 fine. He has also been charged with delivery of marijuana, more than 1/4 ounce but less than 5 pounds—a state jail felony punishable by 180 days to two years in a state jail facility. He has also been charged with two cases of delivery of less than 1/4 ounce of marijuana— both of which are Class A misdemeanors.
- Cynthia Zambrano, 20, of Sansom Park, has been charged with two cases of delivery of oxymorphone, less than one gram—both cases are state jail felonies punishable by 180 days to two years in a state jail facility and up to a $10,000 fine.

APRIL 05, 2012

Press Release

Drug Charges— Third Page

Note: The following defendants were charged prior to April 5, 2012, and their names and charges were previously released. All of their cases are pending:

- Earl Patrick Burke, 21, of Fort Worth, has been charged with delivery of alprazolam, more than 28 grams but less than 200 grams – a second degree felony punishable by 2 to 20 years in prison. He was also charged with two cases of delivery of alprazolam, less than 28 grams – each case is a third degree felony punishable up to 180 days to two years in a state jail facility. Additionally, he was charged with possessing less than 28 grams of alprazolam, a Class A misdemeanor, and possessing a usable quantity of marijuana of two ounces or less, a Class B misdemeanor.
- Bud Pollard Dillard, 21, of Fort Worth, was charged with delivery of alprazolam, more than 28 grams but less than 200 grams - a second-degree felony punishable by two to 20 years in prison and up to a $10,000 fine. He was also charged with possessing less than 28 grams of alprazolam, a Class A misdemeanor, and possessing a usable quantity of marijuana of two ounces or less, a Class B misdemeanor.
- Cameron Jacob Forgie, 22, of Fort Worth, was charged with possessing less than 28 grams of alprazolam, a Class A misdemeanor, and possessing a usable quantity of marijuana of two ounces or less, a Class B misdemeanor.
- William Joseph Hoffman, 20, of Dallas, was charged with delivery of alprazolam, less than 28 grams, in a drug free zone – a third-degree felony punishable by two to 10 years in prison and a fine of up to $10,000.
- William D. Jennings, 20, of Dallas, was charged with three cases of delivery of marijuana, more than ¼ ounce but less than 5 pounds in a drug free zone. Each case is a third-degree felony punishable by two to 10 years in prison and up to a $10,000 fine. He was also charged with delivery of alprazolam, less than 28 grams, in a drug free zone – a third-degree felony punishable up two to 10 years in prison and up to a $10,000 fine.
- Devin Johnson, 21, of Fort Worth, was charged with three cases of delivery of marijuana, more than ¼ ounce but less than 5 pounds – each case is a state jail felony punishable by 180 days to two years in a state jail facility and up to a $10,000 fine.
- Eric Lodge, 22, of Fort Worth, was charged with possession of alprazolam, less than 28 grams – a class A misdemeanor.
- Katherine Petrie, 20, of Azle, was charged with delivery of marijuana, more than ¼ ounce but less than 5 pounds - a state jail felony punishable by 180 days to two years in a state jail facility and a fine of up to $10,000.
- Jordan Sherman, 22, of Azle, was charged with delivery of marijuana, more than ¼ ounce but less than 5 pounds – a state jail felony punishable by 180 days to two years in a state jail facility and a fine of up to $10,000.