PREDICTION CORNER

During the 2018 football season, Capital Gazette staff members and a weekly guest will predict winners of high school games along with Navy and Maryland. Sports staff members making picks are Bill Wagner, Dave Broughton and Bob Hough. Last year's guest champion was former Annapolis High quarterback Darryl Brown, who went 12-1 in Week 8. High school sports editor Bob Hough was the staff champion. As defending champ, Brown will kick off the 2018 season. He was the starting quarterback on the 1978 Annapolis High state championship team and continued his football career at Morgan State. Brown lives in Annapolis and putting together a youth travel team through the Annapolis Recreation and Parks Department.
