Upon their arrival, they located the decedent lying on the sidewalk in front of [REDACTED] 5th St., NW. The decedent was unconscious and unresponsive. DCFEMS responded to the scene and determined that the decedent had no signs of life. The decedent remained on the scene. A preliminary examination of the decedent revealed what appears to be a gunshot wound to the decedent's head. The decedent's remains were transported to the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner and pronounced dead at 0740 hours by MLI Denise Lyles. The decedent was subsequently identified as Siohban Nicole Lee.

Missouri Avenue, Northwest. (The 500 block of Missouri Avenue, Northwest is approximately three blocks from [REDACTED] Kennedy Street NW where the decedent's I-Phone was subsequently found and where D-1 lives.)

6. A third witness (herein thereafter referred to as W-3) was interviewed and indicated the following: On Friday, January 25, 2013, at 2:39 a.m. D1, who was later identified as Alexander Buckley, showed W-3 a black I-phone in addition to D-1's personal cell phone. W-3 provided D-1's personal cell phone number as (202) [REDACTED]

7. During the investigation, Verizon Wireless informed investigators that the decedent's missing I-Phone with the number 240-[REDACTED] was located inside [REDACTED] Kennedy Street, Northwest, Washington, D.C. Upon arriving at the location, detectives interviewed all the occupants inside apartment [REDACTED] and apartment [REDACTED]

8. The occupants of apartment [REDACTED] were interviewed. One such resident was D-1 who identified himself as Alexander Buckley and was confirmed by identification. D1 replied that he did not know Siohban.

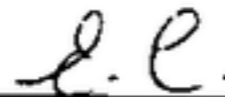

9. D1 again was asked if he was in possession of a cell phone to which he replied that he was in possession of his girlfriend's phone. D1 produced a Cricket smartphone and reported that the Cricket cell phone number is (202) [REDACTED]. With the consent of D1, police viewed the contents of the Cricket smartphone. A review of the call log history (the call log history lists the incoming, outgoing, and missed calls) revealed the decedent's cell phone number [REDACTED]. inside the closet of the bedroom. D1 directed police to the bedroom closet and retrieved an I-phone from a shoe.

10. D1 was voluntarily interviewed by detectives on Friday, January 25, 2013. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing detectives, and the purpose of the interview, D1 provided the following information:

11. D1 reported that he arrived at W-3's residence between 1-2 a.m. on Friday, January 25, 2013. D1 reported that he stayed inside W-3's residence for the entire evening. D1 left W-3's residence between 6-7 a.m. While walking to his home located at █████ Kennedy Street, NW, Apt. 1, D1 encountered a black male at the intersection of 4th and Kennedy Street, Northwest, who sold him the black I-phone and I-pod for $40.00 dollars. D1 did not know the black male who sold him the I-phone and I-pod.

12. D1 was asked again if he knew a woman named Siohban. D1 did not associate the name with the decedent. A single color photograph of the decedent was shown to D1. D1 acknowledged that he knew the woman depicted in the photograph as Nicole. (Your affiant knows that the decedent's middle name is Nicole.) D1 reported that he met the decedent through a social media app called Tagged. Tagged is a social media app available to I-phone and Android phone subscribers which users can text one another via internet. D1 and the decedent frequently contacted each other on Tagged. D1 was trying to meet the decedent so he could have sex with her.

13. When D1 was asked when he last spoke to the decedent D1 reported that he never had the decedent's cell phone number. (D1's call log history revealed the decedent's I-Phone number which contradicts this claim.) Moreover, D1 stated that he never met the decedent in person, but saw the decedent on the Metro Bus (#62) some time ago. D1 maintained that he never spoke to her on his phone. D1 only communicated with the decedent via Tagged.

The events and acts described above occurred primarily in the District of Columbia and were committed as described by defendant(s) listed in the case caption.

14. D1 confirmed that he was in possession of his Cricket cell phone the entire day and that no other person utilized his cell phone. D1 was confronted about the call logs found in his cell phone relating to the amount of contacts he had with the decedent. D1's explanation regarding the call logs was that it related to the Tagged app. D1 changed his story yet again. This time, he stated that he indeed talked to the decedent and utilized his cell phone to contact the decedent. D1 maintained that he had never met with the decedent.

15. When D1 was asked to explain his possession of the decedent's I-Phone, he had no explanation. D1 stated that it was a mere coincidence that he knew the decedent and he had the stolen I-phone.

16. When advised about cell site technology and that cell sites placed his cell phone and the decedent's I-phone in the same proximity at the time of the murder. D1 maintained that he never came in contact with the decedent at any time during the early morning.

17. During the interview, D1 reported that he met with a female named Junkie at the intersection of 5th and Oglethorpe Streets, Northwest. Your affiant knows that this location is one block from where the decedent's body was found. D1 stated that he left W-3's house sometime after 2 am to meet Junkie. According to D1, Junkie owed him $10.00 dollars.

18. D1 changed his story yet another time. D1 admitted that he was in constant contact with the decedent throughout the day. D1 wanted to meet with decedent to engage in sex. D1 reported while meeting with Junkie, he heard a gunshot at the intersection of 5th & Nicholson Street, Northwest. D1 stated he saw the victim on the ground and did not realize that it was the decedent. D1 initially believed the subject shot was a male with dreads. D1 correctly described the articles of clothing that the decedent was wearing. D1 reported that the decedent was unconscious and he observed the I-phone on the ground and he picked it up. D1 continued to maintain that he never came in contact with the decedent.

The events and acts described above occurred primarily in the District of Columbia and were committed as described by defendant(s) listed in the case caption.

19. D1 was confronted with the facts of the case and he changed his story yet again. D1 reported that he met with the decedent and they were at the bus stop together. D1 asked for sex from the decedent and the decedent told him that she needed to go to work. The decedent was waiting at the bus stop and D1 was keeping her company. D1 stated that he and the decedent were hugging each other when he received a phone call from Junkie. D1 left the decedent at the bus stop and went to the intersection of 5th and Oglethorpe Streets, Northwest to collect his $10.00. The intersection of 5th and Oglethorpe Streets is one block north of the scene of the shooting. While at the intersection, D1 heard a single gunshot and looked down the street and observed the decedent on the ground. D1 stated that he observed a black male clad in all black running from the scene of the shooting. D1 ran to the decedent and observed the decedent unconscious and he took her I-phone.

20. On Friday, January 25, 2013, investigators obtained a Superior Court for the District of Columbia search warrant for [REDACTED] Kennedy Street, Apartment [REDACTED] Northwest, Washington, D.C. Pursuant to the search warrant, investigators recovered a black Apple I-phone, an Apple I-pod touch, several other cell phones, and a Ruger 9MM semi-automatic handgun.
