8. Any and all emails, correspondence, facsimiles, and communications concerning the software product InFlow and/or the Master Software License Agreement between S.C. Info World SRL and VA entered into on or about June 10, 2011.

With regards to the emails, correspondence, and copies of contractual documentation, we are providing you with a copy of the documents as requested. Some of the information and/or communications have been redacted because they contain information appropriate to the stated exemptions which are protected by the Freedom of Information Act, (FOIA) 5 U.S.C. § 552, as amended.

With regards to the records that you seek regarding the TAC's entire Acquisition Package, Acquisition Plan, financial documentation and all other documentation concerning the BMS/BH Project Solicitation, TAC-11-0837, we are denying you access to these documents under FOIA Exemption 3 [5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(3)] which prohibits disclosure of information protected by other statutes.

The winning proposal was not incorporated into the contract by reference, and as such, it is prohibited from release per FOIA Exemption 3 [5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(3)] which prohibits the disclosure of information protected by other statutes. Federal Statute 41 U.S.C. §423(a)(1) which prohibits the discloser contractor bid or proposal information or source selection information before the award of a Federal agency procurement contract to which the information relates.

Segregable information contained in the emails and contracts has been withheld under Exemption 4 of the FOIA, which protects privileged or confidential trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person. Release of this information is expected to cause competitive harm to the submitter.

Segregable information contained in the emails and contracts have also been withheld under Exemption 6 of the FOIA, which protects personnel information, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

With respect to your request for invoice, bills, and proofs of payments under the aforementioned Contracts, there is not specific document or set of documents which specify this information. The VA is a decentralized Agency, and there have been several purchase orders issued against each respective contract, issued across various individual offices. However, the total amount of monies obligated/ spent on each contract is publicly available at www.usaspending.gov.

Your request was processed by the undersigned. Should you disagree with these findings, you may administratively appeal in writing to:
