RESTAURANT EVENTS

Free Corporate Event Planning for Toronto and Vancouver Restaurants

Founded in 1996, Restaurant Events provides free corporate event site selection and event coordination for Toronto and Vancouver restaurants. The services are free because we are paid by the restaurant or venue you choose for your event.

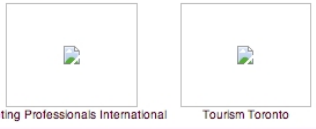

Restaurant Events fills a unique niche between restaurateurs and the meetings industry in Toronto and Vancouver. We stage flawless private dinners, banquets, receptions, holiday corporate parties or any other dining experience for clients who need to provide exceptional events to groups ranging in size from intimate gatherings to large outdoor parties. And, with each venue paying for our representation, we are able to provide event planners with event site selection and event coordination at no charge. In turn, our restaurant partners have the benefit of our experienced sales team, specializing in the meetings and events industry, working on their behalf.

Our focus on great events and satisfied participants has garnered praise from clients, guests, and suppliers, making Restaurant Events an invaluable resource for anyone planning a corporate event in a private dining room, banquet hall, or event venue. Our extensive client list is vivid proof of the level of service we provide. It shows that North America's Fortune 500 companies trust us to reflect their corporate image, with exceptional dining events.

If you are tasked with organizing a corporate event, you are probably looking for solutions that make staging a successful event as cost-effective, and hassle-free, as possible. Let Restaurant Events provide you with exciting options that match your budget, your guest list, and your taste and importantly, save you time and worry. We can take care of all the details, so even you get to relax and enjoy the fun (and food)! Make sure a call or email to Restaurant Events is at the top of your to-do list.
