Justice Hagedorn:

After being raised in a Democrat-voting family, I moved to Chicago and was a worker for the Mayor Daley machine. It took me many years and lots of experience before I realized their party politics were totally at odds with my Christian upbringing. For these Democrats, personal relationships and friendships were not important. These politicians wanted power and they would lie, cheat, and steal to gain power. They often hated America because it was not what they felt America should be. Frustrated, I became involved in GOP politics, and experienced a different, positive world. These folks cared intensely about Americans and about our country.

I still remember the times you came to Sheboygan County meetings as a campaigner for the Supreme Court vacancy. You were given little chance of winning, but we were impressed with your energy, enthusiasm, intelligence, and your apparent embracing of conservative principles. Our party members desperately wanted you elected, and we worked like dogs to support your candidacy.

Once you were elected, like a good liberal, you gained the power you sought and started voting with the liberals. It was a shock to us and we feel like we have been stabbed in the back.

Enjoy your ten year term because I can't imagine either party wanting to support you in the future.

Sincerely,

Jerry Doyle
