Re: Freedom of Information Act Request

To Whom It May Concern:

I write on behalf of the The Transparency Project (“TTP”), a nonprofit corporation headquartered in Texas. On June 18, 2020, TTP submitted a request for information to the Central Intelligence Agency, Office of the Director of National Intelligence, National Security Division of the Justice Department, and the Federal Bureau of Investigation pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552, specifically seeking the following:

1. I request the opportunity to view all documents, records, communications and/or other tangible evidence reflecting or pertaining to surveillance of Edward Butowsky of Texas or Matt Couch of Arkansas. The term “surveillance” includes, but is not limited to, any attempt to hack into the computers, phones, other electronic devices, and/or online accounts of Mr. Butowsky or Mr. Couch. If any information obtained by surveillance was relayed to third parties, that information should be produced for inspection.
2. I request the opportunity to view all documents, records, communications and/or other tangible evidence pertaining to whether former Central Intelligence Agency Director David Petraeus mishandled classified information or sold such information during his tenure as CIA director. This request includes, but is not limited to, documents, records, communications and/or other tangible evidence in the possession of the Office of the Inspector General of the CIA and/or the Office of the Intelligence Community Inspector General. This request further includes, but is not limited to, any draft indictments, draft arrest warrants, actual arrest warrants, and/or records of arrest.

With respect to the matters above concerning David Petraeus, TTP wishes to expand its request to the Justice Department to include the Office of the Attorney General, Office of the Deputy Attorney General, Office of the Inspector General, Office of Legislative Affairs, and Executive Office for U.S. Attorneys.¹

TTP intends to use the requested information to educate the public about government misconduct, therefore I request a waiver of any fees. If charges will apply, please let me know the approximate amount of such charges in advance. I can be reached by email at tyclevenger@yahoo.com if you need additional information.

Sincerely,

Ty Clevenger
Executive Director
