Hi! I'm so sorry to bother you and I'm so sorry for what's going on with the entire lawsuit and everything. However I was wondering if there was any way your lawyer or someone could post my Instagram and tell them to leave me alone? Fans have been threatening me and thinking I'm you. It's scary for me because I'm so scared someone's gonna try to hurt me somehow.

I know it's a long shot but I just thought I'd try. And I know your Instagram is flooding with dms but I just can't take another comment.
