Re: Long Beach Police Department's Violations of State Law for Sharing License Plate Reader Data

Dear Mr. Parkin,

I write regarding the enclosed record, which indicates that the Long Beach Police Department (“the Department”) shares automated license plate reader (“ALPR”) data with dozens of federal and out-of-state law enforcement agencies.¹ Because this sharing violates state law, we ask that you immediately impose a ban on the Department from sharing in this fashion.

This letter describes the threat that the unrestricted use of ALPR technology poses to the privacy and safety of Long Beach community members, summarizes public records from this month indicating that the Department shares information about the locations of local drivers with federal and out-of-state agencies, and explains that California state law prohibits these sharing arrangements. The letter concludes by urging your office to end sharing these data.

I. ALPR Surveillance of Your Residents' Locations Violates Their Civil Liberties and Civil Rights.

No jurisdiction should acquire or deploy license plate readers, given the technology's invasiveness and the breadth of revealing information such technology can collect about individuals. ALPR systems collect and store location information about drivers whose cars pass through ALPR cameras' fields of view, which, after being matched to dates, times, and locations, can be built into a database that reveals sensitive information about where individuals work, live, associate, worship, and travel.² Much of this information has traditionally been unavailable to law enforcement without a search warrant. Further, ALPR systems are easily misused to harm minority communities—a phenomenon that has been documented for over twenty years.³ As with other surveillance technologies, police often deploy license plate readers in poor and historically overpoliced areas, regardless of crime rates.⁴

II. Long Beach Police Department Shares Local Residents' Data with Federal Immigration Authorities and Dozens of Out-of-State Agencies.

Documents obtained by our office in response to a California Public Records Act Request (“PRA”) reveal that the Department lists dozens of federal and out-of-state agencies as sharing partners with the ability to search local ALPR data, including scans of license plates and the location of the scanned plate. The enclosed data sharing report dated April 6, 2021 lists the Department as a partner that allows these outside agencies to search the information collected about driver locations. This report is the latest in numerous reports which demonstrate that the Department has a long-standing, multi-year practice of sharing ALPR data with out-of-state and federal law enforcement agencies.

III. Sharing of ALPR Data with Out-of-State Agencies Violates State Law.

Any sharing of ALPR data with out-of-state police departments and federal law enforcement agencies violates state law. First, under the California Civil Code, as amended by Senate Bill No. 34 (“S.B. 34”), “[a] public agency shall not sell, share, or transfer ALPR information, except to another public agency, and only as otherwise permitted by law.” Civ. Code § 1798.90.55(b). A “public agency” is defined as “the state, any city, county, or city and county, or any agency or political subdivision of the state.” See Civ. Code § 1798.90.5(f) (emphasis added). The Civil Code, therefore, prohibits an agency from sharing or transferring ALPR information with or to these agencies, none of which are California state or local agencies.

Additionally, the California Values Act (“S.B. 54”) prohibits the sharing of personal information with agencies “for immigration enforcement purposes.”⁵ Cal. Govt. Code §§ 7282, 7282.5, 7284.6(a)(1)(D). Automated license plate reader data constitutes “personal information” within the meaning of S.B. 54 and the California Information Practices Act. See Cal. Civ. Code § 1798.3. Given that Long Beach data is shared with U.S. Customs and Border Protection and with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, the Department also violates S.B. 54.

In addition to violating the plain language of the California Values Act, sharing ALPR data with federal immigration enforcement agencies undermines the values guiding state law, as set out in the legislative findings and declarations which accompany S.B. 54:

“The Legislature finds and declares the following:

- (a) Immigrants are valuable and essential members of the California community. Almost one in three Californians is foreign born and one in two children in California has at least one immigrant parent.
- (b) A relationship of trust between California's immigrant community and state and local agencies is central to the public safety of the people of California.
- (c) This trust is threatened when state and local agencies are entangled with federal immigration enforcement, with the result that immigrant community members fear approaching police when they are victims of, and witnesses to, crimes, seeking basic health services, or attending school, to the detriment of public safety and the well-being of all Californians.
- (d) Entangling state and local agencies with federal immigration enforcement programs diverts already limited resources and blurs the lines of accountability between local, state, and federal governments.

- (e) State and local participation in federal immigration enforcement programs also raises constitutional concerns, including the prospect that California residents could be detained in violation of the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution, targeted on the basis of race or ethnicity in violation of the Equal Protection Clause, or denied access to education based on immigration status....
- (f) This chapter seeks to ensure effective policing, to protect the safety, well-being, and constitutional rights of the people of California, and to direct the state's limited resources to matters of greatest concern to state and local governments.
- (g) It is the intent of the Legislature that this chapter shall not be construed as providing, expanding, or ratifying any legal authority for any state or local law enforcement agency to participate in immigration enforcement.”

Cal. Govt. Code §§ 7284.2.

IV. Your Office Should End the Forbidden Sharing of ALPR Data, and Any Further Use of ALPRs.

We urge you and the Department to end the sharing arrangements documented above.

Further, the risks to civil liberties and civil rights that ALPR technology always creates are well-documented. For example, even if your office takes steps in conjunction with the Department to prevent the formal sharing of data with out-of-state agencies, the risk of informal sharing with these same agencies will remain. Thus, the best way to ensure that your residents are safe from unnecessary intrusion into their safety and personal lives is to reject the use of ALPR technology altogether.

Please advise us of your position by May 3, 2021. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to email me at mtajsar@aclusocal.org. I look forward to your prompt action and response.

Sincerely,

Mohammad Tajsar
