Good Morning Captain,

When I read the report it stated that the person had been rejected from the freemasons so he went to the masonic temple and drew a swastika and an upside down cross

Can someone do some more research on the freemason one. I doubt we would have supported it as a hate crime unless it was a swastika or something in which case it would be Jewish. Thanks guys

Here is what I was able to pull. Obviously we probably don't want to provide this much detailed information, but I wanted to forward what we have. Also, im not sure if Freemasons are technically a religion, but that's included

Thanks for responding Lt. Pavlik...hope you feel better soon.

Mr. Levin is requesting data for CY2015 totals and any crimes that were classified as Anti-Muslim. Are there any particular procedures or formats you use before releasing data to the public?

Should he be directed to someone else for this info or referred to MPD's website?

The website has the totals for CY2015, but it doesn't have the crimes broken down in sub categories:

Ex.

Anti-Religion: Anti- Buddhist, Anti- Catholic, Anti- Christian or Anti-Islamic (Muslim)
