HONOLULU – Three Honolulu Police Department officers were charged today via District Court complaint with multiple offenses relating to the April 5, 2021 officer-involved shooting at Kalakaua Avenue and Philip Street.

Geoffrey H.L. Thom, 42, was charged with one count of Murder in the Second Degree. If convicted, Thom will face a mandatory sentence of life in prison with the possibility of parole. He is a 5-year veteran of HPD.

Zackary K. Ah Nee, 26, was charged with one count of Attempted Murder in the Second Degree. If convicted, Ah Nee will face a mandatory sentence of life in prison with the possibility of parole. He is a 3-year veteran of HPD.

Christopher J. Fredeluces, 40, was charged with one count of Attempted Murder in the Second Degree. If convicted, Fredeluces will face a mandatory sentence of life in prison with the possibility of parole. He is a 10-year veteran of HPD.

If convicted, the officers will each serve mandatory minimum prison terms of 20 years without the possibility of parole due to their use of semi-automatic firearms in connection with the alleged offenses.

The District Court issued a summons compelling the three officers to make an initial court appearance on June 25, 2021. Following their initial appearance, a Preliminary Hearing will be set for the three officers. Evidence such as body-worn camera footage and ballistics reports will be introduced at the Preliminary Hearing but will not be released to the public before then.

Thom, Ah Nee, and Fredeluces are presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty.
