DEFENSES

Defendants assert the following defenses without admitting any of the allegations in the Complaint that have previously been denied, without assuming any burden of proof that Defendants would not otherwise bear, and reserving the right to amend or supplement these defenses and raise counterclaims as additional facts become available or apparent in this action:

First Defense

The Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

Second Defense

Plaintiffs' claims are barred by the doctrine of judicial estoppel.

Third Defense

Plaintiffs' claims are barred by the doctrine of issue preclusion.

Fourth Defense

Plaintiffs' claims are barred by the doctrine of unclean hands.

Fifth Defense

Plaintiffs have waived the relief they seek through their members' terms of service.

Sixth Defense

Insofar as 47 U.S.C. § 230 would render all or any portion of the Act unconstitutional, 47 U.S.C. § 230 is invalid and in violation of the First Amendment, the Tenth Amendment, and the principle of federalism.

Seventh Defense

Plaintiffs lack standing to bring these claims on behalf of their members.

Eighth Defense

This court should abstain from deciding these issues until Florida courts have interpreted the Act pursuant to Railroad Commission of Texas v. Pullman Co., 312 U.S. 496 (1941).

Ninth Defense

Plaintiffs are not entitled to equitable relief because they have an adequate remedy at law.

Tenth Defense

Defendants are immune from Commerce Clause claims stemming from their decisions not to contract with certain social media platforms because such decisions are made in Defendants' capacity as a market participant rather than as a regulator.

Reservation of Defenses

Defendants presently have insufficient knowledge or information on which to form a belief as to whether they have additional defenses. Defendants reserve the right to assert additional defenses in this action in the event that discovery or other developments indicate that such defenses would be appropriate.

PRAYER

Defendants respectfully pray as follows:

1. That the Complaint be dismissed with prejudice in its entirety;
2. That judgment be entered in favor of Defendants and against Plaintiffs on the Complaint as a whole; and

3. That the Court award Defendants such other and further relief as the Court may deem appropriate.
