Incident Summary: On 4-11-21, at approximately 2:30PM, the elderly victim, working as a Lyft driver was violently ripped from her vehicle by a group of juveniles. The group of suspects had hired her services and they consisted of four males and one female. The victim pleaded with the suspects asking them why...why...why? The primary suspect responded, "You're the chosen one for the day." The suspects fled in her 2015 silver Chevy. Not only stealing her transportation but also impacting her ability to earn an income. The elderly victim sustained abrasions and bruising from the ordeal. She sought help from people at a nearby residence and they called 911 for her.

On 04-12-21, at approximately 9:34AM, the stolen 2015 silver Chevy struck a city school bus, with passengers on board, in the 2000 block of E. 17th Ave. Three suspects fled from the crashed stolen vehicle consisting of two males and one female. A short time later the female returned to the scene. Police are still looking for the male suspects.

Columbus Division of Police Robbery Unit is investigating this incident and requests that anyone with information about these juvenile suspects call the CPD Robbery Unit (614-645-4665) or anonymously through Central Ohio Crime Stoppers (614-461-8477)
