Narrative Information

Body worn camera activated for this incident

On 9/28/2020 at approximately 0328 hours, Sgt [REDACTED] and I were in route to SW 19th and Westwood Blvd in response to an accident with injuries later call notes indicated VI had gunshot wounds later changed to an A.D.W..

Upon arrival Fire was tending to VI [REDACTED] wounds. VI was laying in the street between SW 19th St and SW 18th St on Westwood Blvd. VI had visible gunshot wounds to his right arm, right shoulder and face. Fire was tending to VI's wounds as VI laid flat on his back on the floor. I began to talk to VI trying to get any information about his identity or the incident. VI provided me with his information and said he works for LYFT and was transporting 2 B/F and 1 B/M from Del City when he was robbed and shot. VI was coming in and out of consciousness, at times mumbling and having a hard time speaking. EMSA arrived on scene and began to tend to VI. VI was able to provide some information of the incident. VI's wallet and phone were taken by the SU's. VI said the incident occurred approximately an hour prior. VI said one of the B/F's requested to be picked up from Del City to Oklahoma City but could not remember the name or the address. VI said SU information should be on his phone that was taken. VI became incoherent and could not answer any more questions.

At the scene I observed VI's vehicle [REDACTED] had struck a garage and a parked truck [REDACTED]). I looked inside VI's vehicle and found a large amount of blood inside the vehicle. VI's airbags had deployed, vehicle's front end damaged. There was blood on the garage where VI had exited from the driver side and had collapsed on the roadway.

EMSA advised me VI had to be transported to OU Medical quickly due to the gunshot wounds. Once EMSA transported VI from the scene the perimeter was set from SW 19th St to SW 18th St on Westwood Blvd. I briefed LT [REDACTED] about the incident and advised me CSI was in route. I remained on scene until CSI arrived and began to take pictures and gather evidence. Once CSI cleared the scene Puckett's transported the VI's vehicle to HQ for further investigation. I escorted Puckett's never losing sight of the wrecker with VI's vehicle being dropped off in the evidence bay at police HQ.

For more information about the incident see under this case number. There was also a collision report completed under this case number.
