Dear Hate Crimes Coordinator,

My name is Ivan Greenberg. Please the emails below, which outline a Bias/Hate Incident near my car parked in front of my building, which I reported last Friday March 6, 2020. No one from MPD has followed up and contacted me yet. I view this as an urgent matter. The CCN # is-- 20640093

Please note there is one typo in the last email. Change "Oh vey" to "Oy vey." I was nervous when I wrote that email and did not notice it until after rereading the email later.

Sincerely,
Ivan Greenberg

Subject: Question about my bias incident -- second email

Officer Perez,

I have not heard back from you.

No one at the Metropolitan Police Department has contacted me either about this Bias report.

This seems like an urgent matter to me. I know you took some pictures of the graffiti at my car. I did too.

As I explained to you, I worry that the words "3vey" may be coded anti-Jewish hate speech. I am a Jewish person with a high public profile. A Jew may be known as a "vey" in neo-Nazi and white supremacist language -- a reference to the Jewish/Yiddish phrase "Oh vey." As I also explained to you, I have heard some hate speech said to me face-to-face before.

Please note I sent a copy of this email to the DC District Attorney's Office.

Sincerely,

Ivan Greenberg

Dear Officer Perez,

This is Ivan Greenberg. You responded to my call about a bias incident at my car parked on 36th St. on Friday, March 6, 2020, at about 8am. You gave me your card and it says CCN# 20640093.

I have not heard yet from anyone at MPD for a follow-up.

I remember you told me it is okay to email you if no one contacted me.

Sincerely,
