Adjudicator Turner,

The Bar waives objection to the form of Ms. Deveny's response and service by email in this instance. If the Adjudicator is unwilling to enter an immediate order pending hearing, the Bar seeks the soonest possible setting for the BR 3.1 hearing in this matter. The Bar will be making a request for production tomorrow, and may need to request an expedited response date depending upon the hearing setting. Thank you for your consideration and courtesies.

Adjudicator Turner:

Again, I appreciate the short extension of time you granted me earlier in the week.

Allow me to respond, to the matters pending under 18-10, 18-11 and 18-12. For the client matters related to Carol Brown, Margaret Medley and Nancy Freyer/Nay. The funds due to Ms. Freyer were transmitted to her with a Settlement Statement outlining the fees costs and all disbursements on December 15, 2017. The funds due Ms. Brown and Ms. Medley also along with statements of fees, costs and other disbursements were transmitted on April 10, 2017.

As I believe I have told the Bar before, I have been largely out of the office since last fall due to personal, significant health issues, the serious illness of my mother and the condition of my husband. My husband passed away suddenly on March 12, 2018 and I was an unfortunate witness to that event.

I am in contact with the OAAP and counsel and working to resolve all the matters pending at this time. I understand that my Response to the Formal Complaint is due on April 19.

Respectfully,
Lori E. Deveny

Ms. Deveny,

I will allow you until the close of business on Wednesday, April 11, to answer the BR 3.1 petition. Despite this extension of time, I will still be setting the hearing not less than 30 days nor more than 60 days from the original due date, April 5, as per BR 3.1(e).

You may have until April 19 to file your answer to the Formal Complaint.

Mr. Turner:

I had previously made a request for a short extension of time to respond to the Complaints to allow me to confer with counsel and provide a response, due to both my personal health issues and the recent, sudden death of my husband.

I would continue that request and ask for three business days to respond to the above-matter before any Order is signed.

Respectfully submitted,
Lori E. Deveny

Counsel,

Respondent has not answered the BR 3.1 petition in these matters in a timely fashion. Would you please provide me with a proposed form of order suspending respondent effective immediately and include any additional proposed restrictions as contemplated in BR 3.1(f)? Thank you.
