Hi Michelle – we are in this morning but apparently Braden is OOO. As Mayor will be OOO as of 12:30, I'm not sure there's enough time today anyway so will shoot for next week. I've asked Braden to give me an approximate amount of time he'll need to have the phone as we'd need to schedule with her.

Thx

No. She either hasn't had time to give up her phone for the amount of time Braden apparently needs, or she has been remote. It looks as though the next time Mayor will be in the office is this Wednesday so will let her know of the time constraint and that we'll need the phone. Thx
