Roger and Kristi,

How about sharing the initial logo concepts with the rest of the Leadership Team before our meeting tomorrow... just via email, and with the explanation that they are in the process of revision? It would at least give Healy and the others a general sense of where we might be heading. Just a thought. Your call.

All,

Sorry for taking so long to respond to the string below. I like Roger's thinking, without exception. I also fully appreciate Kristi's words, particularly given our heavy workloads.

That said, I think the only real meaty issue we have before us has to do with membership. I spoke recently at some length with Judy and also with Healy and think we are starting to figure out how best to address what membership means. Attached is Roger's mark-up, along with a couple additions from me. The additions basically remove from our OIC the formal "voting" requirement of the general membership. With that done, we can eliminate the distinction between General and Affiliate member... and simply have members, which I really like. Anyone and everyone can be a Member, regardless where they reside... and being a Member simply means that you want to be part of this thing we created... this OIC. And you can be a Member that regularly attends events, or rarely attends. Being a Members simply means that you like what we are doing and, again, want to be part of it, in whatever capacity works for you.

Anyway, I think we are ready to have a good discussion about this at our next Leadership Team meeting.

Regarding April 28, I will likely not be able to participate in the evening meeting. Debbie and I will be in Columbus late that day moving Sam out of his freshman dorm and bringing him (and a carload of stuff) home for the summer. I hope to be able to participate in the 11:30 am meeting regarding the logo. Carol Collins (Leisure Services Director) and Chief Alan Hill (Public Safety Director) will participate in the evening OIC meeting, and I anticipate that two city council members (Vice Mayor Steve Byington and Leigh Turben) will also attend, possibly a third. Carol is acting city manager in my absence, and is prepared to lead a breakout session if needed.

I mentioned before that I watched the Single Story TED Talk several months ago and found it very powerful. I think it will be a great program.

dear all

i agree with kristi that i too thought that we were done with this document, but a year's reflection and work on the OIC brought me to a continued sense that that document was just not wholly where it needed to be or might be in two significant details: membership and matters of liaison members. i also agree with judy that our primary focus is on oakwood, but our organization was also founded in a concern for how oakwood interacts with and is perceived by surrounding communities. indeed, it was that external perception that initially brought us together in a concern that such an organization needed to be established. that additional dimension of our purpose and goals is also what we have stated, put in our documents, and expressed to the wider public in press releases. so we have already positioned and advertised ourselves as a community organization that is open to all communities, with and beyond oakwood. on the matter of membership, i wholly anticipate that our membership will always be 99.99 percent composed of residents of oakwood, so i think we stand nothing to lose and everything to gain by changing membership to be simply one category and not a structure of general members and affiliate members. thanks. yours, roger

Let's make sure we are being proactive and focused not defensive and protective.

Roger,

Thanks for the input. However, I'll admit to being a little fatigued in that I thought we had already laid most of these points to rest when we passed the document last year. That being said, we are a new organization, and if the majority don't think we have it right, than we can and should put issues back on the table.

Personally, I do not have strong feelings about whether or not we have one or two types of membership. As a non-Oakwood resident, I feel this is for others on the leadership team to decide.

However, on the role of the city, school, and library leaders, I feel we should be members that represent our institutions, just as other institutional leaders will be representing their institutions (faith leaders, business leaders, etc.).

Sounds like we'll have some things to discuss. I'm looking forward to all of your voices.

thanks for sending this round. please see and consider my editorial suggestions in the attached. in addition to drawing attention to a set of general edits, i would specifically point out the issue of how membership is defined (we presently have "general membership" ---read oakwood citizens--- and "affiliate membership"---read those who are not oakwood citizens. i fear that this sets of a A and B list set of members, and could be perceived externally as elitist . . . Also, i think we need a bit of conversation about whether individuals from the city (norb), the schools (kyle), and the library (kristi) are "members" or "liaisons." my recommendation is that we adhere to the language of "liaison" for these individuals, in the cases in which they are representing those entities (city, schools, and library), reserving to them as citizens/individuals the right and privilege to become members independent of their official roles with this city, schools, or library. in this way, we doubly make sure that the OIC is clearly a citizen-run organization and not an official or veiled wing of the city of oakwood, the schools, or the library. in other words, we are direct and upfront that individuals like norb, kyle, and krist are there as liasons as not as individuals who are guiding the OIC from their official positions.

yours, roger

Subject: OIC Establishing Document and April 28 Meetings

All,

Sorry for taking so long to respond to the string below. I like Roger's thinking, without exception. I also fully appreciate Kristi's words, particularly given our heavy workloads.

That said, I think the only real meaty issue we have before us has to do with membership. I spoke recently at some length with Judy and also with Healy and think we are starting to figure out how best to address what membership means. Attached is Roger's mark-up, along with a couple additions from me. The additions basically remove from our OIC the formal "voting" requirement of the general membership. With that done, we can eliminate the distinction between General and Affiliate member... and simply have members, which I really like. Anyone and everyone can be a Member, regardless where they reside... and being a Member simply means that you want to be part of this thing we created... this OIC. And you can be a Member that regularly attends events, or rarely attends. Being a Members simply means that you like what we are doing and, again, want to be part of it, in whatever capacity works for you.

Anyway, I think we are ready to have a good discussion about this at our next Leadership Team meeting.

Regarding April 28, I will likely not be able to participate in the evening meeting. Debbie and I will be in Columbus late that day moving Sam out of his freshman dorm and bringing him (and a carload of stuff) home for the summer. I hope to be able to participate in the 11:30 am meeting regarding the logo. Carol Collins (Leisure Services Director) and Chief Alan Hill (Public Safety Director) will participate in the evening OIC meeting, and I anticipate that two city council members (Vice Mayor Steve Byington and Leigh Turben) will also attend, possibly a third. Carol is acting city manager in my absence, and is prepared to lead a breakout session if needed.

I mentioned before that I watched the Single Story TED Talk several months ago and found it very powerful. I think it will be a great program.

dear all

what we have stated, put in our documents, and expressed to the wider public in press releases. so we have already positioned and advertised ourselves as a community organization that is open to all communities, with and beyond oakwood. on the matter of membership, i wholly anticipate that our membership will always be 99.99 percent composed of residents of oakwood, so i think we stand nothing to lose and everything to gain by changing membership to be simply one category and not a structure of general members and affiliate members. thanks. yours, roger

I think it is important to remember that our mission is about Oakwood and therefore our focus is how best to move forward as a community. Let's make sure we are being proactive and focused not defensive and protective.

Roger,

Thanks for the input. However, I'll admit to being a little fatigued in that I thought we had already laid most of these points to rest when we passed the document last year. That being said, we are a new organization, and if the majority don't think we have it right, than we can and should put issues back on the table.

Personally, I do not have strong feelings about whether or not we have one or two types of membership. As a non-Oakwood resident, I feel this is for others on the leadership team to decide.

However, on the role of the city, school, and library leaders, I feel we should be members that represent our institutions, just as other institutional leaders will be representing their institutions (faith leaders, business leaders, etc.).

Sounds like we'll have some things to discuss. I'm looking forward to all of your voices.

thanks for sending this round. please see and consider my editorial suggestions in the attached. in addition to drawing attention to a set of general edits, i would specifically point out the issue of how membership is defined (we presently have "general membership" ---read oakwood citizens--- and "affiliate membership"---read those who are not oakwood citizens. i fear that this sets of a A and B list set of members, and could be perceived externally as elitist . . . Also, i think we need a bit of conversation about whether individuals from the city (norb), the schools (kyle), and the library (kristi) are "members" or "liaisons." my recommendation is that we adhere to the language of "liaison" for these individuals, in the cases in which they are representing those entities (city, schools, and library), reserving to them as citizens/individuals the right and privilege to become members independent of their official roles with this city, schools, or library. in this way, we doubly make sure that the OIC is clearly a citizen-run organization and not an official or veiled wing of the city of oakwood, the schools, or the library. in other words, we are direct and upfront that individuals like norb, kyle, and krist are there as liasons as not as individuals who are guiding the OIC from their official positions.

 - I have attached a copy of the OIC Rules of Conduct, which each leader should read to their group at the beginning of the breakout session.
 - There are more discussion questions than needed, so you have choices if dialog starts to lag.

When I last checked, we had 46 people registered. We like to have 4 – 6 people per discussion. It's possible that more than one discussion leader may be assigned to one room, and if so, you can work together or assign one person to take the lead.

Please let me know if you have any questions or suggestions. I think it's going to be a great program. Thank you Michael, Madeline, and Leigh Ann for all your work putting this together!

PROPOSED AGENDA (v3 Draft 4/23/21)

April 28, 2021 OIC General Membership Meeting

DURING PRE-MEETING SIGN-IN...??

Possible “teaser” for the membership meeting perhaps on the zoom screen as people start to enter the zoom session on the 24th?

- When someone sees you walking down the street, what lists might they make about you?
- What lists do you sometimes make about others?
- How might these lists shape choices people make (beyond greeting each other)?
- What would it take to change the lists people make about each other?

1. WELCOME <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • OIC Updates • Introduce Madeline 	Kristi Hale	7:00 pm (2 min.)
2. INTRODUCE FACILITATOR, MICHAEL CARTER	Madeline Iseli	7:02 pm (1 min)
3. BRIEF OVERVIEW OF MEETING FORMAT <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • TED Talk followed by breakout discussion groups and then summary and Q&A with larger group • Introduce TED Talk — “The Danger of a Single Story” 	Michael Carter	7:03 pm (5 min)

5. BACK TO MICHAEL <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Now we’re going to go into the breakout groups for about 30 minutes, after which we’ll reconvene as an entire group for observations and reflections 	Michael	7:28 pm (1 min)

A. GO INTO BREAKOUT DISCUSSION GROUPS BREAKOUT LEADER INSTRUCTIONS: B. Share OIC Code of Conduct (Attached) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Open-Mindedness 2) Acceptance 3) Curiosity 4) Sincerity 5) Brevity C. Introduce Discussion with this statement: Adichie (pronounced “uh-DEE-chee”) says “stories matter because they have the power to break or create dignity.” Let’s talk about how “single stories” impact our own identities, how we view others, and the choices we make. Here are some questions that may help start our discussion: (NOTE: This is a long list of questions provided as potential seeds to keep the conversation going. There is no need for group leaders to feel pressured to cover the entire list. Group leaders may choose from this list to cover the topics that interest them the most. Michael will facilitate the conversation afterward to tease out these many different facets of “single story” dynamics.) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Has a single story ever been told about you? How did you know? How did it make you feel? 2) Have you ever told a single story? What did you do? How did you come to realize it was a single story? 3) Describe a “single story” that you feel is wrongly impacting others. 4) Do we create single stereotypical stories about countries, religions and races that are unfair? Give some examples. 5) What makes individuals uncomfortable about not having a single story for other people? 6) Have you ever connected with someone with whom you were sure you had nothing in common? How did that help your personal development? 7) Have you learned anything recently that you weren't aware of, and it helped change your perspective about other people? 8) America is more segregated today than it was in 1996. Dayton is one of the most segregated cities in America. Do these facts lead to the likelihood of a single story? Why/why not? 9) Interacting with people different than oneself helps avoid creating single stories. What can you commit to do to erase some of your single-story blind spots? D. Breakout Discussion NOTE: Breakout session leaders should have examples ready in their heads should no one jump in to start the discussion.	Breakout Group Leaders	7:29 pm (30 min)

6. RETURN FROM BREAKOUT GROUPS (Allow transition time for everyone to return...)		7:59 pm (1 min)
7. WRAP UP DISCUSSION WITH ENTIRE GROUP – Michael will Facilitate a Conversation with the Larger Group NOTE: It would be helpful for Michael to have a list of the breakout groups and their leaders so that he can call on groups to engage in the conversation. Possible introduction and highlights Michael will cover: Here are the steps of how single stories can cause us to treat individuals negatively: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We assume something is true of all individuals in a group, i.e., we create a stereotype. • We show prejudice when we base our opinion about someone on a negative stereotype. • We discriminate when we treat a person negatively based on stereotype. People like to believe they aren't judgmental but all humans are. Our brains are wired this way to help us make sense of the world we live in. Being judgmental is neither good nor bad.... It's just natural. However, placing all people in a category can be misleading and dangerous. For example, all Islamists are not terrorists, all old women are not grandmothers, and all dogs are not friendly. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ask for specific examples from the breakout discussion session that show the confusion/danger of stereotyping in your group? • When we stereotype folks, whether it be good or bad, we are telling a single story about that person that can be just part of the story or wrong all together. • Thank you for sharing your experiences tonight with us as we all learn more about how we can be more inclusive and accepting of people in our community. 	Michael Carter	8:00 pm (20-25 min)
8. ADJOURNMENT	Kristi Hale	8:20 pm (5-10 min)
