Sorry, All! I think I've been talking to people on Zoom all day today... I'm feeling "talked out!" 😊

So, just now catching up on emails...

I appreciate the "drum roll" part of the suggestion (thank you Dan and Roger!), but truly, the very humble part of me doesn't feel that I measure up at all with these very accomplished academicians and artists!! if you would like me to find someone, perhaps from Sinclair, who might have attained similar levels of expertise, I am happy to do so! Otherwise, I am honored to serve as a panelist, and happy to share my own perspective as an Oakwood resident from a diverse background.

Hi All

It was nice "seeing" everyone on Monday and getting comments/ideas about the program for our next general membership meeting on April 28th. Thank you.

Since our meeting, I haven't received any feedback yet regarding panelists so I am sending this reminder email. Please send ideas of people (and their contact info) who could participate in a panel discussion after we watch the TED Talk "The Danger of a Single Story." After we collect names, we will need to narrow down to three panelists and invite them to join us pronto. April is a busy (as well as cruel :) month and I don't want to leave this too late, so thank you for getting your ideas for panelists to me as soon as possible.

Something to think about: If we don't have a panel, we will go with our alternate plan of separating into breakout sessions after watching the video and have small group discussions instead. We would need questions or a format for those breakout sessions and also some kind of closure at the end when we all come back together.... perhaps a spokesperson for each breakout session could share something that stands out from their discussion? OR, we could ask a specific question that each breakout group would need to work together to answer?

I look forward to your feedback and appreciate your help. I am eager for our next meeting.

ciao leigh ann:

thanks. i'm confident that your suggestion of last night got through to all; i was just waiting to see if there were any responses. your suggestion of "stronger together" would, i think, be an excellent addition were it not for the fact that that same statement was hillary clinton's campaign slogan in 2016 (see this NPR story on that fact: <https://www.npr.org/2016/08/08/489138602/trump-comment-gives-clinton-a-campaign-slogan-with-layered-meaning>).

so i think we ought to steer clear of that one for the obvious political reasons, not to mention any copyright matters that this might touch up against. do you and others concur with this reservation?

my goal is to get out the possibilities today or tomorrow morning at the latest for a vote among the members of the leadership team, so please all send any other ideas in addition to the ones that we have.

thanks. yours, roger

i just touched base with jayne whitaker, and she brought up an interesting possibility for us, namely that we should aim to have 1 tagline BUT that the student design firms could also work creativity---say for possible Far Hills banner proposals---with a set of key words that are important to the OIC.

so, i'd suggest that as we boil things down toward our tagline, we think also about maybe a dozen words that we could also furnish to the students? this might be a nice way for us "to have our cake and eat it too" (have our tagline and other words that we like!).

Healy,

I like your thinking.

The draft logos are most certainly, and appropriately, OIC focused.

The words "belong" and "enrich" bother me. To me, "belong" sounds somewhat prescriptive, and "enrich" could be taken as going in the direction of physical wealth or maybe even elitist... maybe???

How about: "Citizens Building Community for All"?

I also agree that making a final decision on the tag line is best done in conjunction with finalizing the logo.

More thoughts:

I suggested the words, "Citizens" to drive the point that we are a citizen-driven organization.

Ideally, shouldn't the logo/tagline compliment or at least interplay with one another? For example, with one possible logo that incorporates anything that looks like our often-used "O" or oak tree motif, the tagline: OIC: Growing Inclusion could work. In short, we may wait to make a final decision about the tagline until after we see the logo designs.

Roger, have you previewed the students' designs? Are they City of Oakwood or OIC focused?

i think that healy raises a very good question: is this tag line for the city of oakwood or for the OIC? quite clearly it needs to be for the OIC, but in that it needs to be---as healy well reminds us--- directly related to the identity and work of the OIC and not, by confusion or elision, to the identity and work of the city of oakwood per se.

so while some of us have expressed support for #5 ("A Community Where All Belong"), again healy's reminder is that the OIC is not a community but a community-based group with a growing identity and agenda for studying, fostering, and celebrating diversity and inclusion.

healy's suggestion, therefore, of "Citizens Enriching Community" begins to work for me as we truly are NOT the community and city of oakwood itself but, as healy's suggestion goes, "Citizens Enriching Community."

i think healy is moving in the right direction here, but maybe mentioning "citizens" might be misunderstood as implying only oakwood citizens. so how about simply dropping "citizens" and thinking about:

Enriching Community for All

Building Community for All

Expanding Community through Engagement

Growing Community for All (depending on logo design) or Growing Inclusion (The word Inclusion wouldn't be used if it appeared in the logo design.)

Perhaps "building together" "working together" "learning together" "growing together"
I like the connotation of the word "together."

I also like the idea of action verbs but we need to keep this short... and I am having a hard time finding succinct verb phrases. I'm not clear. Is the tag line for the City of Oakwood or the OIC? -

~~1. Connected. Engaged. Accepted~~

~~2. Accept. Engage. Belong~~

~~3. Unquestioned Acceptance~~

4. A Community Where You Belong

5. A Community Where All Belong (If the tagline is for the city)

~~6. Welcome and Celebrate Community~~

~~7. Welcome. Promote. Celebrate~~

Other options:

Oakwood: A Community Where Diversity is Celebrated

Oakwood: A Community that Celebrates Diversity

Oakwood: A Community
Committed to Celebrating Diversity

Oakwood: A Community
Embracing Diversity

OIC tag lines

Oakwood Inclusion Coalition:
Celebrating Diversity

OIC: A Coalition Committed to Celebrating Diversity
