Kristi, Norb, and Kyle,

On Friday, Sam and I had a wonderful meeting with Tae Winston who organizes food truck events around Dayton. She is eager to help us and will waive her fee to help us. She is an exceptionally kind and generous person to say the least! I am so grateful to have her on board—I am not an experienced food event organizer.

After review of three proposed sites in Oakwood, Tae believes that Lane Stadium will be best location. Sam, Tae, and I are meeting at Lane on Wednesday July 22 at 4:30 pm to look at the parking area and get an idea for placement of trucks and needs for the event. Would you all be available to meet with us then?

Also I have talked with Kyle and Sandi, and Kyle requests that we schedule when there aren't games or practices. I talked with Greg Goetz today (Laura Connor is on vacation until next week), and Sundays appear to be the best option. Perhaps a 3-7pm event would work on the last Sunday in August?

Greg can't join us on Wednesday but he shared his ideas and concerns re our use of Lane that I will bring to our meeting.

If you think anyone else should be included in this initial meeting, please let me know.

My best,
Leigh Ann

Hi...yes that works out perfectly.

I have your group booked on Sat. 8/14 from 3 – 4pm for the private tour.
I have also booked a meeting space for you from 4- 5:30pm in room Conference room 1A.
You should be receiving that confirmation soon via email.
There is a 20.00 fee for the private docent, but the meeting space is complimentary.
Thank you so much and please let me know if there is anything else I can assist you with.

Hello Kim,

I'm writing as Chairperson of the Oakwood Inclusion Coalition to express interest in finding a time for our leadership team and a few others to schedule a docent tour of the UnDesign the Red Line exhibit.

Please tell me how long we should set aside for the tour, and what hours are available the week of August 9 (are both daytime and evening available). Once I have that information, I'll reach out to my group to see what fits most of our schedules.

Thank you for this opportunity!

Leigh Ann and Kristi:

It might be a good idea to give the Executive Committee a couple of date options and then we just go with when the most people can go. Then we will need to contact Kim Dellinger at Metro to set up the room reservation and get the docent scheduled; Leigh Ann, going forward you'll probably want contact Kim directly since you're in charge of OIC Programming. Let me know if you think this is a plan and I can tell her that the OIC contact will be you as head of the Programming Committee and she'll know to be on the lookout for your email.

Again, for our Executive Committee tour there would be a $20 charge for the docent, no charge for the room but Kim said that she could be flexible on the docent fee. Metro will have evening hours (closing at 8:30 PM) starting on July 19th so we could book the tour on a Monday, Tuesday or Thursday night, which I think might be better since so many people work during the day. No charge for parking in the garage at DML Main.

Kim did suggest we get this booked for the week of August 9th when the exhibit opens so we'll have flexibility to decide whether we want to book an event space before the exhibit leaves on September 25 or give members plenty of time to view on their own if we decide to host a webinar through OIC or WMPL. But if that's not a good week for very many people, we can do it the next week or so.

Elizabeth, Kristi and Brian:

We talked about this upcoming Undesign the Redline Exhibit (August 6-September 25) at Metro as a possible OIC program; it's probably better suited for the Programming Committee but maybe we could support it by hosting a post-tour webinar. It looks like there are a couple of options that might work for groups. The thing is, we don't know the interest with the OIC membership; if we get 20-ish interested, then it could be a docent-led tour that we call the Ask Me Line to book. If we get like 60, then it's an EVENT!! and needs to be scheduled through the Events Manager.

I did talk to Kim Dellinger in Events here about possibilities and here's what she's recommending (and she's recommending we do this the opening week of August 9th through the 14th):

FIRST STEP:

- We start with an OIC Executive Committee and/or Programming Committee docent-led tour
- She books us a COMPED Meeting Room (no charge) + a docent ($20) for that time
- We can get together in the Meeting Room before the event, then take the tour, then meet afterwards in the Meeting Room to discuss

THEN:

- IF WE THINK SELF-GUIDED TOURS for individuals will work, then those can just be booked through the Visit link below
 - We could then host a webinar for OIC participants through WMPL or OIC and recommend they tour the exhibit at their convenience before the webinar
- IF WE THINK IT'S A PROGRAM WE WANT TO HIGHLIGHT, she can talk to us about booking the Community Room, adding a food/beverage package + the docent tour

I actually like the option of the OIC Executive and/or Programming Committees touring first and deciding how we can best proceed. If someone can forward this to Leigh Ann (I don't have her email here with me!), that would be great!

HOST: For an EVENT that combines a tour (either self-guided or docent-led for $20) with a reserved meeting space for discussion)

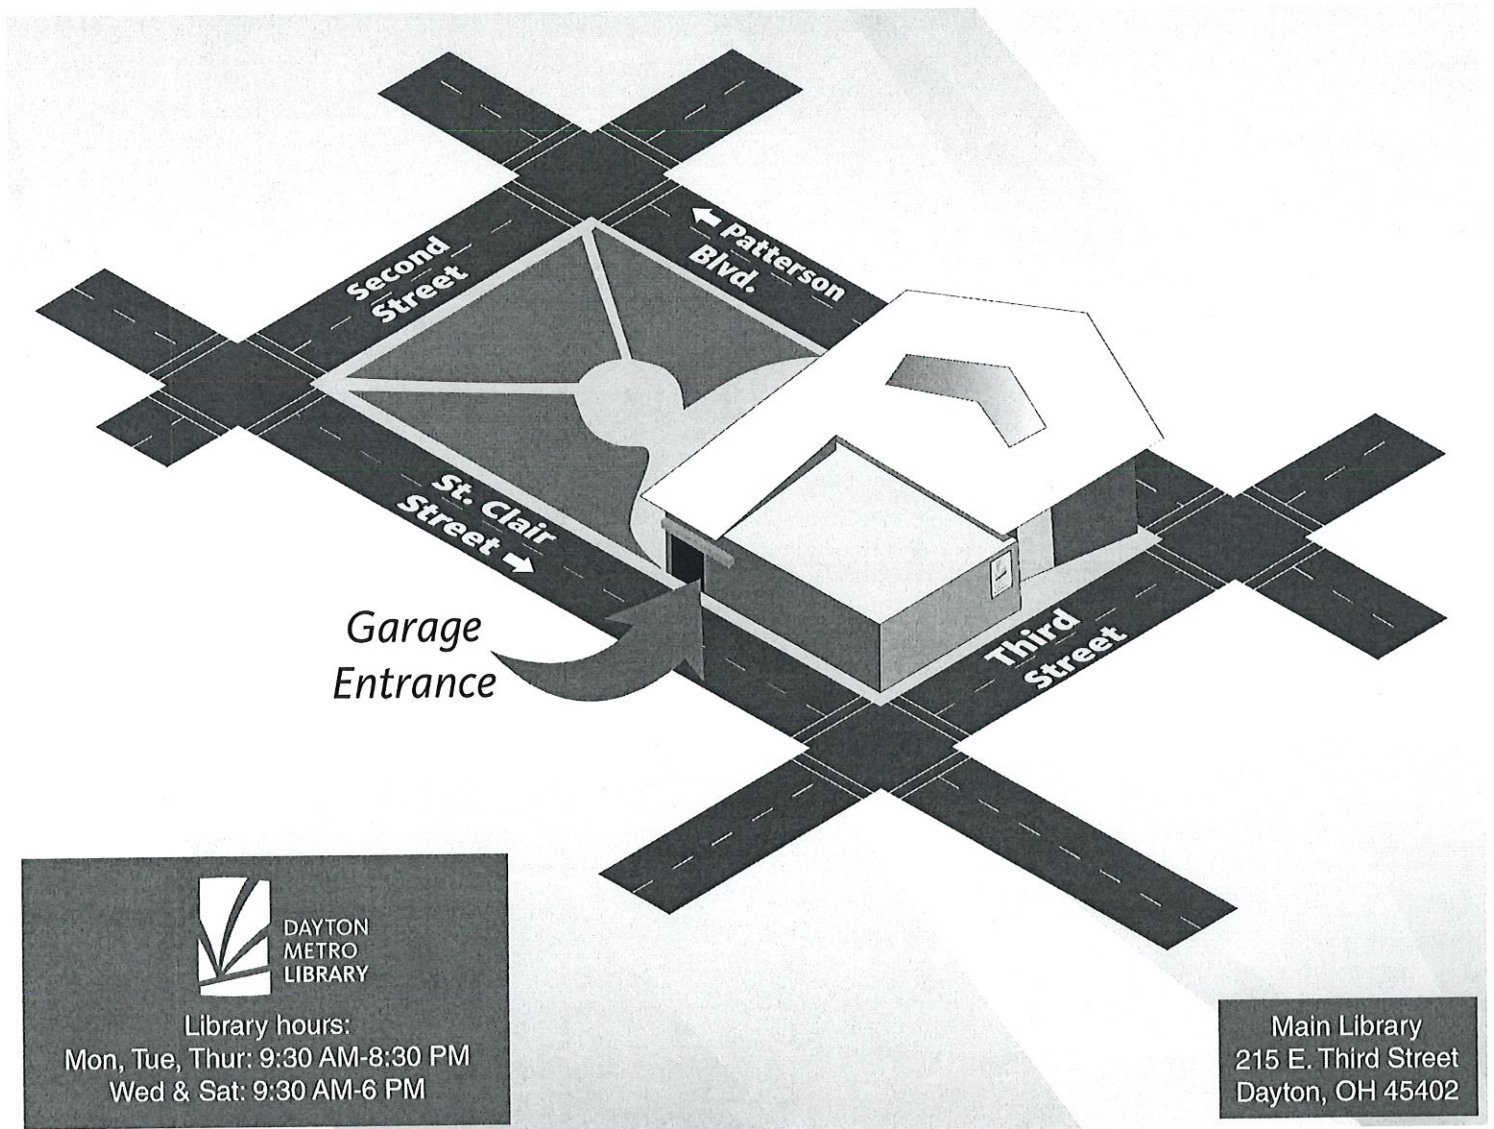

Per-person price includes room rental with AV equipment and a food & beverage package: this may be too costly. Add docent-led tour for $20.

Ohio Humanities Taking Applications for $1.3M in ARP Funds for Public Humanities Nonprofits

Arts nonprofit Ohio Humanities is currently accepting grant applications from nonprofits with a public humanities mission that have been affected by the pandemic. It will award a total of $1.3 million through the American Rescue Plan (ARP) Act of 2021, under the National Endowment for the Humanities' (NEH) Sustaining the Humanities through ARP (SHARP) program.

The ARP allocated $51.6 million in emergency funding to NEH for local distribution through 56 state and jurisdictional humanities groups, according to an Ohio Humanities release. Funds support organizations, programs and professionals at the local level to advance economic recovery within the cultural sector due to the effects of the pandemic. Eligible projects may include humanities programming, general operating costs, strategic planning and pandemic recovery efforts and digital or accessible program development.

To be eligible, applicants must be public humanities nonprofits that experienced financial hardship as a result of the pandemic including reduction, loss or furlough of staff, or loss of annual operating revenue. SHARP grants are not available to individuals, for-profit organizations, political or advocacy organizations, or for activities supported by non-NEH federal funding.

The application window opened on Monday, July 12 and carries a deadline of Monday, Aug. 2. Additional deadlines may be announced pending the availability of funds. In the release, Ohio Humanities Executive Director Rebecca Brown Asmo noted the group previously distributed over $750,000 to cultural groups through the CARES Act. (See The Hannah Report, 5/8/20.)

"Ohio's public libraries, museums,

"Ohio's public libraries, museums, historical societies and other cultural organizations are the cornerstones of many of our communities, places where we can once again come together as our state reopens. Through the SHARP program, we will continue to provide critical support to these local organizations," Brown Asmo said.

"With so many of our nation's cultural and educational institutions reeling from the economic fallout of the pandemic, NEH's state and jurisdictional humanities partners are on the front lines of the crisis, adapting and responding to urgent needs within their states and communities to shore up the humanities organizations and resources that enrich the lives of so many citizens," added NEH Acting Chairman Adam Wolfson.

"NEH is grateful to our state and jurisdictional partners for joining us in this effort to quickly distribute American Rescue Plan relief funding to where it is most needed."
