I. Overview

Free Speech Foundation is organized and operated for educational purposes, pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The Foundation's objective is to promote a broader and more substantial public understanding of the First Amendment's integral role in America's civic history and institutions, and its enduring importance in today's world. See generally 26 CFR 1.501(c)(3)-1(d)(2)(iii) (defining charitable activities to include the defense of human and civil rights secured by law); Rev. Rul. 73-285.

To that end, the Foundation will allocate its time and resources in approximately equal proportions among the following programs and activities:

1. Researching and publishing white papers and books that analyze the historical and normative underpinnings of the First Amendment, the intellectual contributions of the American Founders, the constitutional jurisprudence of the federal courts, and ideas for fortifying a respect for free and open debate in the unique circumstances presented by twenty-first century cultural norms and modes of communication (e.g., exploring the positive and negative potentialities of the Internet and social media for free speech).
2. Preparing and disseminating op-eds, articles, blog posts, and social media communications highlighting efforts to censor or otherwise curtail the expression of certain viewpoints and educating the public about the implications of so-called cancel culture within the context of America's historical commitment to the rigorous exchange of ideas.
3. Organizing and hosting seminars, conferences and panel discussions relating the experiences of individuals who have suffered adverse business or professional consequences for expressing ostensibly unpopular perspectives, and exploring avenues for increasing appreciation of values such as tolerance, reciprocity, and respectful dialogue through civic engagement and public education.

In conducting its educational mission, the Foundation will provide a sufficiently full and fair exposition of the pertinent facts as to permit the audience to form their own independent opinions or conclusions.

The Foundation's programs and activities are thoroughly non-partisan and do not entail support for or opposition to any candidate for public office or political party, or any other form of direct or indirect intervention in political campaigns. The organization is firmly committed to the principle that First Amendment rights (and the history and values that underlie them) are not exclusive to any political party or ideology.

II. Illustrative Examples of Activities

Since its formation in June 2020, Free Speech Foundation's first major initiative has consisted of spearheading the America's Frontline Doctors project (www.afllds.com). AFLDS' development was prompted by concerns that medical data, scientific evidence, and patient-centric care have been subordinated to political objectives and ideological agendas, most notably in connection with the COVID-19 pandemic. The project aims to increase public awareness of the risks to public health and scientific progress posed by the suppression of data and evidence that does not conform to preordained ideological narratives, and explores the unintended consequences of certain public health policy responses to the pandemic. The capstone of the project is a book authored by Simone Gold, M.D., the founder, Chairman and CEO of the Foundation, titled I Do Not Consent: My Fight Against Medical Cancel Culture, which was published by Bombardier Books in October 2020. All royalties and other income from book sales are remitted directly to the Foundation, pursuant to a contract with the publisher.

As part of the AFLDS project, the Foundation has hosted two events titled White Coat Summits, which featured more than a dozen physicians who shared their experiences on the frontlines of the COVID-19 pandemic and their assessments of the successes and failures of various public health measures. Dr. Gold has supplemented these activities with radio interviews, articles, and blog posts examining the same issues. The project also publishes a weekly newsletter that is made available to members of the public free of charge; a sample newsletter is attached as Exhibit D.

In the future, the Foundation intends to conduct or sponsor the following planned programs and activities:

1. Participate in a conference with civil rights leaders in December 2020 to discuss the relationship between issues of racism and vaccine availability and use.
2. Author a second book that further analyzes and develops themes explored in I Do Not Consent relating to the proliferation of censorship in the medical and scientific fields.
3. Continue and expand upon AFLDS' public education efforts through an augmented online and social media presence.

From time to time, Free Speech Foundation may seek to influence legislation relating to public health policy or to the promotion of the free and open exchange of ideas. The organization anticipates that it will utilize both direct lobbying (i.e., communications with legislators and other policymakers) as well as grassroots lobbying (i.e., urging members of the public to contact their elected representatives in support of or opposition to particular items of legislation). Any such lobbying efforts, however, will not consume any substantial portion of the Foundation's time or resources, will never constitute a primary or main objective of the organization, and will adhere to the limitations prescribed by 26 U.S.C. section 501(h). A completed Form 5768 is attached hereto as Exhibit E.

Fiscal Sponsorship

Pending the Service's recognition of its exempt status, Free Speech Foundation has entered into a fiscal sponsorship arrangement with Tea Party Patriots Foundation, an organization recognized by the Service as exempt from taxation pursuant to section 501(c)(3). Pursuant to the arrangement, donors wishing to support Free Speech Foundation projects may remit contributions to Tea Party Patriots Foundation. Tea Party Patriots Foundation will authorize the disbursement of funds for Free Speech Foundation projects only upon making an independent determination, in its sole discretion, that the proposed uses of the disbursed funds are consistent with Tea Party Patriots Foundation's and Free Speech Foundation's respective exempt purposes, and may impose any modifications or restrictions on the use of funds that Tea Party Patriots Foundation deems necessary or appropriate.

For clarity and ease of reference, the figures set forth in Part VI represent the aggregate total of all funds projected to be received and disbursed by Free Speech Foundation directly and by Tea Party Patriots Foundation for the benefit of Free Speech Foundation projects.

Book Authorship

Dr. Simone Gold, the Foundation's Chairman and CEO, has authored a book titled I Do Not Consent: My Fight Against Medical Cancel Culture, which was published by a third party publishing company in October 2020. The publishing company is independent of the Foundation, the entities share no common officers, directors or employees, and the contract between the Foundation and the publisher was negotiated at arms-length.

Dr. Gold has not received, and will not receive, from the Foundation any compensation other than a fixed salary approved in advance by disinterested directors in accordance with the Foundation's conflict of interest policy, which requires that compensation paid to the Foundation's officers, directors and employees must not exceed the fair market value of the services provided to the Foundation. Pursuant to the contract with the publisher (attached as Exhibit F¹), all author royalties and other income derived from book sales are remitted directly to the Foundation and used in furtherance of the Foundation's exempt purposes.

Membership

The Foundation is not structured as a membership organization; all governance and managerial powers are vested in the Board of Directors. In exchange for a requested donation the $10, the Foundation will offer the public the opportunity to become "members" of the Foundation. Members receive early access to the Foundation's white papers, pamphlets and similar materials informing them of the Foundation's activities before such materials are released to the general public. The materials carry a de minimus market value. Members do not receive any other goods, services or benefits from the Foundation.

Part VI, Item B

The Foundation's tax year ends on December 31. The balance sheet reflects the Foundation's cash on hand as of November 1, 2020.

ARTICLES OF AMENDMENT TO THE
AMENDED & RESTATED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF COMMON SENSE FOUNDATION

Article I of the Amended & Restated Articles of Incorporation of Common Sense Foundation is deleted in its entirety and the following is inserted in lieu thereof:

ARTICLE I

NAME

The name of the corporation is: Free Speech Foundation.

Exhibit C

BYLAWS OF FREE SPEECH FOUNDATION

(an Arizona nonprofit corporation)

I. REFERENCES TO ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION & SENIORITY

1.1. References to Articles. Any reference herein made to the Corporation's articles of incorporation will be deemed to refer to its articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto (collectively, the "Articles").

1.2. Seniority. The Articles and the mandatory provisions of the Arizona Revised Statutes will in all respects be considered senior and superior to these bylaws, with any inconsistency to be resolved in favor of the Articles and such legal provisions, and with these bylaws to be deemed automatically amended from time to time to eliminate any such inconsistency that may then exist.

II. CORPORATE OFFICES

2.1. Principal Office. The principal office of the Corporation in the State of Arizona shall be as set forth in the Articles. The Corporation may have such other offices, either within or without the State of Arizona, as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the Corporation may require from time to time.

2.2. Change Thereof. The Board of Directors may change the Corporation's known place of business from time to time by amending the Articles or filing the necessary paperwork with the Arizona Corporation Commission.

III. ADMINISTRATION

The affairs of the Corporation shall be administered by the Board of Directors.

IV. DIRECTORS

4.1. Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall consist of a minimum of one (1) and a maximum of nine (9) members, as determined from time to time by the Directors, who shall be at least 18 years of age but who need not be residents of the State of Arizona.

4.2. Election and Term of Directors. The members of the Board of Directors shall hold office for a term of two (2) years, except that the terms of the initial Directors shall be of such duration to ensure that the terms of Directors are staggered so that approximately one-third of the terms expire each year. A Director may be reelected for any number of terms. At the annual meeting of the Board of Directors in which the term of any of the Directors is to expire, the Directors then in office shall elect successors for the Directors whose terms are expiring. Each Director shall hold office until his or her successor has been elected and qualified, or until his or her death, resignation or removal. The Board of Directors shall have general powers to manage and direct the activities of the Corporation.

4.3. Meetings. Subject to Section 4.7 below, meetings of the Board of Directors may be held whenever and wherever called for by the Executive Director or the number of Directors that would be required to constitute a quorum. At all meetings of the Board of Directors, the Chairman (if any), or in his or her absence the next highest officer, shall preside.

4.4. Action by Directors Without a Meeting. Any action that may be taken by vote at a meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if the action is evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken, signed by each Director or committee member, and delivered for inclusion in the minutes or for filing with the corporate records. Action taken under this Section 4.4 is effective when all Directors or committee members have signed the consent, unless the consent specifies a different effective date. Such consent has the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the Directors or committee members and may be stated as such in any document.

4.5. Meetings by Telephone Conference. Any member of the Board of Directors or a committee thereof may participate in any meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communication equipment whereby all Directors participating in such meeting can hear one another.

4.6. Notices. Written notice of the time and place (but not necessarily the purpose or all of the purposes) of any other meeting will be given to each Director in person or via mail, electronic mail or facsimile addressed to him or her at his or her latest physical address, electronic mail address, or facsimile number appearing on the Corporation's records. Attendance of a Director at any meeting will automatically evidence his or her waiver of notice of such meeting (and any adjournment thereof) unless he or she is attending the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of business because the meeting has not been properly noticed.

4.7. Quorum. A quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting or adjourned meeting of the Board of Directors will consist of a majority of those then in office.

4.8. Voting. Any matter submitted to a meeting of the Board of Directors will be resolved by a majority of the votes cast thereon. Each Director present shall have one vote. Unless otherwise required by law, the vote of a majority of the Directors present at the time of the vote, if a quorum is present at such time, shall be the act of the Board of Directors.

4.9. Committees. The Board of Directors, from time to time, by resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, may designate from among its members an executive committee and such other committees, each consisting of two (2) or more directors, and vest such committees with such powers as the Board of Directors may include in its resolution; provided, however, that such committees shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors and shall be restricted in their authority as follows. A committee shall not have the power or authority to: (a) amend, restate, alter or repeal the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation; (b) amend, alter or repeal these or any other bylaws of the Corporation; (c) elect, appoint or remove any member of any such committee or any Officer or Director of the Corporation; (d) adopt a plan of merger or consolidation with any other corporation or entity; (e) authorize the sale, lease, exchange or mortgage of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the Corporation; (f) authorize the voluntary dissolution of the Corporation or revoke any proceedings for the voluntary dissolution of the Corporation; (g) adopt any plan for the distribution of the assets of the Corporation; (h) amend, alter or repeal any resolution of the Board of Directors which by its terms does not expressly provide that it may be amended, altered or repealed by such committee; or (i) take any other action prohibited by law. All committees of the Board of Directors shall keep regular minutes of their respective transactions and shall report their actions to the Board of Directors at the meeting of the Board of Directors next following such actions.

4.10. Presumption of Assent. A Director of the Corporation who is present at a meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee of the Board of Directors at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless he or she objects at the beginning of such meeting.

4.11. Compensation. No compensation shall be paid to Directors, as such, for their services, but by resolution of the Board of Directors payment or reimbursement of expenses for actual attendance at each regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors, or for insurance coverage benefitting the Directors, may be authorized. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any Director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor or for being reimbursed for expenses in connection therewith.

4.12. Resignation and Removal. A Director may resign at any time by giving written notice in the manner prescribed in Section 7.1. Any Director may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by a vote of two-thirds of the Directors then in office. The removal of a person from the Board of Directors does not automatically prevent the same person from serving as an Officer.

V. OFFICERS GENERALLY

5.1. Elections and Appointments. The Board of Directors shall elect or appoint a Executive Director. A person elected or appointed to any office will continue to hold that office until such Officer resigns pursuant to Section 7.1 or is removed pursuant to Section 5.2. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person.

5.2. Removal; Delegation of Duties. All Officers that are elected or appointed shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors, and any Officer elected or appointed by the Board of Directors may be removed with or without cause by a majority vote of the Board of Directors. In the event of the death, resignation or removal of an Officer, the Board of Directors in its discretion may elect or appoint a successor to fill the unexpired term.

5.3. Salaries. The salaries, if any, of all Officers shall be fixed by the Board of Directors from time to time; provided, however, that compensation shall be paid only for personal services that are reasonable and necessary to carry out the charitable purposes of the Corporation and shall not be excessive; and provided further that no compensation shall be paid to any government official, as defined in Section 4946(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws. The following guidelines shall be followed by the Board of Directors when determining reasonable compensation of any Officer:

- a. The Corporation's Conflict of Interest Policy must be consulted and satisfied;
- b. Del Bigtree Interviews Dr. Simone Gold on The Highwire

Del Bigtree and Dr. Simone Gold discussed many topics including the genesis of America's Frontline Doctors, Dr. Gold's firing by her former employers, Big Tech censorship, medical cancel culture, Big Pharma, and vaccine safety. In the interview Dr. Gold opines about the suppression of truth as an effort coordinated at the highest levels. Dr. Gold shares her thoughts about the COVID-19 experimental vaccine explaining that vaccines should be reserved for instances where there is a serious threat. "It is fundamentally irrational to take an untested, unproven, untried, brand new medication of any sort when you have a tried and true medicine that has been around for decades." Dr. Gold continues, "It is irrational to take an untested medication that is shielded from liability when you are perfectly healthy and the virus you are trying to prevent is non-lethal and you are highly likely to recover from it."

Dr. Gold
@DrGold

The American Medical Association is a corrupt organization. Only a tiny # of physicians, all of whom are corrupt, claim that it is large.

The American Medical Association makes them complicit in the COVID-19, due to their fraudulent actions as NOT to prescribe HCQ.

Because the COVID-19 pandemic is a serious medical issue, people are dying. We must be able to perform as sagacious prescribers; therefore be it

Resolved: That our American Medical Association rescind its statement prohibiting hydroxychloroquine and chloroquine until sufficient evidence conclusively illustrate that the harm associated with use outweighs the benefit, implying that such treatment is inappropriate contradicts Patient Access to Treatments Prescribed by Their Physicians, and take actions as appropriate in the judgement of the prescribing physician; and be it further

Resolved: That our AMA rescind its joint statement with the American Pharmacists Association and American Society of Health System Pharmacists, and update its policy advising patients that further studies are ongoing to clarify any potential risks of hydroxychloroquine and combination therapies for the treatment of COVID-19; and be it further

Resolved: That our AMA reassure the patients whose physicians are prescribing hydroxychloroquine and combination therapies for their early-stage COVID-19 by updating its statement clarifying our support for a physician's ability to prescribe hydroxychloroquine and combination therapies for off label use, if it is in her/his best clinical judgement; and be it further

Resolved: That our AMA take the actions necessary to require local pharmacies to stock hydroxychloroquine and combination therapies that are issued by physicians and consistent with AMA principle 4-120.988, "Patient Access to Treatments Prescribed by Their Physicians," and the American Pharmacists Association and American Society of Health System Pharmacists. corruption within large bureaucratic health organizations and scientific journals. Please click HERE to listen to the important message he delivered at our White Coat Summit II, Washington D.C., 10/16.

Excerpts from his speech:

"So over this past year the COVID-19 pandemic has really exposed or uncovered a tremendous amount of corruption and conflicts of interest that are in both the health sciences and medical fields. For my talk today, I am going to go through different levels of these organizations, looking at these financial incentives and why we see so many of these health officials and organizations pushing a similar narrative - fear and panic - with the only way of getting back to a real normal (not the new normal) vaccine or Big pharma therapeutic."

"I would say that the gatekeepers for the science overall are really the academic journals themselves. They are supposed to be the ones with the robust peer-reviewed processes to vet the science, to make sure there is valid and true science, with valid conclusions that are derived from the science. What we have seen is unprecedented corruption within those academic journals. In the past six months two of the top medical journals in the world, The Lancet and The New England Journal of Medicine, produced openly fraudulent studies that have benefited Big Pharma."

"They are taking any history that does not fit the narrative today and erasing it."

Get HCQ.

The White Paper on Hydroxychloroquine by Dr. Simone Gold is the culmination of months-long research from all sources. It explains how Americans have come to be in the grip of fear. All the myths and all the misconceptions about a safe, generic drug that has been FDA approved for 65 years, given to pregnant women, breastfeeding women, children, the elderly and the immune-compromised for years and decades without complication, are finally put in the trash heap where they belong. You will have the indisputable proof that you have been massively lied to, often very intentionally.

HCQ Success Story...

December 4, 2020

Hello,

My husband and I went through the Telemedicine website and taking HCQ as a preventative to C-19. Recently some friends who are in the ministry developed C-19. The wife has other health issues. We paid for their Telehealth Dr. Consultation, Medicine and overnighted shipping costs. We got a thank you card from them and she said my husband tells everyone about his wife's friend who paid for meds during her sickness. He said through these meds and the Lord, saved my wife's life. I thought so at the time and still do. I'm glad you are there and glad we are here to help others.

CUSTOMER BOOK REVIEW FROM AMAZON, December 4, 2020:

"My favorite thing about Dr. Gold (besides her incredible courage and integrity) is that she can so simply explain statistics and facts that are often made to be more complicated and confusing. She can distill her vast knowledge and experience into easily digested, straight forward, layman terms!"

CUSTOMER BOOK REVIEW FROM AMAZON, December 5, 2020:

"Dr. Gold is one of the few voices of reason in an irrational time. Her book is brief, but I found I had to put the book down numerous times to digest my disbelief at the craziness she chronicles. I'm a retired emergency physician in the Los Angeles area. I've seen all kinds of individual craziness in my patients; but this is systemic craziness. I applaud Dr. Gold and all the other Frontline Doctors who have so bravely spoken out against the inmates who are running the current insane asylum."

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code.

Section 501(c)(3) states that an organization exempt under that section will lose its tax-exempt status and its qualification to receive deductible charitable contributions if a substantial part of its activities are carried on to influence legislation. Section 501(h), however, permits certain eligible section 501(c)(3) organizations to elect to make limited expenditures to influence legislation. An organization making the election will, however, be subject to an excise tax under section 4911 if it spends more than the amounts permitted by that section. Also, the organization may lose its exempt status if its lobbying expenditures exceed the permitted amounts by more than 50% over a 4-year period. For any tax year in which an election under section 501(h) is in effect, an electing organization must report the actual and permitted amounts of its lobbying expenditures and grass roots expenditures (as defined in section 4911(c)) on its annual return required under section 6033. See Part II-A of Schedule C (Form 990 or Form 990-EZ). Each electing member of an affiliated group must report these amounts for both itself and the affiliated group as a whole.

To make or revoke the election, enter the ending date of the tax year to which the election or revocation applies in item 1 or 2, as applicable, and sign and date the form in the spaces provided.

Eligible organizations. A section 501(c)(3) organization is permitted to make the election if it is not a disqualified organization (see below) and is described in:

4. Section 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) (relating to organizations publicly supported by charitable contributions),
5. Section 170(b)(1)(A)(ix) (relating to agricultural research organizations),
6. Section 509(a)(2) (relating to organizations publicly supported by admissions, sales, etc.), or
7. Section 509(a)(3) (relating to organizations supporting certain types of public charities other than those section 509(a)(3) organizations that support section 501(c)(4), (5), or (6) organizations).

Disqualified organizations. The following types of organizations are not permitted to make the election:

- a. Section 170(b)(1)(A)(i) organizations (relating to churches),

b. An integrated auxiliary of a church or of a convention or association of churches, or

c. A member of an affiliated group of organizations if one or more members of such group is described in a or b of this paragraph.

Affiliated organizations. Organizations are members of an affiliated group of organizations only if (1) the governing instrument of one such organization requires it to be bound by the decisions of the other organization on legislative issues, or (2) the governing board of one such organization includes persons (i) who are specifically designated representatives of another such organization or are members of the governing board, officers, or paid executive staff members of such other organization, and (ii) who, by aggregating their votes, have sufficient voting power to cause or prevent action on legislative issues by the first such organization.

AUTHOR PROFIT PARTICIPATION AGREEMENT

This agreement (this “Agreement”) is made as of SEPTEMBER 14, 2020 (“Effective Date”) by and among Post Hill Press, LLC (“Publisher”), and COMMON SENSE FOUNDATION. f/s/o SIMONE GOLD (the “Author”). Further, Publisher and Author may be referred to herein individually as a “Party” and collectively as the “Parties.”

WHEREAS, the Author has agreed to write a work of non-fiction currently, and tentatively titled WHY I FIGHT (title subject to change at the Author’s discretion), as more fully described below (the “Work”) on the BOMBARDIER BOOKS imprint, a publishing imprint of Post Hill Press (imprint subject to change at the Publisher’s discretion); and

WHEREAS, Publisher has agreed to publish said Work according to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement; and

NOW THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties agree as follows:

1. Author Obligations.

- a. Delivery. Author shall deliver to Publisher one copy of the complete, legible manuscript of the Work (the “Manuscript”) in the English language, satisfactory to Publisher in length, content and form, no later than SEPTEMBER 28, 2020.
- b. Permissions. If permission from any third party is required for publication of any material contained in the Work or for exercise of any of the rights conferred by this Agreement, Author shall obtain such permissions at Author’s expense, in form acceptable to Publisher, and shall deliver such permissions to the Publisher as part of the complete Manuscript of the Work. Permissions shall cover all territories, rights and editions covered by this Agreement.
- c. Editing. Author grants Publisher the right to employ ADAM BELLOW to prepare the Manuscript, but Author makes no guarantees and Publisher imposes no specific expectations or penalties regarding the exact length of the Work, which, notwithstanding the foregoing, shall be published to the standards of professional quality as determined by the Publisher. The Parties agree that for purposes of this Agreement, time is of the essence in delivery of edits, Work, and revisions. Publisher reserves the right to utilize additional editors for further edits upon final review.
- d. Author Purchase. This Agreement shall be contingent upon Author’s payment to the Publisher a sum total of TWENTY-FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($25,000.00) payable FIFTEEN THOUSAND DOLLARS ($15,000.00) in advance of the publication of the Work, and TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS ($10,000.00) upon publication of the Work. The first payment for expedited publishing services must be received by the Publisher prior to the book’s publication. In the event that such payment does not occur, Publisher shall be entitled on demand to the return of all Recoupable Costs provided by the Publisher on behalf of the Work’s publication, and to terminate this Agreement.

2. Publisher Obligations.

- a. Artwork. The Parties hereby agree that cover art and other designs for inclusion in the Work shall be mutually selected. However, Publisher reserves the right of final approval of cover art. Publisher shall be responsible for creating any necessary electronic files of the text and cover of the Work. However, should the Author, at their sole expense, wish to provide cover art or other designs for inclusion in the Work, any third-party designer(s) employed by the Author shall first be subject to the approval of the Publisher. Publisher may require review of the prospective designer's portfolio, examples of previous work, or other application processes prior to approval.
 - b. Distribution. Publisher shall be responsible for submitting the Work to various distribution channels of its choosing. It is understood between the Parties that the Publisher cannot guarantee acceptance of the Work by any third-party retailer.
 - c. Financial Responsibility. Publisher shall assume financial responsibility for submission of publication files, ISBN fees, and all fees required to maintain the active status of the title. Unless otherwise agreed to by Author and Publisher, Publisher shall front and recoup all costs associated with the employment of professional designers and editors. Such fees shall be subject to the terms of Recoupable Costs as outlined in section 6.a.
 - d. Promotion. Publisher shall provide web promotion on the Publisher's website. Publisher, at its sole discretion, may also provide additional promotion via other online and conventional distribution sources.
 - e. Editing. Publisher, in its sole discretion, may edit the Work as it deems necessary for grammar, proofreading, and stylistic matters; provided that Publisher shall submit all edits to the Author for comment and approval. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, any non-habitual failure to do so shall not be considered a breach of this Agreement. The Author shall not unreasonably withhold their approval.
3. Grant of Rights.
- a. To Publisher.
 - i. Author hereby grants and assigns to the Publisher any and all exclusive publishing rights in the Work, in whole or in part, throughout the world and in all languages. The foregoing license grant includes, but is not limited to, the right to print, reproduce, publish, distribute, translate, transmit, broadcast, deliver, transfer, market and sell the Work by any means now known or hereafter devised, any media (including but not limited to hardcover, mass market, trade paperback, print-on-demand, and electronic editions), formats, editions and derivative adaptations, (including but not limited to editions containing advertising), and to license others to do so in a manner as set forth in this Agreement, for the entirety of the Author's copyrights in the Work, in all languages, throughout the world. Author's name will appear on the title page, or its equivalent, of the Work as the Work's Author.
 - ii. Author shall retain all copyrights in the Work and all derivative works thereof.
 - iii. Author grants Publisher the right, throughout the world and in all languages, to exercise the following subsidiary rights in the Work or to license such rights upon such terms as Publisher deems advisable, for the term set forth in section 3.a.i

above: book club rights; anthology/permission rights; first serial rights (i.e. publication before first publication in book form); second serial rights (i.e. publication after first publication in book form); abridgment/condensation and digest rights; large print rights; reprint and special edition rights; electronic adaptation rights; audio rights; British Commonwealth rights; and foreign language rights (collectively, "Subsidiary Rights").

- iv. Author grants Publisher the right to register the copyright in the Work with the United States Copyright Office in the name of Author pursuant to the United States Copyright Act and the Universal Copyright Convention. Both parties agree to execute, at any time, all such papers and documents as may be advisable, in the Publisher's opinion, in order to protect, assign, record, renew, or otherwise effectuate the rights herein.
- b. Author's Reservation of Rights. All rights not expressly granted by the Author are reserved to the Author for Author's sole use and disposition including but not limited to merchandising; motion picture, film, television, and dramatic adaptation and/or documentary rights; and any other rights not specifically granted in subsections of section 3.a above. Author shall not exercise or dispose of any reserved rights in such a way as substantially to destroy, detract from, impair or frustrate the value of any rights granted herein. Author shall not publish or permit to be published for a period of two years after publication of the Work any book or any other form of publishing material based substantially on subject matter, material, characters or incidents in the Work without the written consent of Publisher. This provision shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

The Publisher acknowledges the Author may intend on writing articles, columns, editorials, or give lectures about matters that may be encompassed within the general subject matter of the Work. Assuming such activities do not substantially destroy, detract from, impair or frustrate the value of any of the rights granted herein to the Publisher (as solely determined by the Publisher), Author shall be free to engage in such activities without notice to or consultation with the Publisher, and without such activities being deemed a violation of this clause.

- c. Option. INTENTIONALLY DELETED

4. Publication. Publisher and Author will work together in good faith to make any necessary modifications to the Manuscript. The production of a "final Work," delivered to the Publisher shall be a condition precedent to the Publisher's obligations to publish the Work as agreed herein. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Publisher shall not be obligated to publish the Work if, in the sole and absolute judgment of Publisher or its legal counsel, whether before or after acceptance thereof, the Work contains libelous or obscene material, or its publication may violate the right of privacy, common law or statutory copyright, or any other right of any person or entity. In such event, Publisher shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement. Notwithstanding any request of Author by Publisher for change or substantiation, nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to impose upon the Publisher any duty of independent investigation of these defects or to relieve the Author of any of the obligations assumed by Author hereunder, including, without limitation, the ongoing validity of Author's warranties and representations which shall apply to all material in the Work, whether or not changed at the request of Publisher's legal counsel. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Publisher shall not be obligated to publish the Work.

In the event that the Publisher chooses not to publish the Work, or in the event of the Author's violation of the Morals Clause of this Agreement, either before or after the publication of the Work, Publisher shall be entitled on demand to the return of all Recoupable Costs provided by the Publisher on behalf of publication of the Work, and to terminate this Agreement. Should the Publisher choose not to publish the Work, any sums paid to the Publisher according to section 1.d above shall be immediately reimbursed to the Author, minus any Recoupable Costs (as defined below).

The Author shall be deemed to have violated the Morals Clause ("Morals Clause") of this Agreement if at any time after the date of this Agreement (i) is charged with committing a misdemeanor of moral turpitude that is punishable by a prison term of at least 6 months or a felony (regardless of the length of prison term associated with such offense); or (ii) commits or is accused of committing an act involving moral turpitude under federal, state or local law (regardless of whether or not such act involving moral turpitude is a misdemeanor or felony); or (iii) violates the terms of any parole or probation to which such Author is or may become subject; or (iv) commits an act of significant public disrepute or becomes the subject of a scandal such that Publisher believes, in its sole discretion, that the marketability of the Work or Publisher's corporate image has been or may be negatively affected.

5. Acceptance of Manuscript. INTENTIONALLY DELETED.

6. Royalties; Payment Terms; Audit.

- a. Profit Participation. The Parties are entering into this Agreement under a profit-participation arrangement. Publisher will pay Author sixty percent (60%) of all Profits (as defined below) received by Publisher from sales of all printed versions of the Work, and seventy percent (70%) of all Profits received by Publisher from sales of all electronic text versions of the Work ("Author Royalty"). "Profits" are to be defined as gross receipts received by Publisher from the sale of all versions of the Work, less all direct actual and verifiable costs and expenses associated with (a) any returned items, subject to the reserve on returns as set forth below; (b) third party distribution fees (c) shipping and handling; (d) postage; (e) sales taxes (f) the manufacture, sale, placement, promotion, design, vetting, and editing relating to the publication of the Work; and (g) any other expenses related to the Work which are mutually agreed upon by Publisher and Author ("Recoupable Costs"). Publisher shall not be entitled to include as Recoupable Costs any actual or imputed internal costs whether denominated overhead or otherwise associated with the Work, including but not limited to, employees' salaries, internal production services performed by Publisher's in-house staff or other plant costs performed in-house by Publisher, unless otherwise agreed to by the parties. Publisher may establish a reserve for returns equal to or less than the estimated number of books sold in relation to the net number of books remaining in the marketplace (as determined by gross sales minus returns) according to NPD DecisionKey (formerly Nielsen Bookscan). This accounting shall be a cumulative total and will update upon each quarterly royalty calculation period and shall not include any copies of the Work printed and distributed from the books purchased in section 1.d above.
- b. Subsidiary Rights Profit Participation. The Publisher shall pay the Author fifty percent (50%) of all proceeds received by Publisher from the sale or license of any right specifically named as a Subsidiary Right in section 3.a.iii above. Any income resulting from Publisher's sale or disposition of Subsidiary Rights hereunder, including any advance payments relating to the licensing of such rights against the future royalties received from the license or sale of such rights, will be included as part of the gross receipts, and Author profit participation shall be calculated accordingly.

- c. Advance Payment of Author Share of Profit. No advance payment of the Author's share of Profit will be made to the Author for this Work.
- d. Schedule of Reports and/or Payment. Profits shall be calculated and Publisher shall make Royalty payments to Author quarterly according to the table below. With the exception of such scheduled quarterly payments and reports, any other amounts due to the Author shall be subject to the Publisher's customary Net 30 remittance terms. Each payment shall be made no later than ninety (90) days after the end of the quarter in which the royalties were accrued.

Calendar Quarter	Royalty Check Date Due By
Q1	June 30
Q2	September 29
Q3	December 30
Q4	March 31

- e. Statement Detail. Royalty statements shall state the Recoupable Costs during the period covered and the net reserve for returns being held.
 - f. Examination of Records. Author, upon thirty (30) days written notice, may cause to be examined, through an independent Certified Public Accountant, the books of the Publisher, insofar as they relate to this Agreement at Author's own expense at Publisher's principal place of business, during normal business hours. If errors amounting to five percent (5%) or more of the total sums due Author, pursuant to this Agreement, shall be found to Author's disadvantage, then the cost of the audit shall be borne by Publisher. Payment of the amount due shall be made within thirty (30) days thereafter.
 - g. Remainder Sales. All costs for such promotional endeavors, unless otherwise arranged between the Author and Publisher, shall be fronted and recouped by the Publisher as a Recoupable Cost according to the terms of section 6.a above. However, no coverage will be available for Author for claims based on or directly or indirectly arising out of or resulting from the breach of any representation, warranty or guarantee made by Author in this Agreement.
