Washington State Employee Assistance Program

On August 9, 2021, Governor Inslee issued Proclamation 21-14, COVID-19 Vaccination Requirement. In response, the Washington State Employee Assistance Program (EAP) provides the below resources to you as you navigate the impact of the proclamation.

Some Suggestions for the Days Ahead

The below suggestions may help, if you experience difficult emotions in the coming days.

- Acknowledge your thoughts and feelings
- Identify what is and not in your scope of influence
- Attend to the things in your scope of influence
- Set boundaries around social media and news consumption
- Minimize toxic interactions
- Seek out and use supportive resources
- Eat healthy foods
- Be physically active
- Get sleep

Washington State Employee Assistance Program (EAP) Resources

For state employees and employees at our contracted public employers, the EAP provides assessment, short-term counseling and referral services and numerous resources to promote you and your adult household members' well-being. Visit our web site to learn more about accessing these services.

For supervisors, managers, executive leadership and human resources personnel seeking assistance in supporting others, contact us at (877) 313 – 4455 to request a management consult.

Live Webinars

In the month of August, the EAP is offering two live webinars to support public employees as they navigate transitions to a new work life.

- Transitioning into the New Work Life: Strategies for Responding to Change
- Transitioning into the New Work Life: Creating Psychological Safety in Work Teams
