No. CV2021-008265

Assigned to the Hon. Michael W. Kemp

No. LC2021-000180-001

Assigned to the Hon. John Hannah

SENATE DEFENDANTS' STATUS
REPORT AND RENEWED MOTION TO TRANSFER AND CONSOLIDATE

Pursuant to the order entered by Judge Kemp on September 16th, the Senate defendants provide the following report on the status of the documents of its vendor and subvendors:

- 1 1. Within hours of Arizona Supreme Court’s denial of the Petition for Review,
2 Senate President Karen Fann transmitted to Cyber Ninjas, Inc. a written demand
3 for all records of the vendors and subvendors with a substantial nexus to the audit.
4 *See Exhibit A.
- 5 2. Cyber Ninjas, Inc. is additionally under an order from Judge Hannah, not stayed 6 by Division One of the Court of Appeals, to produce such records to the Senate.
7 *See Exhibits B-C.
- 8 3. In response to the Senate’s demand for the production of its internal records, 9 Cyber Ninjas has so far produced to the Senate four documents. Each of these 10 documents has been uploaded to the Public Reading Room.
- 11 4. Earlier today, Cyber Ninjas sent a communication to the Senate summarizing its 12 position as to the production of its and its vendors’ internal records concerning 13 the audit. *See Exhibit D.
- 14 5. The Senate then sent to Cyber Ninjas a letter stating that, in its view, their future 15 communications regarding Cyber Ninjas’s production to the Senate of the 16 internal records of Cyber Ninjas and its subvendors would not be protected by 17 the common interest or joint defense privileges. The interests of the Senate and 18 Cyber Ninjas have diverged on this issue. *See Exhibit E.
- 19 6. As discussed with the Court of Appeals on September 15th and on the record 20 with Judge Kemp on September 16th, the Senate defendants are prepared to 21 undertake expeditiously the review and production of its vendors’ and 22 subvendors’ records. They have retained an experienced data vendor to process 23 the records when they are made available, expect to utilize a team of 24 approximately 10 attorneys to review the records, have prepared written guidance 25 for the review team on the nature and parameters of the review, and have 26 repeatedly urged Cyber Ninjas, Inc. to make the records available.

27 Because at this juncture it may be necessary for this Court to communicate directly 28 with Cyber Ninjas or to enter additional orders against Cyber Ninjas in order to ensure the

1 production of its materials and those of its subvendors, the Senate defendants renew their
2 previous motion to transfer the proceeding captioned Phoenix Newspapers, Inc. v. Arizona
3 State Senate, LC2021-000180-001 and consolidate it with the proceeding captioned
4 American Oversight v. Fann, CV2021-008265. Cyber Ninjas is a party to the Phoenix
5 Newspapers, Inc. matter, and transfer and consolidation will therefore ensure this court’s
6 personal jurisdiction over Cyber Ninjas for all subsequent proceedings and orders in this 7 case. Additionally, the nearly complete overlap of issues in the two pending cases is 8 inefficient and will give rise to conflicting or redundant rulings.

9 The earlier objections to consolidation—primarily that it would cause delay—are no
10 longer applicable because the current statuses of the two cases are identical in all material
11 respects; both have litigated the merits of the Public Records Act claim to completion, and 12 are now beginning to consider privilege issues and the process for accessing vendor and 13 subvendor records. Indeed, the plaintiffs in Phoenix Newspapers, Inc. recently urged 14 consolidation of the two cases at the Arizona Supreme Court, see Exhibit F, and the 15 plaintiffs in American Oversight stated that they had no objection to consolidation so long
16 as it would not delay review of their case, see Exhibit G. It seems that by now all parties 17 can sensibly agree that consolidation is appropriate—and the legal standard for 18 consolidation is clearly satisfied on these facts. See Ariz. R. Civ. P. 42(a) (permitting 19 consolidation for proceedings that “involve a common question of law or fact”); Local Rule 20 3.2(c)(1) (transfer is proper when two cases involve “substantially the same” parties or legal 21 questions, and would “would entail substantial duplication of labor if heard by different 22 judges”).

PUBLIC RECORDS

Ballard Spahr LLP
1 East Washington Street, Suite 2300
Phoenix, AZ 85004-2555
Telephone: 602.798.5400

1 On June 30, 2021, Plaintiffs Phoenix Newspapers, Inc. and Kathy Tulumello
2 (collectively, "Plaintiffs") filed an Application for Order to Show Cause (the
3 "Application") and a Complaint for Statutory Special Action to Secure Access to Public
4 Records (the "Complaint") against Defendants Arizona State Senate, Karen Fann, Warren
5 Peterson and Susan Aceves (collectively, the "Senate Defendants") and Cyber Ninjas, Inc.,
6 as a Defendant and Real Party in Interest ("Cyber Ninjas"), seeking inspection and copying
7 of the following records from the Senate Defendants and Cyber Ninjas, as described
8 particularly in the following Exhibits to the Complaint:

- 9 (a) Exhibit 3 (requested by email dated April 22, 2021 from Mr. Oxford to Mr
10 Moore) (Senate Request A);
11 (b) Exhibit 7 (requested by letter dated May 27, 2021 from Mr. Oxford, et al. to 12 Mr. Moore and Sen. Pres. Fann) (Senate Request B); and 13 (c) Exhibit 10 (requested by letter dated June 2, 2021 from Mr. Bodney to Mr.
14 Logan) (Cyber Ninjas Request) (collectively, Exhibits 3, 7 and 10, the "Public
15 Records").

16 Plaintiffs also expressly reserved the right by this special action to secure copies of
17 any and all email records listed in Exhibits 3, 7 and 10 to the Complaint that had not been
18 completely or promptly produced by the Senate Defendants (collectively, the "Remaining
19 Emails"). Plaintiffs contend that the Senate Defendants still have not produced copies of
20 all of the Remaining Emails.

21 After the Plaintiffs' Complaint was filed, Senate Defendants filed an Answer and
22 subsequently filed a July 27, 2021 Response to Plaintiffs' Application for Order to Show
23 Cause (the "Senate Response") and a Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings (the "Senate
24 Motion"). On July 27, 2021, Cyber Ninjas filed a Response to Application for Order to 25 Show Cause (the "Cyber Ninjas Response") and a Motion to Dismiss (the "Cyber Ninjas'
26 Motion").

1 On August 10, 2021, Plaintiffs filed their Response in Opposition to (1) Senate
2 Defendants' Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings and (2) Cyber Ninjas' Motion to
3 Dismiss, and (3) Reply in Support of Plaintiffs' Application for Order to Show Cause. On
4 August 17, 2021, Senate Defendants filed their Reply in Support of Motion for Judgment
5 on the Pleadings and Cyber Ninjas filed its Reply in Support of its Motion to Dismiss.

6 This Court also acknowledges a separate case pending in Maricopa County Superior
7 Court in Case No. CV2021-008265, American Oversight v. Karen Fann et al. in which the 8 Honorable Michael W. Kemp issued an August 2, 2021 order (the "First AO Order") that
9 required the Arizona Senate to produce documents responsive to public records requests
10 issued to the Arizona Senate by American Oversight related to the Maricopa County 2020
11 election audit (the "Audit") either directly in the possession of the Arizona Senate or in the 12 possession or control of the privately owned contractors and subcontractors performing the 13 Audit for the Senate. The portion of the First AO Order related to the production of 14 documents in the possession or control of the Arizona Senate's privately owned contractors
15 and subcontractors was temporarily stayed on August 11, 2021 ("the Stay") in the course
16 of a Special Action before the Arizona Court of Appeals. On August 19, 2021, the Arizona
17 Court of Appeals, by Memorandum Decision, accepted jurisdiction over the Senate
18 Defendants' special action, denied relief and lifted the Stay. Then, on August 20, 2021,
19 Justice Kathryn King of the Arizona Supreme Court re-imposed the Stay. On August 24,
20 2021, the full Supreme Court ordered the Stay extended and announced that the Senate
21 Defendants' Petition for Review of the Special Action Decision of the Court of Appeals
22 will be conferenced on September 14, 2021. Meanwhile, on August 18, 2021, Judge Kemp
23 issued another order ("the Second AO Order") directing the Arizona Senate to produce or 24 identify in a privilege log those documents responsive to American Oversight's public
25 records requests that were in the physical possession or custody of the Senate or Secretary
26 Bennett (and therefore not subject to the Stay) by 5:00 p.m. on August 31, 2021. The 27 Second AO order remains in effect.

28

1 After consideration of the aforementioned pleadings, memoranda and orders, and
2 after oral argument on August 23, 2021 before this Court on Plaintiffs' Application for
3 Order to Show Cause, Senate Defendants' Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings and
4 Cyber Ninjas' Motion to Dismiss,

5 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AS FOLLOWS:

6 Defendants have failed to show cause why the relief requested by Plaintiffs in this
7 special action should not be granted. ACCORDINGLY:

8 Senate Defendants and Cyber Ninjas are ORDERED to comply with A.R.S. § 39-
9 121 et seq. immediately by causing copies of the Public Records in the possession, custody
10 or control of the Senate Defendants and/or Cyber Ninjas to be produced to Plaintiffs by 11 August 31, 2021 at 5:00 p.m. Cyber Ninjas and the Senate Defendants may confer
12 regarding which Public Records in the possession, custody or control of one Defendant or 13 another should be withheld on the basis of a purported privilege or for any other reason.
14 Any Public Records, whether maintained by Cyber Ninjas or the Senate Defendants, or any 15 one of them, that are withheld on the basis of a purported privilege or for any other reason
16 shall be listed on a log with individual descriptions of each withheld record in sufficient
17 detail to allow Plaintiffs to challenge the basis for withholding the record, if necessary.
18 Descriptions of records on the log shall not be so detailed as to undermine the alleged basis
19 for withholding any record from public inspection. Defendants may produce one privilege
20 log that references the specific Defendant (or Defendants) that calls for a record to be 21 withheld, or Cyber Ninjas and the Senate Defendants may each produce their own separate 22 logs, as required by this Order. Defendant(s)' log(s) shall be produced to Plaintiffs by 23 August 31, 2021 at 5:00 p.m. To the extent that Plaintiffs wish to challenge any of the 24 documents on a log, they shall have fifteen (15) court days to file a motion challenging the
25 designation(s). Documents subject to such a motion shall be turned over to the Court for
26 an in camera inspection and determination of the validity of the designation within two (2)
27 court days of such a motion being filed. The Court will make a final determination as to 28

1 whether the assertion of privilege or any other exemption from disclosure is justified and,
2 to the extent the Court determines there is no such justification for the record(s) being
3 withheld, the Public Records shall be produced to Plaintiffs within two (2) court days.

4 Senate Defendants are further ORDERED to comply with A.R.S. § 39-121 et seq.
5 immediately by causing copies of any and all Remaining Emails to be produced to 6 Plaintiffs by August 31, 2021 at 5:00 p.m. Any Remaining Emails that are withheld on 7 the basis of a purported privilege or for any other reason shall be listed on a log with 8 individual descriptions of each withheld record in sufficient detail to allow Plaintiffs to 9 challenge the basis for withholding the record, if necessary. Descriptions of records on the 10 log shall not be so detailed as to undermine the alleged basis for withholding any record 11 from public inspection. This log shall be produced to Plaintiffs by August 31, 2021 at 12 5:00 p.m. To the extent that Plaintiffs wish to challenge any of the documents on the log,
13 they shall have fifteen (15) court days to file a motion challenging the designation(s).
14 Documents subject to such a motion shall be turned over to the Court for an in camera 15 inspection and determination of the validity of the designation within two (2) court days of 16 such a motion being filed. The Court shall make a final determination as to whether the 17 assertion of privilege or any other exemption from disclosure is justified and, to the extent
18 the Court determines there is no such justification for the record(s) being withheld, the 19 record(s) shall be produced to Plaintiffs within two (2) court days.

20 It is further ORDERED the orders entered herein are stayed to the extent they direct
21 the Senate or the Cyber Ninjas to produce records (or a privilege log describing records)
22 that are subject to the Stay of the First AO Order, but not otherwise. This partial stay will 23 remain in effect until the Arizona Supreme Court lifts the Stay of the First AO Order or the 24 Stay otherwise expires. Defendants shall have 5:00 p.m. on the third business day after the 25 Stay is lifted or expires to comply with all orders previously subject to this partial stay, 26 except to the extent that the Arizona Supreme Court relieves the Senate of the duty to 27 comply in a ruling on the merits of the pending Petition for Review.

4 reasonably necessary or appropriate to maintain an accurate knowledge of their official
5 activities concerning the 2020 Maricopa County election audit, including records of the 6 performance, funding and staffing of said audit.

7 It is further ORDERED that the Senate Defendants' Motion for Judgment on the 8 Pleadings and Cyber Ninjas' Motion to Dismiss are DENIED.

[PROPOSED] ORDER TO PRODUCE PUBLIC RECORDS

1 On June 30, 2021, Plaintiffs Phoenix Newspapers, Inc. and Kathy Tulumello
2 (collectively, “Plaintiffs”) filed an Application for Order to Show Cause (the
3 “Application”) and a Complaint for Statutory Special Action to Secure Access to Public
4 Records (the “Complaint”) against Defendants Arizona State Senate, Karen Fann, Warren
5 Peterson and Susan Aceves (collectively, the “Senate Defendants”) and Cyber Ninjas, Inc.,
6 as a Defendant and Real Party in Interest (“Cyber Ninjas”), seeking inspection and copying
7 of the following records from the Senate Defendants and Cyber Ninjas, as described
8 particularly in the following Exhibits to the Complaint:

- 9 (a) Exhibit 3 (requested by email dated April 22, 2021 from Mr. Oxford to Mr
10 Moore) (Senate Request A);
- 11 (b) Exhibit 7 (requested by letter dated May 27, 2021 from Mr. Oxford, et al. to 12 Mr. Moore and Sen. Pres. Fann) (Senate Request B); and
- 13 (c) Exhibit 10 (requested by letter dated June 2, 2021 from Mr. Bodney to Mr.
14 Logan) (Cyber Ninjas Request) (collectively, Exhibits 3, 7 and 10, the “Public
15 Records”).

16 Plaintiffs also expressly reserved the right by this special action to secure copies of
17 any and all email records listed in Exhibits 3, 7 and 10 to the Complaint that had not been
18 completely or promptly produced by the Senate Defendants (collectively, the “Remaining
19 Emails”). Plaintiffs contend that the Senate Defendants still have not produced copies of
20 all of the Remaining Emails.

21 After the Plaintiffs’ Complaint was filed, Senate Defendants filed an Answer and
22 subsequently filed a July 27, 2021 Response to Plaintiffs’ Application for Order to Show
23 Cause (the “Senate Response”) and a Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings (the “Senate
24 Motion”). On July 27, 2021, Cyber Ninjas filed a Response to Application for Order to 25 Show Cause (the “Cyber Ninjas Response”) and a Motion to Dismiss (the “Cyber Ninjas’
26 Motion”).

27
28

1 On August 10, 2021, Plaintiffs filed their Response in Opposition to (1) Senate
2 Defendants’ Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings and (2) Cyber Ninjas’ Motion to
3 Dismiss, and (3) Reply in Support of Plaintiffs’ Application for Order to Show Cause. On
4 August 17, 2021, Senate Defendants filed their Reply in Support of Motion for Judgment
5 on the Pleadings and Cyber Ninjas filed its Reply in Support of its Motion to Dismiss.

6 This Court also acknowledges a separate case pending in Maricopa County Superior
7 Court in Case No. CV2021-008265, American Oversight v. Karen Fann et al. in which the
8 Honorable Michael W. Kemp issued an August 2, 2021 order (the “AO Order”) that
9 required the Arizona Senate to produce documents responsive to public records requests
10 issued to the Arizona Senate by American Oversight related to the Maricopa County 2020
11 election audit (the “Audit”) either directly in the possession of the Arizona Senate or in the 12 possession or control of the Arizona Senate’s privately owned contractors and 13 subcontractors performing services pursuant to that Audit. The portion of that AO Order
14 related to the production of documents in the possession or control of the Arizona Senate’s
15 privately owned contractors and subcontractors performing services pursuant to the Audit
16 was temporarily stayed on August 11, 2021 (the “Stay”) in a Special Action before the 17 Arizona Court of Appeals. Then, on August 18, 2021, Judge Kemp ordered that those 18 documents responsive to American Oversight’s public records requests that were not 19 subject to the Stay were to be produced to American Oversight by the Arizona Senate by 20 5:00 p.m. on August 31, 2021. On August 19, 2021, the Arizona Court of Appeals, by 21 Memorandum Decision, accepted jurisdiction over the Senate Defendants’ special action, 22 denied relief and lifted the Stay. Then, on August 20, 2021, Justice Kathryn King of the 23 Arizona Supreme Court issued a temporary stay of Judge Kemp’s AO Order.

24 After consideration of the aforementioned pleadings, memoranda and orders, and
25 after oral argument on August 23, 2021 before this Court on Plaintiffs’ Application for 26 Order to Show Cause, Senate Defendants’ Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings and 27 Cyber Ninjas’ Motion to Dismiss,

28

1 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AS FOLLOWS:

2 Defendants have failed to show cause why the relief requested by Plaintiffs in this

19 August 31, 2021 at 5:00 p.m. To the extent that Plaintiffs wish to challenge any of the 20 documents on a log, they shall have fifteen (15) court days to file a motion challenging the
21 designation(s). Documents subject to such a motion shall be turned over to the Court for
22 an in camera inspection and determination of the validity of the designation within two (2)
23 court days of such a motion being filed. The Court will make a final determination as to
24 whether the assertion of privilege or any other exemption from disclosure is justified and,
25 to the extent the Court determines there is no such justification for the record(s) being
26 withheld, the Public Records shall be produced to Plaintiffs within two (2) court days.

Attorneys for Karen Fann, Warren Petersen, and the Arizona Senate

Pursuant to Rule 8(b), Rules of Procedure for Special Action, and Rule 23, Rules of Civil Appellate Procedure, Senate President Karen Fann, Senate Judiciary Committee Chairman Warren Petersen, and the Arizona Senate (collectively, the “Senate”) respectfully submit this Petition for Review of a Special Action Decision of the Court of Appeals.

INTRODUCTION

The right of a constitutional department of government to control its own records is the hallmark of institutional independence and the fulcrum of the separation of powers. For that reason, this Court affirmed just weeks ago that the act of releasing—and, by extension, of withholding—purported legislative records is itself a “legislative function” that is clothed with absolute immunity from any resulting civil liability. See Mesnard v. Campagnolo, -- Ariz. --, 489 P.3d 1189, 1195-96, ¶¶ 22-23 (2021). In derogation of this principle, and in an extraordinary incursion into the sovereign affairs of a coordinate branch, the Court of Appeals has announced that the judiciary henceforth will police the Legislature’s recordkeeping and production judgments.

This constitutional error is compounded by one of statutory construction. The Superior Court (with the Court of Appeals’ acquiescence) has purported to order the President of the Senate to obtain and produce as “public records” the internal files of non-party private corporations—notwithstanding that such materials are, by definition, not in the “custody” of the Senate, and thus not subject to production under the Arizona Public Records Act, A.R.S. § 39-121, et seq. (the “PRA”).

This Court’s intervention is necessary to vindicate the intrinsic immunities of the legislative branch, recognize the PRA’s textual inapplicability to the internal records of private government vendors, and preserve the constitutionally ordained equilibrium between the legislative and judicial branches.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

I. Factual Background

Exercising the investigatory powers vested in the elected Legislature, the Arizona Senate is conducting an audit of voting equipment used and ballots cast in Maricopa County in connection with the November 3, 2020 general election (the “Audit”). See APPV1-0015–0016, ¶¶ 24–26. Given the logistics entailed in such an undertaking, the Arizona Senate has retained the services of Cyber Ninjas, a for-profit Florida corporation, to serve as its primary vendor in carrying out the Audit. Cyber Ninjas in turn has engaged several subvendors, all of which are private companies. See APPV1-0016, ¶ 28.

Real Party in Interest American Oversight submitted to each of President Fann, Chairman Petersen, the Arizona Senate, Senate Audit Liaison and former Secretary of State Ken Bennett, Cyber Ninjas, and Cyber Ninjas’ subvendors several public records requests seeking essentially all documents relating to or concerning the Audit. See APPV1-0020, 0021, ¶¶ 56, 58-59, 61. The Senate has produced, or will produce, to American Oversight any documents in the physical possession or physical custody of any of the Senate or of Secretary Bennett¹ that are (1) responsive to American Oversight’s public records requests; and (2) not protected from disclosure by any constitutional, statutory or common law privilege or confidentiality. Indeed, the Senate has already disclosed the sources of Cyber Ninjas’s funding; the policies governing the Audit; and the relevant government contracts, indemnifications, and leases. Moreover, the media and the Arizona Secretary of State each designated observers for daily, in-person access to audit proceedings. See APPV2-0143; Arizona State Senate, Audit Public Reading Room, available at <http://statecraftlaw.box.com/v/senateauditpublicreadingroom>.²

The Senate has consistently taken the position, however, that it cannot and will not obtain, review or produce any records that are in the physical possession or physical custody of Cyber Ninjas and/or one of its subvendors, but not in the physical possession or physical custody of any of the Defendants or of Secretary Bennett (hereafter, the “Disputed Records”).

² See generally Workman v. Verde Wellness Ctr., Inc., 240 Ariz. 597, 601 (App. 2016) (“[P]ublic records regarding matters referenced in a complaint, are not considered matters outside the pleading.” (internal quotation marks omitted)).

II. Procedural History

American Oversight initiated this action on May 20, 2021 by filing in the Superior Court a Verified Complaint and an Application for an Order to Show Cause, which asked the Court to “set a return hearing at its earliest convenience.” APPV1-0282. The Superior Court granted the Application on May 21 and set a return hearing for May 27. APPV1-0283. The Senate thereafter filed a Motion to Dismiss American Oversight’s claims pursuant to Arizona Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(6). Following briefing and oral argument, see APPV2-003–0057, the Superior Court denied the Motion to Dismiss in a minute entry issued on July 15, 2021. The court reasoned that the case was justiciable and that the Senate has “constructive possession” of the Disputed Records. See APPV2-0064.³ Integral to the Superior Court’s conclusion was the indemnification clause in the Master

³ It bears noting that a court adjudicating a Rule 12(b)(6) motion may only “assume all the facts alleged in the complaint are true.” Republic Nat. Bank of New York v. Pima County, 200 Ariz. 199, 201, ¶ 2 (App. 2001) [emphasis added]. Rule 12(b)(6) is not a vehicle for factual adjudications. Indeed, the Senate had not (and was not required to have) even answered American Oversight’s complaint before moving to dismiss. The Superior Court, however, repeatedly elided this critical distinction in its July 15 minute entry—casting various allegations as definitively proven facts, rather than merely crediting the Complaint’s assertions solely for purposes of deciding a threshold motion. The Superior Court’s August 2 minute entry—which issued just a few days after American Oversight filed an Amended Complaint—declared preemptively that “further discovery, pleading practice or development of the record” would not “change the findings already made by this Court,” APPV1-0007. While this procedural impropriety ultimately is not especially material to the questions presented in this Petition, it does derogate the Senate’s right to controvert underlying facts as necessary, and to hold American Oversight to its burden of proof.

Services Agreement (“MSA”) between the Senate and Cyber Ninjas, which affords the former the option of requesting that Cyber Ninjas supply documents “reasonably necessary to the defense or settlement” of claims alleging that “any action undertaken by [Cyber Ninjas] in connection with [Cyber Ninjas’] performance under this Agreement violates law or the rights of a third party under any theory of law.” APPV1-0155, 0156 (§§ 15.3, 15.4).

On July 19, 2021, American Oversight submitted a proposed order requiring the Senate to exercise its putative rights under the indemnification clause—notwithstanding that American Oversight has never asserted any claims against Cyber Ninjas—to obtain and produce the Disputed Records. The Senate objected that the immunity conferred by Article IV, Part 2, Section 7 of the Arizona Constitution precluded the court from commandeering the Senate and its officers in connection with the release or withholding of legislative records. The Superior Court entered the order sought by American Oversight on August 2, 2021, see APPV1-0002 and explained its reasoning in an accompanying minute entry, see APPV1-0004.

After staying the Superior Court’s order, the Court of Appeals accepted special action jurisdiction but denied relief in an order issued on August 19, 2021. A copy of the Court of Appeals’ memorandum decision is attached hereto.

Whether and to what extent the Disputed Records are subject to the PRA—and whether and to what extent the Court can, consistent with the legislative immunity enshrined in the Arizona Constitution, compel the leadership of a coequal branch to harvest and produce a private corporation’s documents—accordingly are the questions now before this Court.

STATEMENT OF THE ISSUES

1. Does Article IV, Part 2, Section 7 of the Arizona Constitution immunize the Senate and its members from suit in connection with decisions to produce or withhold alleged legislative records pursuant to the PRA?
2. Does the PRA require public bodies to collect and produce pursuant to the PRA the internal corporate records of their independent contractors when such materials are not in the physical “custody” of the public body?

JURISDICTION

In determining whether to exercise its discretionary prerogative to accept review of a denial of special action relief, this Court weighs several factors, including (1) whether an Arizona decision controls the point of law in question, (2) whether a decision of this Court should be overruled or qualified, (3) whether there are conflicting decisions by the Court of Appeals, and (4) whether important issues of law have been incorrectly decided. See Ariz. R. P. Special Action 8(b), A.R.C.A.P. 23(d)(3). All four considerations warrant the acceptance of review in this case.

First, no Arizona court has previously addressed whether the PRA extends to the internal records of private companies that provide goods or services to the government as independent contractors. As discussed infra, despite the lower courts’ effort to engineer what is effectively a bespoke exception to the PRA for this particular (politically controversial) vendor, their holding finds no textually sound or logically coherent limiting principle. Either the PRA mandates public bodies to commandeer and produce those internal files of its vendors that qualify as “public records”—or it does not. There is simply no textual basis in the PRA for conditioning its construction of the type of government contractor at issue or the putative “importance” of its function. In any event, the Court should grant review and resolve this consequential question, which inevitably will recur when a raft of PRA plaintiffs inundate state and local agencies with demands for their contractors’ files. See generally Fernandez v. Takata Seat Belts, Inc., 210 Ariz. 138, 140, ¶ 5 (2005) (granting review to consider “a matter of first impression for this court”); Hogan v. Wash. Mut. Bank, 230 Ariz. 584, 585, ¶ 4 (2012) (granting review “because the cases present a recurring issue of first impression and statewide importance”).

Second, the Senate believes that this Court’s conception of legislative immunity is, and has always been, clear. The Speech or Debate Clause of the Arizona Constitution, see art. IV, pt. 2, § 7, is coterminous with its federal counterpart. It imparts “[a]bsolute” immunity against all claims arising out of the performance of a “legislative function,” Mesnard, 489 P.3d at 1193, ¶¶ 12, 13, and thus “is equally applicable to . . . actions seeking declaratory or injunctive relief.” Consumers Union of the U.S., 446 U.S. 719, 725-26, 733 (1980). A single paragraph in this Court’s opinion in State ex rel. Brnovich v. Arizona

Board of Regents, 250 Ariz. 127, ¶ 28 (2020), however, prompted the Court of Appeals to erroneously confine legislative immunity to only personal claims for monetary damages—a remarkable constriction of the immunity never countenanced by this Court. Animating this misapprehension was a failure to distinguish between the constitutional immunity conferred only on the Legislature by the Speech or Debate Clause from the conditional and qualified common law legislative immunity that the Board of Regents purported to assert in Brnovich. The Court should grant review to dispel this confusion and the serious error of law that it precipitated.

Third, the Court of Appeals’ new discovery in the PRA of a notion of “constructive” custody deviates from that tribunal’s prior pronouncements, which recognized that a public body’s ostensible “right” or ability to obtain a third party’s documents does not engender legal “custody.” See Stuart v. City of Scottsdale, 1 CA-CV 18-0154, 2020 WL 7230239, at *9 (App. Dec. 8, 2020);⁴ see also Phoenix New Times, L.L.C. v. Arpaio, 217 Ariz. 533, 540, ¶ 22 (App. 2008) (defining scope of PRA obligations by reference to possession).

Fourth, the issues presented in this Petition—i.e., the vindication of constitutional legislative immunity and delineating the proper scope of the PRA, as embodied in its plain text—unquestionably are issues of statewide importance. See Mesnard, 489 P.3d at 1193, ¶ 10 (granting review “to address the scope of absolute legislative immunity under Arizona law, an issue of statewide importance”); Lake v. City of Phoenix, 222 Ariz. 547, 549, ¶ 6 (2009) (granting review to “address a recurring issue of statewide importance” under the PRA).

STANDARD OF REVIEW

The applicability of legislative immunity and the construction of the PRA both are pure questions of law that this Court reviews de novo. See Mesnard, 489 P.3d at 1192, ¶ 12 (“Whether legislative immunity applies is a legal question for the court.”); Lake, 222 Ariz. at 549, ¶ 7 (whether a document is subject to the PRA is a legal question).

ARGUMENT

I. The Senate Is Constitutionally Immune From Suit Because the Decision Whether to Release or Withhold Audit Records Is a Legitimate Legislative Function

The Petitioners are constitutionally immune from any civil liability in any form (whether monetary, injunctive or special action in nature) arising out of the release or withholding of Audit-related documents.

A. Legislative Immunity Encompasses Non-Monetary Claims

When legislators “are acting within their ‘legitimate legislative sphere,’ the Speech or Debate Clause [in Article IV, Part 2, Section 7 of the Arizona Constitution] serves as an absolute bar to . . . civil liability.” Arizona Indep. Redistricting Comm’n v. Fields, 206

Ariz. 130, 136, ¶¶ 15–16 (App. 2003). “When applicable, the doctrine prevents legislators, their aides, and their contractors from being criminally prosecuted or held civilly liable for their legislative activities.” Mesnard, 489 P.3d at 1193, ¶ 12; see also Bogan v. Scott-Harris, 523 U.S. 44, 54 (1998) (“Absolute legislative immunity attaches to all actions taken ‘in the sphere of legitimate legislative activity.’”).

The Court of Appeals’ reasoning that legislative immunity protects individual legislators only from damages in connection with claims against them personally, see COA Op. ¶ 15, deeply misapprehends the doctrine’s provenance, scope and purpose—not to mention a long lineage of case law.

The United States Supreme Court and virtually every Circuit court to have addressed the question have spoken uniformly: state legislators’ immunity from damages claims “is equally applicable to” claims seeking declaratory or prospective relief. Supreme Court of Va. v. Consumers Union of the U.S., 446 U.S. 719, 725-26, 733 (1980); see also Star Distributors, Ltd. v. Marino, 613 F.2d 4, 9 (2d Cir. 1980) (holding in the context of a legislative investigation that state legislators are immune from “for injunctive relief as well as damages based on their activities within the traditional sphere of legislative activity”); Larsen v. Senate of Com. of Pa., 152 F.3d 240, 252 (3d Cir. 1998) (acknowledging that “in fact the Supreme Court in Consumers Union did resolve the issue of the application of absolute legislative immunity to claims for prospective relief and answered that question in the affirmative”); Alia v. Michigan Supreme Court, 906 F.2d 1100, 1102 (6th Cir. 1990)

(“The [legislative] immunity granted is immunity from suit and applies whether the relief sought is money damages or injunctive relief.”); Risser v. Thompson, 930 F.2d 549, 551 (7th Cir. 1991) (“Legislators’ immunity is absolute and extends to injunctive as well as to damages suits.” (internal citation omitted)); Church v. Missouri, 913 F.3d 736, 753 (8th Cir. 2019) (dismissing on legislative immunity grounds suit seeking prospective relief); Cnty. House, Inc. v. City of Boise, Idaho, 623 F.3d 945, 959 (9th Cir. 2010) (“This [legislative] immunity extends both to claims for damages and claims for injunctive relief.”); Scott v. Taylor, 405 F.3d 1251, 1255 (11th Cir. 2005) (“[W]e hold that the legislator defendants in the instant official capacity suit for prospective relief are entitled to absolute immunity.”); Fla. House of Representatives v. Expedia, Inc., 85 So. 3d 517, 520 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 2012) (quashing on legislative privilege grounds subpoena to legislator seeking testimony); League of Women Voters of Pa. v. Commonwealth, 177 A.3d 1000, 1006 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2017) (quashing subpoenas to legislators, explaining that “the Court lacks the authority under the Speech and Debate Clause of the Pennsylvania Constitution to compel the production of the documents sought”).

Arizona courts have never signaled any intention to repudiate this established conception of legislative immunity. To the contrary, the Court of Appeals first articulated Arizona’s cognate immunity in terms that drew directly from the federal case law. See Fields, 206 Ariz. at 136-37, ¶¶ 15-17. And—notably—this Court approvingly cited these same formulations in both Brnovich and Mesnard. See Brnovich, 476 P.3d at 314, ¶ 28; Mesnard, 489 P.3d at 1193, ¶ 12.

In this vein, the single paragraph in Brnovich upon which the Court of Appeals relied is best understood as implicitly reflecting the distinction between constitutional and common law immunities. The Board of Regents undisputedly is not a component of the Arizona State Legislature, and thus is facially outside the scope of the Speech or Debate immunity enshrined in Article IV, Part 2, Section 7.⁵ The upshot is that any legislative immunity presumptively shielding the Board of Regents would be a product of common law or statute,⁶ and thus subject to abrogation by the Legislature, as the Court found. See generally Williams v. DeKalb County, 840 S.E.2d 423, 435 (Ga. 2020) (“While some immunities for members of the General Assembly are provided in our constitution, legislative immunity for local officials arises from statutes or from common law. An immunity conferred by statute or common law may be abrogated by statute.”); see also Tenney v. Brandhove, 341 U.S. 367, 376 (1951) (commenting that the immunity of state legislators in federal court derives from common law but had not been abrogated by statute). The legislative immunity that envelopes the actual legislative branch, by contrast, is of constitutional provenance and its protections accordingly are plenary and permanent. See Mesnard, 489 P.3d at 1193, ¶ 12.

⁵ By contrast, Article XI, Section 5, which established the Board of Regents, does not codify any express immunity.

⁶ See A.R.S. § 15-1621(F) (providing qualified immunity for members of the Board of Regents).

B. Decisions to Release or Withhold Legislative Records Are Inherently Legislative Functions

American Oversight’s argument that the release of legislative records is not an immune legislative function finds express repudiation in Mesnard, which held precisely the opposite: “Mesnard’s act in releasing the report to the public was . . . a legislative function protected by legislative immunity.” 489 P.3d at 1195, ¶ 22. This point is critical. American Oversight attempts to sever the Audit itself—which it appears to concede is a legislative function—from the consequent release or impoundment of related records, which it dismisses as “administrative.” But this inventive parsing is irreconcilable with Mesnard. There, former Representative Shooter was challenging not only the legislative investigation into his alleged misconduct; rather, his claims pivoted largely on then-Speaker Mesnard’s subsequent release of documents and information concerning the investigation, which the Supreme Court concluded was itself a “legislative function.” Id. at 1196, ¶ 23.

This finding did not entail doctrinal innovations; the Court drew on a lineage of federal cases likewise concluding that official acts relating to the publication of legislative records are insulated from judicial review. See, e.g., Doe v. McMillan, 412 U.S. 306, 313 (1973) (“The acts of . . . authorizing the publication and distribution of that [legislative] report were all ‘integral part(s)’” of the legislative process); Hutchinson v. Proxmire, 443 U.S. 111, 124 (1979) (reaffirming that the release of committee reports is a protected activity, explaining that “the Court has given the [Speech or Debate] Clause a practical rather than a strictly literal reading which would limit the protection to utterances made within the four walls of either Chamber”).

American Oversight’s insistence that the PRA mandates the “nondiscretionary” release of the Disputed Records in this case impermissibly bootstraps its theory of a statutory violation into the antecedent question of constitutional immunity. The latter is determined by the intrinsic character of the act or omission at issue; a statute cannot transmute a legislative act into an administrative task, or vice versa. See Fann v. State of Arizona, No. CV-21-0058-T/AP, slip op. at 10, ¶ 24 (Ariz. Aug. 19, 2021) (“[A] statute cannot circumvent or modify constitutional requirements.”). Indeed, it was for precisely this reason that the Court added that Mesnard’s ability to invoke legislative immunity was not contingent upon whether his production of the legislative reports was or was not premised on an actual public records request made pursuant to the PRA. See Mesnard, 489 P.3d at 1196, ¶ 23.

Because decisions to release putative legislative records are ensconced by legislative immunity, it follows necessarily that determinations to withhold such materials likewise are protected; to condition legislative immunity on a finding that the legislative act or omission at issue was statutorily compliant would reduce the principle to a futile tautology.

See id. at 1196, ¶ 25 (“Whether Mesnard violated House rules, statutory law, or even the state or federal Constitution has no bearing on whether his actions were legislative functions and thus afforded immunity.”).

C. The Individual Legislators’ Immunity Extends to the Senate Itself

The same immunity that insulates President Fann and Chairman Petersen from liability under the PRL likewise envelopes the “Arizona Senate” as a named defendant. Two reasons impel this conclusion.

First, the remedies American Oversight seeks can be effectuated only through the actions and decisions of individual Senate officers. In this context, at least, the entity has no functional existence independent of its constituent members. For example, any request to Cyber Ninjas for its corporate records can be implemented only through direct action by President Fann in her official capacity. As a practical matter, any adjudication in favor of American Oversight inevitably will entail a judicial directive to President Fann, Chairman Petersen or some other officer or member of the Senate, all of whom individually are immune from such compulsory process. This functional (if not strictly legal) congruence of identity underscores that “[t]he concerns that led to adoption of the Speech or Debate Clause deal not only with the independence of individuals legislators; those same concerns ordained an independent legislature, a [legislature] not subject to general oversight by either the executive or judicial branches of government.” Gregg v. Barrett, 771 F.2d 539, 543 (D.C. Cir. 1985) (dismissing on equitable discretion grounds claims arising out of preparation of the Congressional Record); see also State ex rel. Stephan v. Kansas House of Representatives, 687 P.2d 622, 633 (Kan. 1984) (“The petitioner also argues this case does not fall under the broad umbrella of immunity conferred by the Speech or Debate Clause because it is the action of the legislature as a body which is being challenged rather than the actions of individual members of the legislature. This distinction is not a valid one.”); Romer v. Colorado Gen. Assembly, 810 P.2d 215, 225 (Colo. 1991) (“When the General Assembly is engaged in legitimate legislative activity, the speech or debate clause protects individual legislators and the legislature as a whole from being named defendants in an action challenging the constitutionality of legislation.”).

Second, the separation of powers concerns from which legislative immunity derives become even more acute when the judiciary purports to direct an entire legislative institution in the management of its own documents and records. See generally London v. Broderick, 206 Ariz. 490, 492-93 (2003) (access to court records is determined by the judiciary’s own rules, not the PRA). To be sure, courts of course may assess the ultimate enactments of the Legislature for compliance with the Arizona Constitution. But since the early days of statehood, the Supreme Court has long cautioned that—absent some claim of constitutional wrongdoing—the internal workings of this separate and coequal branch lie beyond the judicial grasp. See City of Phoenix v. Superior Court of Maricopa County, 65 Ariz. 139, 144 (1946) (“Courts have no power to enjoin legislative functions.”); State v. Osborn, 16 Ariz. 247, 249 (1914) (“[C]ourts cannot interfere with the action of the legislative department.”); Allen v. State, 14 Ariz. 458, 479 (1913) (“Until the people, through their fundamental law, shall require the courts to supervise and direct the actions of the other departments in the process of making laws, we shall adhere to the theory of government that those departments are responsible to the people . . . and not to the courts.”). The notion of a court order coercing the president of a legislative house to divulge putative legislative records would subvert the interbranch balance that underpins constitutional government.

D. Legislative Immunity Has Not Been Abrogated

Contrary to the Court of Appeals’ intimations, see COA Op. at ¶ 15, the PRA did not abrogate the Senate’s constitutionally ordained immunity, and even if it did, the relief American Oversight seeks can be effectuated only through the actions of individual legislative members and officers, who retain their own independent immunity. Preliminarily, the mere fact that one iteration of the Legislature decades ago professed to commit the institution to abiding by the PRA does not operate as a plenary submission to the enforcement jurisdiction of the courts. Any concession of legislative immunity must be “explicit and unequivocal.” United States v. Helstoski, 442 U.S. 477, 490-91 (1979). That the Legislature volunteered itself to follow the PRA—and does, in fact, adhere to the statute—is not tantamount to a renunciation of its immunity from suit.

Further, even if the PRA somehow extinguished the Senate’s legislative immunity (and it did not), the body’s individual officers and members—the persons to whom the Court would have to direct any order and who would carry out such commands—retain the protection. Legislative immunities and privileges are personal to each individual legislator occupying his or her office at any given moment in time; they cannot be preemptively waived decades in advance by one incarnation of the institution. See generally Wright & Miller 26A FED. PRAC. & PROC. EVID. § 5675 (1st ed.) (“The speech or debate privilege belongs to the legislator whose legislative act is involved in the evidence.”); Marylanders for Fair Representation, Inc. v. Schaefer, 144 F.R.D. 292, 298 (D. Md. 1992) (“The privilege is a personal one and may be waived or asserted by each individual legislator.”). President Fann and Chairman Petersen have never waived their immunity from suit under the PRA.

In short, the protections of the Speech or Debate Clause encompass all actions undertaken by legislators in the course of their official duties—to include the release or withholding of legislative records; in this realm, “the prohibitions of the Speech or Debate Clause are absolute.” Eastland, 421 U.S. at 501 (adding that the protection extends to claims for injunctive relief).

II. The PRA Does Not Recognize Any Concept of “Constructive” Custody, and Even If It Did, “Constructive” Custody is Lacking in this Case

The Court can and should find that the Senate is immune from American Oversight’s suit in its entirety. Even if it should decline to do so, however, American Oversight’s claims with respect to the Disputed Records remain deficient because the Senate necessarily lacks “custody” of third parties’ internal corporate files.

A. The Court of Appeals’ Notion of “Constructive” Custody is Not Cognizable Under the PRA

The PRA does not secure some disembodied “right” by any person to obtain any document that may be a “public record”—regardless of where on Earth it may be found. Rather, the statute provides that an individual may obtain a public record from (1) a “public body” or “officer” that (2) has “custody” of it. See A.R.S. §§ 39-121, -121.01. The Senate does not have “custody” of documents maintained by corporate vendors at their own headquarters or in their own internal computer systems.

To square the proverbial circle, the Superior Court and Court of Appeals devised a concept they denominated “constructive” possession and, apparently relying solely on the Complaint’s allegations, imputed to the Senate such possession of Cyber Ninjas’ records. But the lower courts’ doctrinal invention—to wit, that the internal files of a private corporation must be open to public inspection if they relate to services performed for a governmental entity—embodies a new policy diktat that is untethered from the statutory text.

1. The “Constructive” Custody Concept is Not Supported by the PRA’s Text

At bottom, the Court of Appeals’ opinion can be sustained only interpolating into the PRA words absent from its actual text. While imperatives of transparency certainly undergird the PRA, courts do not invoke amorphous aspirations to “go beyond the statute to contradict its clear import,” Prescott Newspapers v. Yavapai Cmty. Hosp. Ass’n, 163 Ariz. 33, 40 (App. 1989), or to distend statutory language beyond its plain meaning “simply because that’s what must have been intended,” id. at 38 (internal citation omitted); see also State ex rel. Thomas v. Schneider, 212 Ariz. 292, 298, ¶ 28 (App. 2006) (“We do not disregard plain statutory language in favor of arguments about which of two competing legitimate public policies is preferable.”).

The PRA “applies to records which have been in fact obtained, and not to records which merely could have been obtained.” Cf. Forsham v. Harris, 445 U.S. 169, 186 (1980) (discussing the federal Freedom of Information Act). As the Tenth Circuit explained when rejecting the notion that a federal agency’s contractual right to procure certain documents from a third party organization rendered those materials subject to FOIA, “it does not matter that the [agency] could possess the documents by requesting them from [the counterparty].” Rocky Mountain Wild v. U.S. Forest Serv., 878 F.3d 1258, 1263 (10th Cir. 2018). Rather, legal “control” of records attaches when “the materials have come into the agency’s possession in the legitimate conduct of its official duties.” Id. (internal citation omitted); see also State of Missouri, ex rel. Garstang v. U.S. Dept. of Interior, 297 F.3d 745, 751 (8th Cir. 2002) (“Although the [non-profit corporation] and the [federal agency] did have a mutually beneficial relationship, that relationship alone does not transform the private entity . . . into a federal agency.”).

Brushing aside the corpus of federal cases in favor of a thirty year old case out of North Dakota, see COA Op. at ¶ 23, the Court of Appeals also invoked the decisions of California courts, which it emphasized are especially salient, see id. at n.2. Tellingly, however, the California Court of Appeal—while accepting in principle the concept of “constructive” possession—expressly found that it is not engendered by a government agency’s unconsummated right or ability to obtain its contractors’ records. In words that should resonate (but so far have been ignored) in this case, the court explained that:

The mere fact that [the agency] can ‘access’ the data does not equate to a form of possession or control. To conclude otherwise would effectively transform any privately-held information that a state or local agency has contracted to access into a disclosable public record. Nothing in the text or history of the [California Public Records Act] suggests it was intended to apply so broadly.

Anderson-Barker v. Superior Court, 242 Cal. Rptr. 3d 724, 732–33 (Ct. App. 2019).

In its search to find a textual reed upon which to hang its novel theory of “constructive” custody, the Court of Appeals also cited A.R.S. § 39-121.01(B), which states that “[a]ll officers and public bodies shall maintain all records . . . reasonably necessary or appropriate to maintain an accurate knowledge of their official activities and of any of their activities that are supported by monies from this state or any political subdivision of this state.” But this provision prescribes, at most, a minimum baseline of adequate recordkeeping. See Carlson v. Pima County, 141 Ariz. 487, 490 (1984) (“Section 39–121.01(B) creates a statutory mandate which, in effect, requires all officers to make and maintain records reasonably necessary to provide knowledge of all activities they undertake in the furtherance of their duties.”). In other words, the Senate must implement at least some rudimentary recordkeeping structure and ensure that its own documents are protected against improper destruction or alteration. See generally Hutto v. Francisco, 210 Ariz. 88, 91 n.5 (App. 2005) (“Maintain is defined as ‘[t]o continue [or to] preserve or keep in a given existing condition.’” (quoting WEBSTER’S II NEW COLLEGE DICTIONARY 660 (2001)); BLACK’S LAW DICTIONARY (11th ed. 2019) (the primary legal definition of “maintain” is “to continue (something)”)).

American Oversight does not allege (nor could it) that the Senate fails to keep records of its activities, including the Audit. To the contrary, the Senate currently is reviewing tens of thousands of its own internal emails that may be responsive to American Oversight’s public records request. To allege that other third party entities might also have documents relating to a governmental function does not—as a matter of law or logic—establish that the Senate has violated any obligation to “maintain” its own records. To the contrary, the Attorney General has explained that the Legislature necessarily has no duty to maintain and produce text messages on the personal devices of individual legislators because those materials were never records of the Legislature to begin with. See Ariz. Op. Atty. Gen. No. I17-004 (July 7, 2017) (concluding that “[t]he plain text of the relevant statutes contemplates government management of government systems alone,” adding that “an agency does not have control of private electronic devices or social media accounts”); cf. Am. Civil Liberties Union v. Arizona Dep’t of Child Safety, 240 Ariz. 142, 148, ¶ 17

(App. 2016) (holding that “our public records law does not require an agency, in responding to a public records request, to create a new record”). Implicit in the Attorney General’s conclusion was a recognition that the Legislature does not transgress Section 39-121.01(B) simply because third parties not subject to the PRA might create or maintain their own additional records outside the custody of the Legislature.

2. The Legislature Never Intended to Expose Government Vendors’ Records to Public Inspection

As discussed above, the Court of Appeals’ “constructive” custody contrivance is foreign to the PRA’s text and precedential lineage. Even if some surmised, unarticulated legislative intent were a relevant interpretive lodestar, however, there is good reason to conclude that the Legislature’s exclusion of private contractors from the PRA was deliberate and prudent. State, county and municipal agencies rely on hundreds if not thousands of outside vendors to furnish an array of goods and services—ranging from sensitive IT equipment, to key public infrastructure, to outside legal counsel—in virtually every facet of state government. Indeed, the state’s largest county has outsourced substantial components of its election administration infrastructure to two private corporations, Dominion Voting Systems and Runbeck Election Services.

While the ostensibly “non-partisan” American Oversight is singularly fixated on Cyber Ninjas and perceived Republican interests, the import of the ruling it seeks will not be so easily contained. If the Court of Appeals’ decision stands, then the internal emails, databases and other files of Dominion and Runbeck, the undersigned law firm, American Oversight’s law firm,⁷ and every other vendor of any state, county or local government agency or unit in Arizona will be swept under the auspices of the PRA, and each individual document in its possession relating to its government contract will be presumptively subject to indefinite preservation and ultimately disclosure as a public record.

The Court of Appeals offers two anemic assurances that its ruling is little more than a “good for one ride only” ticket that applies to Cyber Ninjas’ but not other government vendors. Neither withstands serious scrutiny.

First, the court’s affirmation that the PRA applies only to records having a “substantial nexus” to the government engagement, see COA Op. at ¶ 24, merely begs the question. By definition, corporate files (including, e.g., internal emails saved to the company’s server) that pertain to services the vendor is performing at the behest of a government client necessarily have a “substantial nexus” to that government function. That criterion does nothing to constrain the reach of the PRA to non-governmental entities.⁸

Second, the Court of Appeals’ attempt to chisel a bespoke exception to the PRA for Cyber Ninjas by distinguishing between “ordinary services” and “core governmental ⁷ Coppersmith Brockelman represented the Secretary of State in several matters relating directly to the conduct and administration of the 2020 election.

⁸ Take the illustrative example of private companies hired by the state to build a new freeway. The “substantial nexus” rubric counsels that only internal files (e.g., emails among company personnel) concerning the freeway project are subject to public records functions,” COA Op. at ¶ 24, is unconvincing and untenable. This inventive dichotomy has no textual, precedential or logical nexus to any words that actually are codified in the PRA. Indeed, how courts are supposed to distinguish “ordinary services” from other (“unordinary”?) services or disentangle “core” government services from other (“non-core”?) functions is left notably unexplained. If legislative investigations are “core” governmental functions, does the same appellation extend to counties’ administration of elections? Public infrastructure projects? Contracts to administer social services to populations in need?

In short, either the PRA sweeps up the internal records of third party vendors rendering services to the government, or it does not; courts cannot contrive arbitrary designations of “ordinary” and “unordinary” government services or projects to selectively target those vendors they deem deserving of greater scrutiny. The draconian recordkeeping requests, but does nothing—under American Oversight’s and the Superior Court’s theory—to prevent these corporate files from being swept under the PRA’s auspices in the first place.

regime that the Court of Appeals’ ruling presages may or may not be desirable as a policy matter, but it is not the framework the Legislature chose to codify in the PRA.

B. Even if “Constructive” Custody Is Recognized by the PRA, the Senate Does Not In Fact Have Constructive Custody Over Cyber Ninjas’ Records

A party “cannot produce what he does not have.” United States v. Fitzpatrick, 07-2184-PHX-RCB, 2008 WL 853055, at *7 (D. Ariz. Feb. 4, 2008). Despite American Oversight’s exertions to defy it, this truism inevitably endures. Even if the notion of “constructive” custody could be unearthed from the PRA, American Oversight still must show that these Defendants have “constructive possession” of these specific Disputed Records. How, exactly, the Senate is supposed to extract the internal files of Cyber Ninjas—let alone those of Cyber Ninjas’ subvendors—is a point of conspicuous silence in the Court of Appeals’ opinion.

American Oversight’s argument on this point pivots on the indemnification and cooperation provisions of the MSA, which afford the Senate the right to request that Cyber Ninjas to transmit relevant documents and otherwise cooperate in the common defense of litigation. See APPV1-0155, 0157. But the MSA’s indemnification and cooperation provisions do not beget any legal obligations of the Senate, let alone responsibilities enforceable by third parties. To the contrary, they secure the Senate’s right to protect itself from liability—not a peremptory duty to indiscriminately fetch any and all corporate records of Cyber Ninjas that may relate to the Audit for the purpose of satisfying American

Oversight’s curiosity.⁹ Exercising her responsibilities as the steward of the institution’s interests, President Fann has determined that—unless and until a court forces her to do so—she cannot and will not invoke any discretionary prerogative under those contractual provisions because doing so would not aid or assist the Senate’s defense of this suit.¹⁰

Even if the Senate were not constitutionally immune from such a court order (see supra Section I), the PRA does not authorize its issuance in any event. Any “right” to obtain public records is a creature of statute; it does not derive from any constitutional command or common law proposition.¹¹ Accordingly, its vindication is confined only to those means and methods dictated by the Legislature. In this vein, the PRA provides that public records may be obtained only through “a special action in the superior court, ⁹ Indeed, the indemnification clauses—which apply only to claims against Cyber Ninjas, see APPV1-0155—is facially inapplicable in any event.

¹⁰ In this vein,, American Oversight’s reasoning relies in large part on circularity. For example, the cooperation clause commits Cyber Ninjas to “providing information or documents needed for the defense of [the] claims, actions or allegation.” But what, exactly, are those “needed” documents? The Senate, the beneficiary of the cooperation clause, believes that Cyber Ninjas’ internal files concerning the 2020 election audit are not “needed for the defense” of American Oversight’s PRA claims because such materials are outside the scope of the statute. Put another way, the cooperation clause is relevant only if one presupposes that the Senate has an obligation to produce Cyber Ninjas’ records pursuant to the PRA in the first place, and hence “need[s]” the documents “for the defense of [the PRA] claims.” It does not independently establish “constructive custody” (whatever that is).

¹¹ Conversely, however, courts have drawn on the common law to fashion limitations on the statutory right of access. See Carlson v. Pima County, 141 Ariz. 487, 490 (1984).

pursuant to the rules of procedure for special actions against the officer or public body.” A.R.S. § 39-121.02(A). While courts will countenance some flexibility in the precise manner of pleading, see Moulton v. Napolitano, 205 Ariz. 506, 516, ¶ 34 (App. 2003) (finding PRA complaint sufficient where it “was denominated in the alternative as one for special-action relief”), the PRA empowers the judiciary to supply only “special action” relief.

Importantly, a “special action” does not embrace any and every form of non-monetary relief against a public officer. To the contrary, special action remedies are constricted and delimited concepts; they do not partake of the malleability and versatility of their counterparts in equity (e.g., an injunction). Simply put, the “special action” is the modern and more streamlined incarnation of the old writs of certiorari, prohibition and mandamus. See Spec. Action R. Proc. 1(a); see also id. State Bar Committee Note (“Under the special action, the relief obtainable includes any relief which was formerly granted under the labels of certiorari, mandamus, and prohibition.”). Unless a governing statute provides otherwise, the relief a plaintiff seeks must conform to the contours of at least one of those three concepts. See Arizonans for Second Chances, Rehab., & Pub. Safety v. Hobbs, 249 Ariz. 396, 403–04, ¶ 15 (2020) (cautioning that “‘only’ certain ‘questions may be raised in a special action”). Notions of certiorari or prohibitory relief are obviously inapposite here. Thus, the only remotely germane writ would be the third: mandamus.

But this remedial theory quickly dissipates as well. “Because a mandamus action is designed to compel performance of an act the law requires, ‘[t]he general rule is that if the action of a public officer is discretionary that discretion may not be controlled by mandamus.’” Sears v. Hull, 192 Ariz. 65, 68, ¶ 11 (1998). A corollary is that when a legal duty that implicates discretion underlies a mandamus claim, the court “may not designate how that discretion shall be exercised.” Kahn v. Thompson, 185 Ariz. 408, 411 (App. 1995); see also Sensing v. Harris, 217 Ariz. 261 (App. 2007) (statute directing that police chief “shall be responsible for the enforcement” of municipal ordinances did not embody a nondiscretionary legal duty enforceable by mandamus).

In the ordinary course, claims under the PRA are easily amenable to mandamus remedies because the documents already are in the physical possession of the public body or officer. Once the court determines that the records qualify for disclosure, it need only order the ministerial act of their production. Here, by contrast, American Oversight’s entire theory of “custody” depends on the Senate exercising a discretionary right in a particular manner—i.e., choosing to invoke the indemnification clause to demand Cyber Ninjas’ transfer of particular records. Stated differently, the “custody” that American Oversight envisages can be actualized only by a court order compelling the Senate to perform a discretionary act contemplated by a private contract. Whatever designation should attach to such an order, it certainly is not “mandamus.” Accordingly, the lower courts’ orders purporting to coerce the Senate into invoking its options under the MSA was both constitutionally and statutorily ultra vires.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the Court should grant review, vacate the opinion of the Court of Appeals, and issue special action relief finding that the Superior Court exceeded its jurisdiction in (1) abrogating legislative immunity and (2) issuing an order compelling the Senate to commandeer and harvest the internal files of third party private corporations, which are not in the “custody” of the Senate for purposes of the PRA.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 19th day of August, 2021.

ORDER GRANTING STAY

The court, Acting Presiding Judge David B. Gass, Judge Maria Elena Cruz, and Judge Randall M. Howe participating, has reviewed Cyber Ninjas, Inc.’s (CNI) Motion to Stay Trial Court’s Order and Joinder of the Arizona State Senate parties (collectively Senate). After consideration,

IT IS ORDERED granting a stay of the superior court’s August 24, 2021, Order to Produce Public Records, page 5, lines 22 through 27 as follows:

1. Staying the deadline for the Senate to produce documents to Phoenix Newspapers, Inc. (PNI) by Friday, September 17, 2021 (“3 days after the Arizona Supreme Court lift[s] the stay in CV2021-008265, American Oversight v. Karen Fann et al.”). The stay only lifts the deadline but does not relieve the Senate of its obligation to produce all documents (1) related to the Maricopa County 2020 election audit (the “Audit”), (2) responsive to public records requests issued to the Senate, and (3) in the possession or control of CNI related to the Audit.
2. Staying the requirement that CNI produce all documents to PNI directly.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED based on the Senate's September 14, 2021, request for documents to CNI, CNI will promptly begin processing the Senate's request and will provide responsive documents to the Senate for the Senate's review on an ongoing basis. Because the Senate has contracted for assistance so it can promptly handle the document review for privilege, as the Senate receives documents from CNI, it will process the documents and provide them to PNI on an ongoing basis.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED the above stay shall remain in force through September 29, 2021, unless otherwise earlier terminated by this court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED PNI shall file responses to the Senate and the CNI petitions for special action by September 20, 2021. The Senate and CNI shall file their respective replies by September 24, 2021.

Kory – thank you for communicating to our client that the Court in Maricopa County Superior Court Case No. CV2021-008265 (the “American Oversight” case) has requested a status report from the Senate.

First, I must strongly emphasize that my client Cyber Ninjas, Inc. (CNI) is in the final “throes” of completing its work for the Senate. CNI is finishing its long-awaited written report (consisting of over one hundred pages), which will be produced to the Senate on or by next Friday, September 24th. CNI is a small private company, and the Senate’s request for records is causing CNI to take time away from the completion of its report. Just yesterday, the CEO of CNI spent approximately 12 hours dealing with trying to process the Senate’s request, which was time directly taken away from the duties that CNI has actually contracted to perform for the Senate.

I also emphasize that, while CNI intends to produce documents out of goodwill and its commitment to transparency, by sending this communication CNI does not concede the existence or scope of any involuntary legal obligation to do so.

The Senate requested records with “a substantial nexus to the audit,” including certain enumerated items, from CNI and its subcontractors. At this time, CNI has been able to reach out to most of its subcontractors (all but one) to notify them that it has received this request.

The phrase “a substantial nexus to the audit” is not defined, and it is difficult to define. For example, CNI’s internal company emails re: staffing or performance of the contract are not the kind of items that should be subject to production in a public-records request. If the case were otherwise, then it would set an extremely unsettling precedent for all government contractors in this state and make it impossible for the State to do business. For example, if CNI has private internal emails discussing its own contractual relationship with the Senate or its own performance of its contract with the Senate, then such emails would be subject to not only production to the Senate but also to the public. That is not practical, workable, fair or legal.

Attached hereto are copies of CNI’s current policies and procedures, which is one of the items enumerated in the Senate’s request. CNI acknowledges that these have been previously made public and it confirms that these continue to represent its existing policies and procedures. CNI is endeavoring to determine whether its subcontractors have any new or updated policies or procedures at this time and expects to have answers to that in the near future.

With respect to communications, CNI intends to produce copies of its communications with the Senate and its officials that have a substantial nexus to the contract/audit. CNI is unable to make that production at this moment in time because it needs to focus on completing its contractual duty of producing a written report. Once that report has been finished and the report has been produced (by next Friday Sep. 24), then it will promptly focus on the production of such communications (and of course earlier if and as it is able to do so).

With respect to financial disclosures (another item requested) – CNI intends to release full financial statements on the audit either as part of its report or shortly thereafter. With respect to “records...concerning staffing” (another requested item): as with CNI’s internal communications (above), CNI’s private records concerning its own staff are not public records.

The Senate also enumerated a request for “all records that are reasonably necessary or appropriate to maintain an accurate knowledge of activities concerning the 2020 Maricopa County election audit.” This is undefined; but CNI believes that the Senate already has such records as may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to main an accurate knowledge of activities concerning the 2020 audit, with the important exception of our final report (whose release date you already know). The Senate had several liaisons who were present to watch audit operations daily and regular reports were made. There was 24/7 public live-streaming of all audit activities. Those records are already in the Senate’s possession and are public records.

If there are any activities that the Senate would like to request more details or specific records on, then please communicate them to us and my client would be glad to sit down with the Senate or its representatives after the final report is released.

Sincerely – Jack Wilenchik, Esq. on behalf of Cyber Ninjas, Inc.

Re: Common Interest Communications Between the Arizona Senate and Cyber Ninjas, Inc.

Dear Jack:

As you know, our firm represents the Arizona State Senate in connection with its audit of the November 2020 general election in Maricopa County (the “Audit”), much of which has been carried out by your client, Cyber Ninjas, Inc. (“CNI”). Since March 2021, the Senate, CNI and their respective legal counsel have communicated pursuant to our common interest in furtherance of shared legal interests and objectives, to include defending litigation proceedings relating to the conduct of the Audit (Arizona Democratic Party v. Fann, Maricopa County Superior Court No. CV2021-006646), and public records requests for the internal files of CNI and its subvendors (American Oversight v. Fann, Maricopa County Superior Court No. CV2021-008265; Phoenix Newspapers, Inc. v. Arizona State Senate, Maricopa County Superior Court No. LC2021-000180-001).

The Senate is subject to an order of the Superior Court in the American Oversight litigation that requires it to “demand the records [sought by the plaintiff in that case] from CNI and the subvendors or invoke the indemnification clause of the contract [between the Senate and CNI].” The Court of Appeals denied special action relief from the order. See Fann v. Kemp, 2021 WL 3674157 (Ariz. App. Aug. 19, 2021). The Arizona Supreme Court on September 14 declined to review the Court of Appeals’ decision and dissolved the stay it had previously issued. The Senate thereupon transmitted to CNI a written request that it immediately furnish to the Senate all records in the possession of CNI and its subvendors bearing a substantial nexus to the Audit, so that the Senate can expeditiously review the materials and invoke claims of privilege, where applicable. Further, as you know, a separate order in the Phoenix Newspapers proceedings (as partially stayed by the Court of Appeals) requires CNI to “promptly begin processing the Senate’s [September 14] request and . . . provide responsive documents to the Senate for the Senate’s review on an ongoing basis.”

Earlier today, CNI informed the Senate that CNI is still assessing the September 14 request and the scope of what it believes to be its production obligations. We appreciate the portions of your communication indicating that it has begun contacting its subvendors and intends to produce documents in good faith. Other aspects of CNI’s position, however, jeopardize the Senate’s ability to complete its review and production obligations on the timetable demanded by the court orders. Although the Senate vigorously contested application of the Arizona Public Records Act to CNI materials in both the American Oversight and Phoenix Newspapers proceedings, ultimately exhausting all colorable appellate options, the Senate is now subject to what are final and binding orders of the court governing the production of CNI's and its vendors' records.¹ Any determination by CNI not to comply (in whole or in part) immediately with the Senate's September 14 request hence is prejudicial to the legal interests of the Senate and its officers.

Accordingly, based on the circumstances as they currently stand, the Senate believes that it and CNI no longer have a common legal interest with respect to CNI's production to the Senate of CNI's and its subvendors' internal files. The Senate will not support or advance any legal claim, defense, or position espoused by CNI that has the effect of limiting or delaying CNI's compliance with the Senate's September 14 request. To the extent CNI wishes to present any such claim, defense, or position in the American Oversight litigation or to otherwise preserve what it believes to be its rights and interests, it should promptly move to intervene in those proceedings.

The Senate's position is that the common interest and joint defense arrangements remain intact as to matters other than the production to the Senate of CNI's and its subvendors' internal records, and continues to protect the confidentiality of otherwise privileged communications on this issue prior to September 17, 2021. As to future communications on the production to the Senate of CNI's and its subvendors' internal records, however, we do not at this time believe such communications would be protected by a common interest or joint defense privilege.

Please do not hesitate to contact me should you have any questions.

Respectfully,

/s/ Kory Langhofer

Attorneys for Real Parties in Interest Phoenix Newspapers, Inc. and Kathy Tulumello

Pursuant to ARCAP 6 and 8(g), Phoenix Newspapers, Inc. and Kathy Tulumello (together, “PNI”) move to consolidate the above-captioned special action filed by Petitioner Arizona State Senate, et al. in this Court on September 9, 2021 (the “Senate Special Action”) with the prior, separate special action pending before this same Court involving identical parties and the identical order at issue in this case, Cyber Ninjas, Inc. v. Judge John Hannah, Case No. 1-CA-SA 21-0173, filed by Petitioner Cyber Ninjas, Inc. on August 31, 2021 (the “Cyber Ninjas Special Action”).

Undersigned counsel made contact with counsel for Petitioners/Real Parties in Interest Karen Fann, Warren Petersen and the Arizona Senate, and for Senate Secretary Susan Aceves (collectively, the “Senate Petitioners”); and for Petitioner/Real Party in Interest Cyber Ninjas, Inc. (“Cyber Ninjas”) on September 10, 2021 regarding the relief requested in this Motion. None of the parties’ counsel opposed the relief sought herein.

ARGUMENT

As this Court may be aware, two separate special actions before the Arizona Court of Appeals have been filed by two separate petitioners based the same order issued by the Honorable John Hannah on August 24, 2021. The Cyber Ninjas Special Action was filed on August 31, 2021. The Senate Special Action was filed by the Senate Defendants on September 9, 2021, after the Arizona Supreme Court denied jurisdiction in the Senate Petitioners' September 7, 2021 attempt to obtain special action relief and a stay in that tribunal. See Ex. A hereto (9/8/21 Order, issued by Ariz. Sup. Ct.); Ex. B (copy of Senate Special Action).

The parties to the Cyber Ninjas Special Action and the Senate Special Action are identical, though the parties are named under different titles (i.e., Petitioner or Real Party in Interest) in each respective special action. The special actions each concern the Arizona Senate's audit of the Maricopa County 2020 general election and PNI's related public records requests. Both special actions address the validity of the August 24, 2021 order issued by the Superior Court (the "Superior Court Order") that provided a process for the production of public records and a privilege log in response to PNI's requests. The special actions involve similar issues, such as whether the Superior Court Order placed undue burden on the Senate Defendants and Cyber Ninjas to review and produce records.

A substantive hearing has already occurred in the Cyber Ninjas Special Action related to Cyber Ninjas' motion for a stay, which was denied, and PNI's request to extend the briefing schedule, which was granted. See Ex. C hereto (9/8/21 Order).

To (1) increase judicial efficiency, (2) reduce the chances for redundant briefing and related costs, and (3) reduce the chances of inconsistent rulings regarding the Superior Court Order, the Senate Special Action should be consolidated with the first-filed Cyber Ninjas Special Action. See ARCAP 8(g) (providing for consolidation of existing appeals on motion). In such situations, the Arizona Supreme Court has considered both judicial economy and the costs to litigants, "conclud[ing] that the best policy is to adopt the approach more likely to protect litigants from unnecessary expenditures." see also State v. Velasco, 165 Ariz. 480, 482, 799 P.2d 821, 823 (1990) ("Given the number of cases affected, we believe the legal issue is of statewide importance and principles of judicial efficiency require that it be decided in a single proceeding and as quickly as possible.").

Consolidating the Senate Special Action with the Cyber Ninjas Special Action would allow the "just, speedy, and inexpensive resolution" of both cases in an efficient manner that the procedural rules are intended to achieve. ARCAP 1(c).

In view of the important interests at stake, and the existing schedule in this case, PNI respectfully requests the Court's accelerated consideration of this procedural Motion.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, PNI respectfully requests that this Court grant this Motion to Consolidate and order that the Senate Special Action be consolidated with the Cyber Ninjas Special Action.

Respectfully submitted this 10th day of September, 2021.

American Oversight takes no position on the Motion itself, but strongly opposes any delay relating to the matter which is currently pending before this Court. To the extent intervention and/or consolidation will result in any delay of this Court’s consideration or ruling on Petitioner’s Emergency Motion for Stay or Petition for Review (including whether to accept jurisdiction of the Petition in the first instance), American Oversight opposes Proposed Intervenors’ Motion.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 27th day of August, 2021.
