

“I think unfortunately Wisconsin has been at the top of the list of incarcerated people of color – specifically, African American – for years now,” said Rebecca Dallet, a Wisconsin Supreme Court Justice and former prosecutor. “It’s not an honor that we want to hold. It’s not an honor.”