"I raise up my voice – not so I can shout, but so that those without a voice can be heard." - Malala Yousafzai

It is a call to service every prosecutor has received – a call to make our communities safer for our children, to make victims of crime whole again, and to speak for those who have no voice to speak for themselves. It is a call to see that justice is done. Always a noble aim, justice does not end within the walls of the courthouse. So too the work of a prosecutor must go on. To truly answer the call to service to keep our communities safe and to be a strong voice for crime victims, the prosecutor’s advocacy must continue at every step the laudable goal of justice might be threatened. Here, that threat comes from the deliberate subversion of constitutional and statutory obligations by the Pardon and Parole Board.

One need look no further than the headlines of the daily news to see the consequences of the Board's failure to adhere to legal mandates. By now, everyone is familiar with Lawrence Anderson, an inmate whose sentence was commuted by the Governor after favorable recommendation by the Pardon and Parole Board. Yet within mere weeks of his release from prison, Anderson committed a shockingly gruesome triple murder – all to which he has confessed. Anderson admitted he killed his neighbor and cut out her heart before cooking it to serve to his aunt and uncle with whom he was living. Anderson then killed his uncle, stabbed his aunt in both of her eyes, and killed the couple's four year old granddaughter. At the time of Anderson's arrest, Grady County District Attorney Jason Hicks voiced frustration with the methodology by which the Pardon and Parole Board gave notice to prosecutors that Anderson was being considered for commutation. Ex. 1, News Report. The Board's failure to follow the law with regard to Anderson's commutation has now led the Governor to call for an investigation into the matter by the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation. Ex. 2, Newspaper Article.

Unfortunately, Anderson's case does not appear to be an isolated instance of procedural irregularity by the Pardon and Parole Board. Despite statutory requirements that the Pardon and Parole Board provide to the District Attorney a copy of an application for commutation within ten business days of its receipt, the Board has failed to provide to Plaintiff any such applications. Nor has the Board provided to the District Attorney adequate and appropriate notice of applications for commutation at the time the same are first considered for relief by the Board. Such blatant disregard for statutory mandates reflects not only a deliberate course of action by Defendant Board, but also impedes the District Attorney from carrying out his duty to serve as a victim's advocate and to see that justice is carried out.

Unequivocally, the Pardon and Parole Board's failure to comply with their obligation to give notice to affected persons has proven to have deadly consequences. But even more shocking than the danger caused by the Board's actions are the nefarious motivations behind the decisions they make – the personal financial gain to be received by two Board members themselves.

Kelly Doyle was appointed to the Pardon and Parole Board by Governor Stitt on February 26, 2019. That same day, the Governor appointed Adam Luck to be a member as well. Ms. Doyle is the Deputy Executive Director at the Center for Employment Opportunities, an organization that provides transitional employment opportunities and other services to persons being released from prison. Similarly, Mr. Luck is the Chief Executive Officer of City Care, a non-profit organization which, according to its website “inspires those willing to look social injustice and extreme poverty in the face and empowers them to do whatever it takes to create change.” Ex. 3, Website. City Care not only solicits “activists” to perform volunteer work but also provides services to “judicially involved” persons.

Shortly after their appointment, a change in law resulted in the Pardon and Parole Board considering what one news outlet referred to as a “historic” number of sentence commutations that ultimately resulted in nearly 500 inmates being released from prison in November 2019. Ex. 4, News Report. A week before the Pardon and Parole Board was even scheduled to begin hearing the commutation requests on November 1, 2019, Mr. Luck publicly proclaimed, “Next Friday Oklahoma will conduct the largest single-day commutation in US history. We’ll be releasing over 400 individuals from Oklahoma prisons who are there for crimes that no longer carry prison sentences after the passage of state question 780.” Ex. 5, Twitter Post 10/24/19. In what smacks of self-dealing and Open Meeting Act violations,<sup>1</sup> he continued, “The legislature made the law retroactive with HB 1269. The pardon and parole board worked with state agencies, nonprofits, and service providers from across the state to ensure these individuals have the resources they need as they transition back into our communities.” Ex. 5, Twitter Post 10/24/19. By no mere coincidence those nonprofit and service organizations included the Center for Employment Opportunities. Ex. 4, News Report.

District Attorneys across the State have sought recusal of Ms. Doyle and Mr. Luck based upon the conflict of interest created by their employment that directly benefits from their actions as members of the Pardon and Parole Board. Even more recently, Mr. Luck has been requested to recuse for personally promoting the work of other high profile activists seeking a sentence commutation in a case currently under review by the Pardon and Parole Board. Ex. 6, Recusal Request. Yet, despite the efforts of prosecutors to ensure the Pardon and Parole Board conducts its affairs impartially as mandated by the Oklahoma Constitution, the Board has turned a blind eye to all concepts of fairness and justice.

<sup>1</sup> It would not be the first time the Pardon and Parole Board skirted its obligations to give appropriate public notice of its actions to the detriment of crime victims and those who advocate for them. See Oklahoma Parole Board Members Charged with Misdemeanors, (March 13, 2013, 5:39 pm), <https://www.newson6.com/story/5e34e189e0c96e774b35a84f/oklahoma-parole-board-members-charged-with-misdemeanors>

To protect the sanctity of the criminal process and to guarantee appropriate due process and fundamental fairness to the victims and those who advocate for them, the District Attorney now seeks injunctive relief barring Defendant Pardon and Parole Board from considering any request for commutation until such time as statutory notice mandates are followed, barring Defendant Pardon and Parole Board members from voting on any request for parole and/or commutation for which they have a conflict of interest or the appearance of bias, and further barring Defendant Stitt from granting any recommendation for parole and/or commutation that has been tainted by these improprieties of the Pardon and Parole Board and its members.

JURISDICTION

1. This Court has jurisdiction to consider and grant Plaintiff's request for declaratory and injunctive relief pursuant to Title 12, Section 1381 et seq. and Section 1651 et seq.

PARTIES AND VENUE

2. Plaintiff David W. Prater is the duly elected and acting District Attorney for the Seventh Prosecutorial District of Oklahoma County. Plaintiff's principle place of business is in Oklahoma County.

3. Defendant Oklahoma Pardon and Parole Board is a body created by Article VI, Section 10 of the Oklahoma Constitution and charged with the duty "to make an impartial investigation and study of applicants for commutations, pardons or paroles...." Okla. Const. art. VI, § 10. Defendant's principle place of business is Oklahoma County.

4. Defendant Kevin Stitt is the duly elected and acting Governor of the State of Oklahoma and is named in his official capacity. Upon a favorable recommendation by Defendant Board, Defendant Stitt is empowered by Article VI, Section 10 of the Oklahoma Constitution to commute the sentence of any offender. Okla. Const. art. VI, § 10. Defendant's principle place of business is in Oklahoma County.

STATEMENT OF THE FACTS

5. Defendant Pardon and Parole Board is made of up five members. Kelly Doyle was appointed to serve as a member of the Board by Defendant Stitt on or about February 26, 2019. Adam Luck was appointed to serve as a member of the Board by Defendant Stitt on or about February 26, 2019.

6. Board member Kelly Doyle is the Deputy Executive Director at the Center for Employment Opportunities, an organization that provides services to persons released from incarceration. By virtue of her employment, Ms. Doyle has a direct, material financial interest in cases of parole and commutation under her consideration as a Board member.

7. Board member Adam Luck is the Chief Executive Officer of City Care, a non-profit organization that provides services to persons released from incarceration. By virtue of his employment, Mr. Luck has a direct, material financial interest in cases of parole and commutation under his consideration as a Board member.

8. Defendant Pardon and Parole Board may only consider an inmate for commutation of sentence upon receipt of an application requesting commutation. 57 O.S.Supp. 2019, § 332.2.

9. Defendant Pardon and Parole Board considers requests for commutation in a two-stage process. Okla.Admin.Code § 515:15-11-1.

10. During the first stage of the review process, referred to as “Initial Review” Defendant Board reviews only the inmate’s application for commutation. If a majority of Defendant Board members vote to give further consideration to the application, the matter is passed to “Stage Two.” Okla.Admin.Code § 515:15-11-1.

11. During “Stage Two,” Defendant Board considers the application, an investigation conducted by Board employees, and allows personal appearances by the inmate, the inmate’s delegates, the victim or their representative, and “trial officials” to include the District Attorney. Okla.Admin.Code § 515:15-11-3 – 15-11-5.

12. If a majority of Defendant Board vote to recommend an inmate be granted a commutation, the application is forwarded to Defendant Stitt for consideration. Okla. Const. art. VI, § 10; Okla.Admin.Code § 515:15-11-1.

13. By electronic mail dated February 22, 2021, Defendant Board notified Plaintiff of a number of commutation requests to be considered for “Initial Review” beginning March 8, 2021. Ex. 7, Email. Attached to the electronic mail is a spreadsheet listing 474 inmates to be considered for commutation. Ex. 8, Spreadsheet. The spreadsheet alone does not provide adequate notice of an inmate’s application for commutation as is required by Section 332.2 of Title 57 and deprives Plaintiff of a meaningful opportunity to make a decision on whether to make objection to an inmate’s commutation application.

14. The electronic mail dated February 22, 2021, does not comply with the requirement of Section 332.2 of Title 57 that Defendant Board send to Plaintiff any application for commutation and be given “twenty (20) business days to provide a written recommendation or protest prior to consideration of the application.” 57 O.S.Supp.2019, § 332.2 (C).

15. Among the commutation requests to be considered by Defendant Board during the March 2021 Commutation Docket are inmates convicted of egregious and/or violent crimes including: Murder in the First Degree, Robbery, Kidnapping, Rape, Child Abuse, and Trafficking in Illegal Drugs. Ex. 8, Spreadsheet.

16. Prior to the electronic mail notification received on February 22, 2021, Plaintiff did not receive from Defendant Board copies of the applications for commutation within ten (10) business days of Defendant Board’s receipt thereof as required by Section 332.2(B) of Title 57.

17. On February 12, 2021, applications for commutation to be considered by Defendant Board for “Initial Review” beginning March 8, 2021, were included in the online database. Ex. 9, Directory.

18. The applications for commutation to be considered by Defendant Board for Initial Review during March 2021, are not segregated by county and appear only in alphabetical order by inmate name. Ex. 10, Subdirectory List.

19. Each application for commutation is a minimum of eight (8) pages in length and is made on a form created by Defendant Board. Okla.Admin.Code § 515:15-11-1. The form application includes information that is otherwise unavailable to Plaintiff from other sources including an inmate’s account of their offense and the grounds they believe warrant sentence commutation. Often inmates include evidence of their accomplishments while incarcerated as well. In addition, the form requires an inmate to attest to the accuracy of the statements made in the application under adverse penalty. Ex. 11, Form Application for Commutation.

20. A total of 474 applications for commutation were set for “Initial Review” for March 2021. Of the 474 applications for inmates set for “Initial Review” for March 2021, 114 are applications of inmates convicted in Oklahoma County, which total over 1,500 pages.

21. By undated letter postmarked February 12, 2021, Defendant Pardon and Parole Board notified Plaintiff of a number of commutation requests that had been reviewed as part of “Initial Review” by the Board during the January 2021 Commutation Docket. The letter purports to comply with the notice requirements imposed upon Defendant Board by Section 332.2(C) of Title 57. Attached to the letter is a spreadsheet of cases considered and Defendant Board’s determinations as part of the “Initial Review” as to each inmate for the January 2021 Commutation Docket. Ex. 12, Letter 2/12/21.

22. The undated letter postmarked February 12, 2021, purports to advise Plaintiff of his right to object to the consideration of any inmate for commutation at the April 2021 meeting of Defendant Board and states that, “If a written protest or recommendation is not received by April 6th, it will be presumed you have no position on the offender’s commutation application.” Ex. 12, Letter 2/12/21.

23. Among the commutation requests purportedly considered by Defendant Board during the January 2021 Commutation Docket are inmates convicted of egregious and/or violent crimes including: Murder in the First Degree, Robbery, Kidnapping, Rape, Child Abuse, and Trafficking in Illegal Drugs. Ex. 12, Letter 2/12/21.

24. Prior to the undated letter postmarked February 12, 2021, Plaintiff did not receive from Defendant Board copies of the applications for commutation within ten (10) business days of Defendant Board's receipt thereof as required by Section 332.2(B) of Title 57.

25. The spreadsheet of cases attached to the undated letter postmarked February 12, 2021, lists a total of 241 inmates and does not identify the county of conviction for each inmate considered by Defendant Board for the January 2021 Commutation Docket; thus, the letter and attached spreadsheet provides no adequate notice to Plaintiff of inmates being considered for commutation. Ex. 12, Letter 2/12/21.

26. The undated letter postmarked February 12, 2021, purports to advise that access to an inmate's application for commutation may be accessed by online database. Ex. 12, Letter 2/12/21. The database, however, does not contain applications considered by Defendant Board for the January 2021 Commutation Docket. Ex. 9, Directory. Thus, the database does not provide adequate notice to Plaintiff of inmates being considered for commutation and deprives Plaintiff of a meaningful opportunity to make a decision on whether to make objection to an inmate's commutation application.

27. By undated letter postmarked February 26, 2021, Defendant Pardon and Parole Board again notified Plaintiff of a number of commutation requests that had been reviewed by the Board during the January 2021 Commutation Docket. The letter purports to comply with the notice requirements imposed upon Defendant Board by Section 332.2(C) of Title 57. Attached to the letter is a spreadsheet of cases considered and Defendant Board's determinations as part of the "Initial Review" as to each inmate for the January 2021 Commutation Docket. Ex. 13, Letter 2/26/21.

28. The undated letter postmarked February 26, 2021, purports to advise Plaintiff of his right to object to the consideration of any inmate for commutation at the April 2021 meeting of Defendant Board and states that "If a written protest or recommendation is not received by April 6th, it will be presumed you have no position on the offender's commutation application." Ex. 13, Letter 2/26/21.

29. Among the commutation requests purportedly considered by Defendant Board during the January 2021 Commutation Docket are inmates convicted of egregious and/or violent crimes including: Murder in the First Degree, Robbery, Kidnapping, Rape, Child Abuse, and Trafficking in Illegal Drugs. Ex. 13, Letter 2/26/21.

30. The spreadsheet of cases attached to the undated letter postmarked February 12, 2021, lists a total of 241 inmates out of which 64 have been convicted in Oklahoma County. Ex. 13, Letter 2/26/21. The spreadsheet alone does not provide adequate notice of an inmate's application for commutation as is required by Section 332.2 of Title 57 and deprives Plaintiff of a meaningful opportunity to make a decision on whether to make objection to an inmate's commutation application.

31. The undated letter postmarked February 26, 2021, purports to advise that access to an inmate's application for commutation may be accessed by online database. Ex. 13, Letter 2/26/21. The database, however, does not contain applications considered by Defendant Board for the January 2021 Commutation Docket. Ex. 9, Directory. Thus, the database does not provide adequate notice to Plaintiff of inmates being considered for commutation and deprives Plaintiff of a meaningful opportunity to make a decision on whether to make objection to an inmate's commutation application.

32. Upon information and belief, Defendant Stitt has before him for consideration applications for sentence commutation for which Plaintiff was deprived of adequate notice and a meaningful opportunity to object prior to being recommended for commutation by Defendant Board.

33. Upon information and belief, Defendant Stitt has before him for consideration applications for sentence commutation for which Plaintiff was deprived of a fair and impartial hearing prior to being recommended for parole or commutation by Defendant Board.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION – VIOLATION OF SECTION 332.2 OF TITLE 57 AND DENIAL OF PROCEDURAL DUE PROCESS

34. The allegations contained in paragraphs 1-33 are adopted and restated herein.

35. Article II, Section 7 of the Oklahoma Constitution guarantees the right to due process of law. Okla. Const. art. II, § 7. This encompasses the right to procedural due process aimed to protect against arbitrary government action. Taylor v. City of Bixby, 415 P.3d 537 (Okla.Civ.App. 2018).

36. Recognizing the crucial role prosecutors play in ensuring community safety and protecting victims' rights, the Legislature requires Defendant Board to provide to the District Attorney adequate notice and an opportunity to respond to a request for commutation being considered by Defendant Board.

37. Section 332.2 of Title 57 provides: “Any consideration for commutation shall be made only after application is made to the Pardon and Parole Board pursuant to the procedures set forth in this section. The Pardon and Parole Board shall provide a copy of the application to the district attorney, the victim or representative of the victim and the Office of the Attorney General within ten (10) business days of receipt of such application.” 57 O.S.Supp.2019, § 332.2(B).

38. Section 332.2 of Title 57 provides: “An application for commutation ... must be sent to the trial officials, who shall have twenty (20) business days to provide a written recommendation or protest prior to consideration of the application. Trial officials shall include...the current elected district attorney of the jurisdiction where the conviction was had.” 57 O.S.Supp.2019, § 332.2(C).

39. Defendant Board has violated the plain and unequivocal mandates of Section 332.2 of Title 57 by failing to provide to Plaintiff timely copies of applications for commutation upon their receipt and by further failing to provide copies of applications for commutation at least twenty (20) business days prior to their consideration by Defendant Board.

40. Defendant Board’s failure to provide timely and adequate notice of the applications for commutation to be considered has deprived Plaintiff of a meaningful opportunity to have notice and an opportunity to respond to commutation requests as is guaranteed to him by statute and the Oklahoma Constitution.

41. Defendant Board’s violation of Plaintiff’s statutory and constitutional right to adequate notice and an opportunity to be heard impacts not only those applications under Initial Review and Stage Two review by Defendant Board, but all affected applications currently under review by Defendant Stitt.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION – VIOLATION OF STATUTES, ETHICS RULES AND DENIAL OF AN IMPARTIAL TRIBUNAL

42. The allegations contained in paragraphs 1-41 are adopted and restated herein.

43. Article VI, Section 10 of the Oklahoma Constitution directs that, “It shall be the duty of the Board to make an impartial investigation and study of applicants for commutations, pardons or paroles....” Okla.Const. art. VI, § 10.

44. Section 332.2 of Title 57 provides: “Applications for commutation shall be given impartial review as required by Section 10 of Article VI of the Oklahoma Constitution.” 57 O.S.Supp.2019, § 332.2(H).

45. Oklahoma Ethics Rule 4.4 provides in relevant part: “Except as permitted by law or these Rules, a state officer or employee shall not use his or her State office (1) for his or her own private gain, (2) for the endorsement of any product, service or enterprise, (3) for the private gain of a family member or persons with whom the state officer or employee is affiliated in a nongovernmental capacity, including nonprofit organizations of which the state officer or employee is an officer or member, or (4) for the private gain of persons with whom the state officer or employee seeks employment or business relations.” Rule 4.4, Misuse of Office, Title 74, Ch. 62, Appx. I, (2021).

46. Oklahoma Ethics Rule 4.7 provides in relevant part: “In the event a state officer or employee ... knows that a particular matter involving specific parties is likely to have a direct and predictable effect on the material financial interests of the state officer or employee or of his or her family member or ... determines circumstances would cause a reasonable person with knowledge of all the relevant facts to question his or her impartiality in the matter, the state officer or employee shall not participate in the matter unless he or she is required to do so by law or permitted to do so by these Rules.” Rule 4.7 further defines a “material financial interest” to include, inter alia, “any source of income derived from employment, other than compensation pertaining to the office for which the state officer or employee or his or her family member holds, in the amount of Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) or more by the state officer or employee or his or her family member.” Rule 4.7, State Officer Impartiality, Title 74, Ch. 62, Appx. I, (2021).

47. One or more members of Defendant Board have a material financial interest in the cases under their consideration for parole and/or commutation which require them to refrain from participating in the matters before them.

48. Circumstances cause a reasonable person to question the impartiality of one or more members of Defendant Board in the cases under their consideration for parole and/or commutation which require them to refrain from participating in the matters before them.

49. Defendant Board has failed to develop appropriate procedures to hear and determine challenges to a member’s impartiality.

50. Defendant Board has failed to consider and determine one or more challenges to a member’s ability to hear and determine issues related to parole and/or commutation.

51. Despite an awareness of existing conflicts of interest and appearances of impropriety, Defendant Board has allowed one or more members to continue hearing cases for parole and/or commutation.

52. As a result of impermissible conflicts of interest and appearances of bias by one or more of its members, Plaintiff has been denied his right to an impartial investigation and consideration of applications for commutation by Defendant Board.

RELIEF REQUESTED

53. Declare that Defendant Pardon and Parole Board has violated statute by failing to provide Plaintiff with adequate notice and a meaningful opportunity to be heard on applications for commutation.

54. Direct that Defendant Pardon and Parole Board henceforth provide to Plaintiff a copy of each and every application for commutation within ten (10) business days from receipt.

55. Enjoin Defendant Pardon and Parole Board from giving consideration to any application for commutation which has not been preceded by proper statutory notice to Plaintiff to include a copy of the application for commutation and a minimum of twenty (20) business days to respond thereto.

56. Direct that Defendant Pardon and Parole Board adopt appropriate procedures to consider and adjudicate a challenge to a member's ability to hear a matter in a fair and impartial manner.

57. Declare that Defendant Pardon and Parole Board member Kelly Doyle has a material financial interest in the cases of parole and commutation before her for consideration.

58. Declare that Defendant Pardon and Parole Board member Adam Luck has a material financial interest in the cases of parole and commutation before him for consideration.

59. Declare that a reasonable person knowledgeable of all of the facts and circumstances would believe that one or more members of Defendant Pardon and Parole Board appear to be biased in determining the cases of parole and/or commutation that come before them.

60. Declare any recommendation for parole or commutation in which members Doyle and/or Luck have participated to be invalid and in violation of the Oklahoma Constitution, statutes, and rules of ethics.

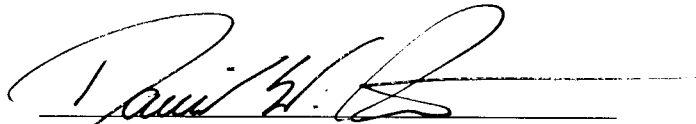

61. Enjoin Defendant Stitt from giving consideration to any application for commutation recommended by Defendant Board which has not been preceded by proper statutory notice to Plaintiff to include a copy of the application for commutation and a minimum of twenty (20) business days to respond thereto.

62. Enjoin Defendant Stitt from giving consideration to any request for parole or commutation recommended by Defendant Board for which Defendant Board failed to act upon a challenge to a member's ability to hear the matter in a fair and impartial manner.

63. Enjoin Defendant Stitt from giving consideration to any request for parole or commutation recommended by Defendant Board in which members Kelly Doyle and/or Adam Luck have voted.

64. All other equitable relief to which this Court finds Plaintiff entitled.

Respectfully submitted,

Families of Chickasha triple murder victims ask why suspect was released from prison before allegedly committing murders

by: Austin Breasette

Posted: Mar 1, 2021 / 10:10 PM CST / Updated: Mar 1, 2021 / 10:28 PM CST

CHICKASHA, Okla. (KFOR) – Amid heartbreak and anger, the families of three Chickasha triple murder victims are seeking answers Wednesday after the alleged suspect was released from prison on a commuted sentence just weeks before the murders.

Exhibit 1

“He ruined everything,” said Taranzo Pye, the father of 4-year-old Kaeos Yates and son of 67-year-old Leon Pye, who were both murdered. “He ruined my whole life.”

“[The Oklahoma State Pardon and Parole Board] have failed to do their job in protecting Oklahomans,” Brooke Burriss Wofford, the cousin of Andrea Blankenship who was also murdered, said.

Parents speak out following death of 4-year-old daughter and 67-year-old grandfather in Chickasha double-homicide →

42-year-old Lawrence Paul Anderson was a free man for less than three weeks before he allegedly went to a complete stranger’s home. According to court documents, Anderson stabbed Andrea Blankenship and cut her heart out. He allegedly then took the heart to his uncle, Leon Pye’s home where he cooked it and tried to feed it to his family.

Then, Leon Pye and Kaeos Yates were both stabbed to death. Delsie Pye was also stabbed in both eyes but survived.

The families are nearing one month since the loss of their loved ones.

“Everyone’s still in shock,” said Haylee Blankenship, Andrea Blankenship’s daughter.

“For me right now it’s just like random bursts of sorrow,” said Tasha Yates, the mother of Kaeos Yates.

The families said they are also trying to figure out why the state pardon and parole board voted 3-1 to release Anderson on a commuted sentence. The decision was then signed off on by Gov. Kevin Stitt.

“As a result of that, unfortunately three innocent people have lost their lives,” Burris Wofford said.

OSBI investigators believe suspect killed 67-year-old Chickasha man & granddaughter after killing their neighbor →

Anderson’s criminal past is extensive. He was originally sentenced to prison in 2006 for attacking his girlfriend and pointing a gun at her. He went back to prison in 2012 for selling crack cocaine near an elementary school. Anderson was sentenced again in 2017 for having a gun after a felony conviction and smuggling drugs into jail.

“We have put politics and releasing inmates in front of public safety,” Grady County District Attorney Jason Hicks said. “The goal that we have set in Oklahoma is to decrease the prison population with no thought of public safety.”

Hicks blasted the decision Tuesday. He said that Anderson’s application for a commutation was put in with 600 other offenders hoping to be released.

“It’s too many,” Hicks said. “You don’t have the time to look through those things and give any meaningful consideration.”

Blankenship’s family said they have tried to get in touch with the governor and the pardon and parole board. However, they have not had any luck.

Gruesome details released: Suspect in Chickasha triple murder facing multiple charges, death penalty ‘absolutely on the table’ →

“Those two individuals have not been helpful,” Burriss Wofford said.

KFOR tried to help. We emailed the governor’s office a week ago working to get a statement. We were unable to get one due to the winter weather coming through the state. We emailed again Monday but received no response. We also called and emailed Steve Bickley with the pardon and parole board but his phone went straight to voicemail. We did not receive any response to the text messages.

The Pye family’s attorney, Robert Wagner said the family held their funeral services Saturday. He said they also have several questions regarding Anderson’s release.

Anderson’s first appearance was Tuesday, February 23. He is being housed in the Grady County Jail facing 3 counts of murder in the first degree and one count each of maiming and assault and battery with a deadly weapon.

Triple murder leads OSBI to parole board

By Nolan Clay
Staff writer
nclay@oklahoman.com

State agents have begun an investigation into the Oklahoma Pardon and Parole Board and whether any wrongdoing there resulted in the release of two inmates from prison by mistake.

Gov. Kevin Stitt requested the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation examine the issue after one inmate, Lawrence Paul Anderson, was accused of fatally stabbing three people in Chickasha on Feb. 9 after getting out of prison early.

Anderson, 42, has confessed, saying he cut out one victim's heart to eat, according to court affidavits. He was released in January after the governor commuted his sentence for drug dealing and other crimes to nine years.

The governor signed the commutation after the Pardon and Parole Board recommended it by a 3-1 vote last year.

Records released to The Oklahoman on Tuesday, however, show that the Pardon and Parole Board initially rejected Anderson's commutation request 3-2 in July 2019. A denial at the so-called first stage is meant to end further consideration.

How Anderson's request came up again anyway in January 2020 is the focus of the investigation.

The findings of the investigation could exacerbate the already bitter feud between advocates pushing for criminal justice reform to reduce Oklahoma's high incarceration rates and prosecutors who contend the efforts have gone too far and endanger the public.

"It is time that we do better," Grady County District Attorney Jason Hicks said last week at a news conference after charging Anderson. "We don't want these people on our streets."

Stitt on Thursday asked the OSBI to look into "all facts and circumstances" surrounding the two inmates' applications "including any actions taken

State's COVID-19 death toll is about to jump

It isn't that more people are dying; the state is changing the way it counts victims

By Dana Branham

Depending on where you look, you can find two vastly different COVID-19 death tolls for Oklahoma. But that is about to change.

Using the figures the state Health Department publishes daily, the toll as of Monday was 4,478. But the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's National Center for Health Statistics shows a toll in Oklahoma of 6,970 — a difference of nearly 2,500 in lives lost.

The state soon will make changes to the way it publishes

Major delay seen in getting state-issued IDs

By Dale Denwall
Staff writer
ddenwall@oklahoman.com

A major backlog has triggered months-long delays to renew an Oklahoma driver's license and obtain a REAL ID card.

The backlog can be blamed on several causes, including the pandemic, new software to process IDs and, in general, Oklahoma's self-imposed delay with even allowing the REAL ID-compliant licenses that will be required to board aircraft and visit federal buildings after Oct. 1.

The Oklahoma Department of Public Safety estimated

600,000 people might want a REAL ID. But as of Feb. 20, only 139,752 such credentials have been issued.

Oklahoma is one of the last states to comply with the federal REAL ID program. The Legislature resisted efforts to implement security features found in compliant cards for more than a decade after the REAL ID Act was passed following the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks. Finally, the state began issuing REAL IDs last year.

appointment this week to get a REAL ID for her and her children. The earliest opening was in August.

She'd already spent three weeks trying to renew her current driver's license, which still isn't considered REAL ID-compliant.

"It expired Sunday," McKinnis said. "Thankfully, I don't have to drive."

Lack of a current ID also can affect other things, such as financial transactions where an unexpired ID is mandatory.

After trying to book a renewal appointment with several tag agencies, she went online through the Department of Public Safety (DPS) to start the process.

Getting a new REAL ID-compliant license, however, requires an in-person visit to validate proofs of residency and identity. More often than not, a tag agent requires booking in advance instead of just walking in the door.

Tag agencies, which are private businesses working with the government to provide this service, only get one camera to take ID photos, said Sonya Triplett, who runs Northwest Tag Agency. The software that processes REAL ID applications also takes about four times longer to complete than the system for older cards.

"We used to do at least 80 driver's licenses in a day because we could turn them over that quickly," she said. "Well, we are celebrating if we get 30. There's 50 people that didn't get a license that day, five days a week."

Some of that time can be shaved off by uploading documents through Oklahoma's Mobile ID app.

Neess appointments

These delays have caused frustration throughout the system, from residents angry about the wait to tag agents beaten down by an incredibly busy lobby eager to access one of the most basic functions of government.

Before Triplett implemented a booking schedule, she'd arrive at work each day with dozens of people waiting in line. Allowing walk-ins heightened tension inside the office, and her staff felt the brunt.

"They are cussed out every day. People are frustrated," she said. "Something that used to be as simple as walking in and getting a driver's license is now difficult to do, and it's frustrating for our customers and I'm sympathetic toward that."

Tag agents also have seen an uptick in business from customers wanting advanced products, like a commercial driver's license. Before Gov. Kevin Stitt signed an executive order last month, commercial driver's licenses were available only through state-run DPS offices that were heavily impacted by COVID restrictions, funding shortfalls and manpower issues.

Stitt said the change, among others he implemented in his order, was meant to reduce wait times. The backlog at DPS is at least 60 days for a REAL ID; the agency only books appointments out that far and new slots are opened each day at 6 p.m.

Until McKinnis gets her physical driver's license from DPS, she hopes she won't have to drive anywhere. Still, it's a complicated mess for a mother trying to support her college-age children. She'd even signed up recently to do gig work, shopping for and delivering groceries.

"It was just extra work, but right now I don't have a legal license to do it. I just feel bad for anyone who can't work and are going to starve because of this," she said.

Texas becomes biggest US state to lift mask mandate

By Paul J. Weber
The Associated Press

AUSTIN, Texas — Texas is lifting its mask mandate, Gov. Greg Abbott said Tuesday, making it the largest state to end an order intended to prevent the spread of the coronavirus that has killed more than 42,000 Texans.

The Republican governor has faced sharp criticism from his party over the mandate, which was imposed eight months ago, as well as other COVID-19 restrictions on businesses that Texas will also scuttle starting next week. The mask order was only ever lightly enforced, even during the worst outbreaks of the pandemic.

The repealed rules include doing away with limits on the number of diners or customers allowed indoors, said Abbott, who made the announcement at a restaurant in Lubbock. He said the new rules would take effect March 10, although leaders in Houston and other big Texas cities were already reacting with alarm. "Removing statewide mandates does not end personal responsibility," said Abbott, speaking from the crowded dining room where many of those surrounding him were not wearing masks.

"It's just that now state mandates are no longer needed," he said.

The decision comes as governors across the U.S. have been easing coronavirus restrictions, despite warnings from health experts that the pandemic is far from over. Like the rest of the country, Texas has seen the number of cases and deaths plunge. Hospitalizations are at the lowest levels since October, and the seven-day rolling average of positive tests has dropped to about 7,600 cases, down from more than 10,000 in mid-February.

Only California and New York have reported more COVID-19 deaths than Texas.

"The fact that things are headed in the right direction doesn't mean we succeeded in eradicating the virus," said Dr. Lauren Ancel Meyers, a professor of integrative biology and director of the University of Texas COVID-19 Modeling Consortium.

She said the recent deadly winter freeze in Texas that left millions of people without power — forcing families to shelter closely with others who still had heat — could amplify transmission of the virus in the weeks ahead, although it remains too early to tell. Masks, she said, are one of the most effective strategies to curb the spread.

The top county leader in Houston, Harris County Judge Lina Hidalgo, called the announcement "wishful thinking" and said spikes in hospitalizations have followed past rollbacks of COVID-19 rules.

"At worst, it is a cynical attempt to distract Texans from the failures of state over-sight of our power grid," said Hidalgo, a Democrat.

Early in the pandemic, Abbott stripped local officials of their power to implement tougher COVID-19 restrictions, but now says counties can impose "mitigation strategies" if virus hospitalizations exceed 15% of all hospital capacity in their region. However, Abbott forbade local officials from imposing penalties for not wearing a face covering.

Transmission of the virus in the weeks ahead, although it remains too early to tell. But enforcement was spotty at best, and some sheriffs refused to police the restrictions at all. And as the pandemic dragged on, Abbott ruled out a return to tough COVID-19 rules, arguing that lockdowns do not work.

Politically, the restrictions elevated tensions between Abbott and his own party, with the head of the Texas GOP at one point leading a protest outside the governor's mansion. Meanwhile, mayors in Texas' biggest cities argued that Abbott wasn't doing enough.

the COVID-19 death toll to show a more timely picture of the disease's impact on Oklahoma.

State epidemiologist Dr. Jared Taylor said Monday the state would begin to present the death toll that is used by the CDC, which is based on death certificates. The state health department so far has reported a lower number than the CDC because it takes a slower approach, investigating each death before adding it to the total.

Dr. Lance Frye, the state's health commissioner, said he expects, in the long run, the state's count of investigated COVID-19 deaths will more closely align with the CDC's.

Taylor said the thorough investigations of each COVID-19 death will continue, even as the state will present a timelier count through death certificates.

"[The death investigation] process has been very complicated, because throughout the preceding three months,

Lance Frye, Oklahoma's interim health commissioner, walks through the Oklahoma County Courthouse in Lawton. Frye said this week he hopes the state's reporting of COVID-related deaths will soon be closer to the figures reported by the CDC. (DOUG HOWE/THE OKLAHOMAN) many parts of our health care system have been strained," he said. "And along with that strain, we've seen a decreased maintenance of our public health reporting system by our partners."

While that's understandable — providers had to prioritize caring for patients over updating a database as COVID-19 cases and hospitalizations surged — it slowed the state's ability to conduct death investigations and led to a less timely coronavirus toll, Taylor said.

"We feel like now is an appropriate time for us to make this transition in our reporting system so that there's no perception that we're minimizing these deaths," he said. "We recognize that each one of these deaths is a tragedy and is a great cost to the family and friends of that individual, to the state of Oklahoma, and to the world."

Dr. George Monks, president of the Oklahoma State Medical Association, praised the planned changes after he had questioned on social media the gap in death tolls.

He said in other circumstances, when a physician writes a cause of death on a person's death certificate, the cause is taken as fact — and coronavirus deaths shouldn't be treated differently.

"It is crucial for Oklahoma's physicians and public health leaders to get the most timely and factual data," he said in a written statement. "While any COVID death is a huge loss, we certainly want the public and our health professionals to have the most accurate reflection of the number of Oklahomans lost to this deadly disease."

or proceedings conducted by employees or members of the Oklahoma Pardon and Parole Board."

Stitt told the OSBI in a letter that "information has been presented to me ... which raises concerns that violations of state law and/or violations of the rules of the Pardon and Parole Board may have been committed affecting the recommendations of the Board related to the two inmates."

The governor wrote the information came from Tom Bates, a former assistant attorney general who took over as executive director of the Pardon and Parole Board last September.

He is accused in the charge of killing his uncle, Leon Pye, 67, and attacking his aunt, Delsie Pye, at their home in Chickasha. He also is accused of killing their granddaughter, Kaeos Yates, 4, and a woman who lived across the street. He was arrested at the Pye home after police responded to a 911 call for help.

He confessed to first killing the neighbor, Andrea Lynn Blankenship, 41, after breaking into her home, according to the OSBI.

"As your investigation proceeds, if you believe these concerns to be justified and may extend to cases beyond those of the two inmates ... please advise me ... so that I may expand the scope of my investigation," Stitt wrote OSBI Director Ricky Adams.

Anderson was charged last week with three counts of first-degree murder, one count of assault and battery with a deadly weapon, and one count of maiming.

He is accused in the charge of killing his uncle, Leon Pye, 67, and attacking his aunt, Delsie Pye, at their home in Chickasha. He also is accused of killing their granddaughter, Kaeos Yates, 4, and a woman who lived across the street. He was arrested at the Pye home after police responded to a 911 call for help.

He confessed to first killing the neighbor, Andrea Lynn Blankenship, 41, after breaking into her home, according to the OSBI.

He said he took the heart back to the Pye home to cook with potatoes "to feed to his family to release the demons," an OSBI agent wrote in a search warrant request.

"Anderson ... cooked the heart at the Pye home and tried to make Delsie and Leon Pye eat the heart before he attacked them," another OSBI agent wrote in separate search warrant request.

Anderson was sentenced in 2017 to serve 20 years behind bars for probation violations on his drug dealing case and for the new crimes. He would still be in prison if his sentence had not been commuted, records show.

Hicks declined to comment Tuesday because a judge imposed a gag order in the triple murder case. Bates also did not comment but directed the Pardon and Parole Board's general counsel to provide records to The Oklahoman as soon as possible.

The other inmate, Jonathan Perez, 35, also had his sentence commuted even though the Pardon and Parole Board had denied his application, records show.

Perez was sentenced in 2017 to serve 10 more years in prison for probation violations in a forged instrument case in Greer County District Court. Those violations included two new crimes in Oklahoma County: burglary and domestic abuse.

The Pardon and Parole Board will add down the application 3-2 in October 2019, records show. Stitt, however, commuted the sentence on Dec. 10, 2019, to time served after being told the Pardon and Parole Board had recommended it.

Stitt declined comment Tuesday. "It would be inappropriate to comment further until the investigation ordered by the governor is complete," said Charlie Hannema, his chief of communications.

Oklahoma's First Lady Welcomes Commuted Workers To Centennial House

Oklahoma's First Lady Welcomes Commuted Workers To Centennial House

It's been 10 days since Oklahoma's historic commutation. Approved by the Oklahoma Pardon and Parole Board, nearly 500 inmates were released from the Oklahoma Department of Corrections.

With a record, many ex-cons knew it would be hard to find work. But some of those who found the Center for Employment Opportunities (C.E.O), landed in the governor's backyard.

Sarah Stitt, Oklahoma's First Lady, welcomed them to the Centennial House the morning of Thursday, November 14.

"It's not just a job. It's an opportunity to have a different life. The ball is ultimately in your court. You're making that choice, and sometimes that choice is the hardest thing," said Stitt. "I have been praying for everyone that was in that commutation."

The crew rolled up their sleeves and went to work.

C.E.O. helps all people, but the company saw a unique opportunity to help those who were recently released. It provides a short-term plan to reach long-term goals.

"This is a way to build references. I can say they show up every single day, 7 a.m. and they work harder than anyone I have ever seen," said Sam Eagleson, Director of the Center for Employment Opportunities.

Many of them won't stick with manual labor, but it's one of the best places to start.

One of the inmates to benefit was Raquel Wilkerson. He said he served 22 months in prison before he was released.

"I had a 9-year suspended sentence because my criminal history was extensive. I did six years on probation, but I caught another charge, which was a petty larceny charge, and they convicted me of that and revoked my whole probation in full, and I was on probation for possession of marijuana," said Wilkerson. "I knew better than what I was doing."

Wilkerson said he picked up his bible and turned away from the mistakes he made over the years. He admits his criminal history is long. But, at 42 years old, he is looking ahead for the first time, and he likes what he sees.

"Thanks to C.E.O., I had a job before I got out of prison. They called my mom and told my mom I had an interview, and she said, 'My boy coming home?' Laughing, she was ecstatic. I really don't want to disappoint any of my family," he said.

About 25 percent of those released from Oklahoma prisons find themselves back behind bars, according to ODOC. The hope is these programs will bring that down.

The Oklahoma Pardon and Parole Board said they are working to better monitor their role in the process.

ODOC reports they will be tracking inmates to see their progress concerning recidivism.

Adam Luck
Pardon and Parole Board Member
2915 Classen Blvd., Suite 405
Oklahoma City, OK 73106

Dear Mr. Luck:

As District Attorney for Oklahoma County, I write to request that you recuse from consideration of the following case currently scheduled for review by the Oklahoma Pardon and Parole Board on the March 2021 Commutation Docket: Offender Julius Jones, DOC #270147 (Oklahoma County Case No. CF-1999-4373).

You have publicly demonstrated your personal bias in regards to this case. On October 17, 2019—two days after Offender Jones submitted his commutation application to the Board—you used your personal Twitter account, @AdmLuck, to “retweet” a post by one of Offender Jones’s most high-profile advocates, Kim Kardashian West (see Oct. 17, 2019 Tweet, attached; related Tweets by Ms. West, attached). You made clear in your tweet that you were speaking as “a board member.” In Ms. West’s message, which you appear to be endorsing, she asks her followers to “[p]lease help” by expressing their support for Offender Jones’s commutation by contacting “the Board and @GovStitt.” This same post that you shared with the public also refers the reader to the Twitter account @justice4julius, which proclaims itself to be “The OFFICIAL page of Julius Darius Jones, a wrongfully convicted inmate currently awaiting execution on Oklahoma’s Death Row” (see Twitter page, attached), and the website JusticeforJulius.com, a site created to advocate for Offender Jones’s release from prison and to solicit donations from supporters for that cause (see Homepage, attached).

The laws and regulations of Oklahoma provide clear guidance regarding the conduct expected by the members of the Oklahoma Pardon and Parole Board. Impartiality is a fundamental and legal obligation for a Pardon and Parole Member. The Oklahoma Constitution, the Oklahoma Ethics Rules, and even the Values listed on the home page of the Pardon and Parole Board website, mandate impartiality:

CONSTITUTION

“It shall be the duty of the Board to make an impartial investigation and study of applicants for commutations, pardons or paroles, and by a majority vote make its recommendations to the Governor of all persons deemed worthy of clemency.”
OKLA. CONST. VI, § 10

OKLAHOMA ETHICS RULE 4.7

“In the event a state officer “determines circumstances would cause a reasonable person with knowledge of all the relevant facts to question his or her impartiality in the matter; the state officer or employee shall not participate in the matter unless he or she is required to do so by law or permitted to do so by these Rules.” 74 O.S. § Rule 4.7

PARDON AND PAROLE BOARD VALUES

“The Pardon and Parole Board strongly believes and is committed to the ethical, unbiased, and professional performance of duties and will continually strive for excellence and fairness by making decisions that maintain a delicate balance between public safety, victim’s rights, and the successful re-integration of the offender.” <https://www.ok.gov/ppb/>

Your actions unmistakably give rise to the appearance of impropriety, if not outright partiality. By publicly endorsing a call for Offender Jones to be recommended for commutation by the Board upon which you sit, it is evident that neither the murder victim’s family nor the State of Oklahoma can receive fair consideration by you in this commutation proceeding. This request for recusal is made to ensure that all parties in the justice system are heard and can be afforded an impartial review by the Pardon and Parole Board. It is my hope that you can recognize your ethical and legal duties to the citizens of Oklahoma and will make the decision to voluntarily withdraw your consideration in this case.

Respectfully,

David W. Prater
Oklahoma County District Attorney

REASON(S) FOR SEEKING A COMMUTATION

8. A Court sentenced you for a crime or crimes that you committed. Please select why you are now seeking to reduce your sentence through a commutation:

Select One or More:

- 1) Given the range of punishment for the crime, this penalty is now excessive.
- 2) There are facts which were not available to the court or jury at the time of the trial.
- 3) There is a statutory change in penalty for the crime which makes the original penalty appear excessive.

For each item checked above, provide, in detail why you believe that Item 1, 2, or 3 applies to you. If more space is needed, use the Optional Continuation Page and list the question number.

Re: Commutations Passed to Stage II during the January 2021 Pardon and Parole Board Meeting

Dear Trial Official:

The attached list of offenders will have a Stage II Commutation Review in April. The list is broken out by county. This information is provided pursuant to the notice requirements of 57 O.S. § 332.2(C) (2). You may provide a written recommendation or protest prior to consideration of the commutation application by the Pardon and Parole Board during the April 2021 Board Meeting. As you know, a commutation is a request to lessen the term of a sentence or commute an indefinite sentence to a specific number of years. For commutation, the law does not require a minimum amount of time to be served before possible consideration for a commutation as it does for parole. Please note that this application is not a consideration for a parole.

The Governor has the final decision on commutations; however, without a favorable recommendation of the majority of the Pardon and Parole Board, the Governor cannot consider a possible commutation of a sentence. The Pardon and Parole Board has placed this application for commutation on a Stage II docket at the April meeting of the Pardon and Parole Board.

Your written protest or recommendation must be received at the Pardon and Parole Board Administrative Office by April 6, 2021. Written protests or recommendations may be mailed, faxed, or submitted electronically to daprotect@ppb.ok.gov. If a written protest or recommendation is not received by April 6th, it will be presumed you have no position on the offender's commutation application.

Title 57 O.S. § 332.2(D) also provides; that "In cases resolved prior to the tenure of the present officeholders, the recommendation or protest of persons holding such offices at the time of conviction may also be considered by the Board." If you were not the elected trial official at the time of the offender's prosecution, and are able to provide the offender's application to the officeholder at that time, he/she may also provide a written protest or recommendation for the Board's consideration.

The commutation application and all protest or recommendations received by the Board will be considered during the meeting regularly scheduled for April 12-14, 2021, held at the Kate Bernard Community Corrections Center in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. You will have the opportunity to speak in support or opposition of this application on Monday, April 12, 2021 at 1:30 p.m. If you choose to appear, please notify the PPB's administrative office of your intention to do so no later than Friday, April 9, 2021, by 4:00 p.m. The results of the April 2021 meeting will be available April 20, 2021. Temporarily being held through Zoom.

If you have any questions, please contact the office at (405) 521-6600.

Respectfully,
Tom Bates
Executive Director

PARDON AND PAROLE BOARD

Re: Commutations Passed to Stage II during the January 2021 Pardon and Parole Board Meeting

Dear Trial Official:

The attached list of offenders will have a Stage II Commutation Review in April. The list is broken out by county. This information is provided pursuant to the notice requirements of 57 O.S. § 332.2(C) (2). You may provide a written recommendation or protest prior to consideration of the commutation application by the Pardon and Parole Board during the April 2021 Board Meeting. As you know, a commutation is a request to lessen the term of a sentence or commute an indefinite sentence to a specific number of years. For commutation, the law does not require a minimum amount of time to be served before possible consideration for a commutation as it does for parole. Please note that this application is not a consideration for a parole.

The Governor has the final decision on commutations; however, without a favorable recommendation of the majority of the Pardon and Parole Board, the Governor cannot consider a possible commutation of a sentence. The Pardon and Parole Board has placed this application for commutation on a Stage II docket at the April meeting of the Pardon and Parole Board.

Your written protest or recommendation must be received at the Pardon and Parole Board Administrative Office by April 6, 2021. Written protests or recommendations may be mailed, faxed, or submitted electronically to daprotest@ppb.ok.gov. If a written protest or recommendation is not received by April 6th, it will be presumed you have no position on the offender's commutation application.

Title 57 O.S. § 332.2(D) also provides; that "In cases resolved prior to the tenure of the present officeholders, the recommendation or protest of persons holding such offices at the time of conviction may also be considered by the Board." If you were not the elected trial official at the time of the offender's prosecution, and are able to provide the offender's application to the officeholder at that time, he/she may also provide a written protest or recommendation for the Board's consideration.

The commutation application and all protest or recommendations received by the Board will be considered during the meeting regularly scheduled for April 12-14, 2021, held at the Kate Bernard Community Corrections Center in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. You will have the opportunity to speak in support or opposition of this application on Monday, April 12, 2021 at 1:30 p.m. If you choose to appear, please notify the PPB's administrative office of your intention to do so no later than Friday, April 9, 2021 by 4:00 p.m. The results of the April 2021 meeting will be available April 20, 2021. Temporarily being held through Zoom.

If you have any questions, please contact the office at (405) 521-6600.

Respectfully,
Tom Bates
Executive Director
