We do provide this group masks and they do where them indoors but we will give them some extra of course!

I am wondering whether anything might be done about the daily gathering of young men without masks, occupying the sidewalk on the northwest corner of Ashbury and Haight (formerly Haight Ashbury T-shirts). They are often sitting on chairs, often accompanied by dogs, sometimes sharing a bottle of wine, sometimes offering unsolicited comments to passersby. I have been greeted with "cannabis cures covid" or, yesterday, as I was crossing the street, "hey, old man," (I am 77). I avoid the corner as best I can, but we live in the 700 block of Ashbury, a block and half from Gus's, and we enjoy walking on Page Street. During the pandemic, we switched our shopping destination to Luke's Local, further but safer in terms of mask compliance. Because of the many empty stores on Haight Street and clear neighborhood preferences for unsatisfied shopping destinations, it would seem a priority to address this problem.

Hey Eliza!

So I'm trying to push HSH and the CCC to share with me what the plans are. So far, Dar has agreed that it is not actually feasible to simply transfer people to Safe Sleep. We would like to get folks into PSH and hotels. Can you lmk how many folks you have that are actually housing referral status? I know that's not everyone, but it would be a good start.

I'll ask about safe parking -- but that may have been the vehicle nav center. Is there someone who would be willing to do that?

And we would LOVE to come to a CAMP art show!!! I was telling Mary we should have a ceremony or event to commemorate CAMP and all the wonderful work you have done for the community keeping folks safe during the pandemic.

Hey there!

Thanks for doing this budget townhall it was very interesting.

I have a few questions!

First, I'm wondering if HSH and the CCC are keeping you informed of how they're handling shutting us down? Or "demobilization" as they call it.

Second, I remember during the election there was a lot of talk about safe parking areas in D5. Is this an actual thing and if so, could you tell me where they are located? We have some folks who are declining the transfers to other safe sleep sites and congregate shelter and are wondering about moving back into vehicles and if there are places to safely park.

Finally, some good news. We are planning an art show to showcase the amazing art of folks who live and have lived at CAMP for sometime in May and would love it if you would come! Will send along details as the planning progresses.

Thank you all for your support.

Hi all,

MTA and DPW were just here and disconnected the power box where our wifi originates from. When I asked them about our wifi they said they weren't told it was connected to that source and to contact you.

Let me know if there is any remedy for this. We are in the process of closing down and organizing transfers of 30+ people that requires constant communication with the city and access to the internet. We are trying to connect to whole foods for today but any help would be much appreciated.

Dear Calvin and Tes,

CCDC and TNDC would like to share the recent changes to 730 Stanyan project with CCC/HANC as well as The Senior Working Group.

For the past year, the Development team of TNDC and CCDC has been designing a 6-story affordable housing project with 120 units to house families and transitional age youth (TAY) per the expectations of original RFQ issued by MOHCD in September 2019. During that time, we have met with many interested Community groups in District 5 and shared our design progress for your input throughout the process.

Affordable housing project on former McDonald's site delayed as city adds units

- Ida Mojada
- May. 12, 2021 5:30 p.m. SF Examiner

The start of construction on an affordable housing project on the site of a former Haight-Ashbury McDonald's will be delayed by as much as a year due to a redesign and state financing issues, according to city officials.

The project at 730 Stanyan St., previously proposed as a six-story building with 120 units, will now be designed as an eight-story building with about 150 units, the Examiner has learned. The change came about in part because The City came into additional funding through savings on other projects and federal recovery funds that allowed the project scale to increase, according to the Mayor's Office of Housing and Community Development.

Construction would begin in summer 2023, amounting to about a one-year delay for affordable housing on the site, which currently houses a safe sleeping site for homeless residents.

San Francisco bought the property in 2017 after years of complaints about criminal activity around the McDonald's that used to be there, and dedicated community input began soon after.

"This change was made in an effort to maximize the number of permanently affordable homes on the site under [Senate Bill] 35 in conjunction with the State Density Bonus, and in response to the community advocating for more units," said Max Barnes, MOHCD spokesperson. SB 35 speeds up housing approvals and California's density bonus allows projects with on-site affordable housing to include more units than zoning would otherwise allow.

Most of the units will be reserved for those making between 30 percent to 100 percent Area Median Income, or $26,900 to $89,650 for a household of one. A quarter of the units will house formerly homeless people, with a focus on families and 18-to-24-year olds transitioning out of homelessness.

A 2018 vision statement by the Coalition for a Complete Community called for housing for seniors, but developers have said fair housing laws meant a different building would be needed for that population. Instead, they will be the subject of "affirmative marketing," or targeted outreach, but the group is still seeking a commitment to senior housing.

The project, co-developed by Chinatown Community Development Center and Tenderloin Neighborhood Development Corporation, was previously expected to cost around $80 million, according to CCDC project manager Bo Han.

Delays in the construction timeline, however, have been caused in part by the availability of state financing — which could change with California's unexpected $75 billion surplus.

"It's hard to predict at this point because they may post a different opportunity," Han said. "We check literally weekly. There's a lot of moving parts."

Developers have held numerous community meetings outlining the former design, but now will go back to the drawing board and take at least a couple months to redo the plans. Then community outreach will begin again, Han said.

"I'm happy to hear more housing will be possible, but honestly surprised that the money wasn't already available," said Christin Evans of the Haight Ashbury Neighborhood Council. Evans cited Proposition C as a possible source of funds for homeless housing. "I guess I'm disappointed that MOHCD had the nonprofit developer waste time and resources when the funding was there all along for a larger project."

Supervisor Dean Preston, who represents the area, criticized the timing of the change and said The City needed to consult with the community, which has already provided extensive input, particularly on interim uses for the site.

"If MOHCD is holding up badly needed affordable housing — even if it's for a better project longterm — we need to have some transparency about that," Preston said. "The Haight was saddled with an empty lot for years. It's The City's responsibility to promptly build the promised affordable housing as soon as possible, or if there will be a delay to improve the project, activate a temporary use on the site that neighbors support."

The change in plans also means the interim use of the site, which is currently serving as a city-sanctioned safe camping site for homeless residents, is now in doubt. The Homeless Youth Alliance, which runs the site, has agreed to vacate the camp by the end of June, allowing full access for construction needs like soil samples.

HYA did not hear about the design changes from The City but it is not pushing for a camp extension, which has occurred a few times previously due to uncertainty around emergency federal funds. Executive Director Mary Howe, however, is pushing to keep the shower and bathroom facilities on site for others to use and is open to operating another community-oriented camp there.

"The decision has already been made and it's been traumatic for the folks who live here," said Eliza Wheeler, HYA's policy director. "Each time it gets extended and the close date looms, it builds a lot of anxiety. People really achieved some stability here and connected to services and have gotten support and have made incredible leaps and bounds."

More than 80 people have stayed at the site since last June and just three have not yet made final plans as others have slowly moved out, Wheeler said. The City will have offered every guest a chance to stay at a shelter-in-place hotel, another city-sanctioned encampment, or congregate shelter.

MOHCD will "engage community stakeholders" to determine an interim use, Barnes said.

Dear Calvin and Tes,

CCDC and TNDC would like to share the recent changes to 730 Stanyan project with CCC/HANC as well as The Senior Working Group.

For the past year, the Development team of TNDC and CCDC has been designing a 6-story affordable housing project with 120 units to house families and transitional age youth (TAY) per the expectations of original RFQ issued by MOHCD in September 2019. During that time, we have met with many interested Community groups in District 5 and shared our design progress for your input throughout the process.

The City has recently informed the Development team of the availability of new funding sources, which has allowed the project to maximize the number of units allowed at the site. As a 100% affordable housing project, the project may take advantage of Planning Department's ministerial approvals along with State Density Bonus Program to increase the project height up to 8 stories.

The additional height would allow for 30+ additional units, allowing the City to maximize this scarce affordable housing resource. Our intention is to include more smaller units to support the affirmative marketing in an effort to house under-served seniors in District 5. We will spend the next couple of months re-designing the building to an 8-story height while addressing the key design concerns communicated to us by the community during our previous meetings. With your continued support and interest, we hope to reschedule our Community Meeting 5 early August to share the updated design studies for your feedback.

Thank you for your patience and support!

Save the date for April 29 at 6pm for next 730 Stanyan developer meeting. Bo said the registration invite should go out in the next few days.

There will be a design update with an opportunity to give feedback. They plan to do break out groups so people can give feedback on new design in a more intimate format.

Hi Ralph and Herb,

I am connecting you here to be able to collect the folding chairs that were salvaged from Stanyan Safe Sleep Site. I think they are in storage at 33 Gough but they could be elsewhere. Herb Featherstone oversees HSH Facilities and Maintenance and can help set the time and place to collect which ever chairs we were able to collect and store. Thank you, Ralph, for the donation and for the support for our unhoused neighbors.

Hey Jen,

I have been meaning to connect. Way back when the Haight/Stanyan "safe sleeping site was established, it was an honor to contribute folding chairs for each site.

I have been reading about the closure, and I wanted to know how I might best reclaim a few for future campaigns. It's been a while, and if they scattered, they scattered. But if they are still around, and it would be helpful for me to collect them, please let me know how to proceed.

Thanks,

Hi Pearci,

Thank you for reaching out.

Jen and I are happy to help with your homeless outreach work. We would like to hear more about what you have in mind. There may be opportunities for you all to partner with some of the current homeless providers. One organization that could be helpful to connect with is Booker T Washington. I would be more than happy to introduce you to their Director.

To your question about a festival for 2022. Here is a permit from the MTA: <https://www.sfmta.com/permits/special-event-street-closures>. I am not all that familiar with the permitting process, but can certainly try to connect you with the right people as you get closer to your event.

I am excited to share that we have a brand new corridor ambassador that I believe will begin in the next few weeks. We also have power washing for our Fillmore Merchant corridor that we fought to fund last year. That is set to also begin in March. I would love to learn more about what you have in mind around the Safety ambassador program.

To your question about school reopening. I wanted to provide some background since it is quite a complicated situation. We are extremely grateful for all of our teachers for all of their throughout the pandemic to provide distance learning, and for their work to feed and educate students in this unprecedented moment.

There have been a lot of conversations about having teachers return to their classrooms. We are eager to have teachers return back to the classroom as soon as possible as long as all of the necessary safety protocols are in place. One key part of that is getting educators and school staff vaccinated. There was a Resolution at the Board of Supervisors in December to prioritize teacher vaccinations, and the Supervisor was very supportive of that Reso. We were very pleased to learn just days ago from the Department of Public Health that educators and child care workers will be eligible for vaccination starting Feb 24 in San Francisco which will be a big step forward.

Here is the tentative agreement on safety protocols and vaccines that UESF released on February 7th. On February 12th, the CDC released their operational strategy for returning to in person instruction. You can read it here. Here is some additional information from the SFUSD here.

I am not sure where you all could plug in because it is all moving pretty quickly, but I think reaching out to the UESF would be a great start. Here is their email: Ask-uesf@uesf.org

We are also helping Mrs. Adrian Williams in the Fillmore who runs the Village Project to provide food for our seniors. We created a google form to help her find volunteers. She is in desperate need of some help. It would be great if Alpha Phi Alpha could help Mrs. Williams. Here is the link. Let us know if you could help and if you are able to share the google form.

Lastly, I wanted to share that we will be in the Fillmore on Sunday from 12- 4pm for a Fillmore Arts project to highlight the community and our small businesses. It would be great to see you there.

Thanks,
Preston

Hi Preston,

I have been asked by my chapter leadership to inquire about how we may be of assistance with regards to the reopening of schools in San Francisco.

One of our national programs - Go to High School, Go to College - charges us with aiding youth through the process of attending and succeeding in High School and College. We have an educational foundation that provides small grants for High School Seniors to attend college. We also have a mentoring program available for low income students.

We have seen the impassioned speeches from Mayor Breed and the calls to action from the SFUSD teachers. Is there any way the brothers of Alpha Phi Alpha can be of assistance with the reintegration process of in person schooling?

We have our February chapter meeting tomorrow evening, if there is anything please let me know so that I may share with the chapter tomorrow.

All the Best,
Pearci "PJ" Bastiany

Hi folks,

Thanks for passing along this info! I will defer to Kenn for folks not in CAMP and their needs.

For CAMP folks we are not in need of PPE, and we provide sleeping bags so would rather those go to folks outside CAMP first and if there are any left over we could take them as backups, same goes for snacks (we have lots of food). Warm gear like hats, gloves and scarves would be welcome.

The email for the homeless youth alliance that you provided bounced back. Do you have another email or a contact person I can reach out to? I haven't heard back yet from the Cole/Haight Allies. I'll send them another email today.

My chapter has finished a flyer for next Friday's outreach event. We are working with Downtown Streets Team, CARE Team, and United Council of Human Services. We hope the Cole/Haight Allies could allow us to make care package drops at their sleeping site as well.

Do you have a contact person for the SF Homeless Outreach Team? Who can I reach out to regarding the list of sleeping sites and hotels for unsheltered folks? Thanks for all your support.

Good Evening Supervisor Preston,

The Brothers of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Incorporated Gamma Chi Lambda (SF) chapter are planning a homeless outreach day for Friday February 5th. We want to target District 5 on this day.

We could use some support from your office with:

Outreach; Locating areas of unsheltered homeless in District 5, Notifying homeless focused nonprofits of an opportunity to collaborate with us. We plan on distributing items such as sleeping bags, gloves, scarves, PPE, snacks, etc.

Policy; Emergency Use of Space regulations. We hope our operation can scale up to accommodate 7 emergency shelter sites for Black and Brown homeless in San Francisco. We believe there are enough underutilized public parking and church parking lots in SF for 7 sites to be feasible. We estimate we can accommodate a minimum of 350 people across 7 sites with enough logistical support and help from corporate partners.

City Dept Collaborations; We have identified the SF Homeless Outreach Team, Dept of Homelessness and Supportive Housing, and Dept of Public Works to be ideal partners on our activation day. We do not have any connections to warrant an urgent response from these departments. We were hoping a word from you might help get the conversations started.

Thank you so much for all that you do to support the good people of District 5.

All the Best,
Pearci "PJ" Bastiany

Hey Jen,

These are the canopies that they provide staff and for charging stations and other common areas--we already have canopies from them for these areas. They do not provide canopies for individual resident spaces unfortunately. So far we are ok, even despite losing a few in the last windstorm currently everyone has one and we have one to spare in case someone's breaks in the upcoming weather. CVHA put out another call and I believe we'll be getting some more soon through them to have a couple extra on hand in case we lose some more.

Thank you for everything!

Eliza

Essential Services Update 01-26-2021

Dear Provider Partners,

Due to the current forecast related to low temperatures and rain, HSH will be activating our Cold and Wet Weather Response Protocols from Tuesday, January 26th – Thursday, January 28th .

HSH will take the following actions:

- SFHOT will increase wellness checks, offer available shelter including the Interfaith Winter Shelter Program and distribute appropriate resources.
- SF HOT Case management will conduct wellness checks on clients in stabilization rooms and conduct outreach including distribution of appropriate resources in surrounding areas.
- HSH will share appropriate messaging through social media and with established notification lists that include: HSH Staff, non-profit providers, Local Homelessness Coordinating Board (LHCB), community members, and elected official
- Safe Sleep Intakes will continue during wet weather. Canopies will be utilized to shelter staff and guests at intake. Canopies will also shelter charging stations, and tarps will be placed over and under tents. In some cases, pallets or platforms will raise tents up to avoid groundwater. Sandbags will help direct water away from tent spaces and towards storm drains. Rain ponchos and mylar blankets will be provided, if needed. For more information on Safe Sleep, call: 415-558-2738
- We request that our providers take the following steps:
 - Inform clients of the wet and/or cold conditions and encourage them to remain inside as much as possible
 - Perform wellness checks on vulnerable on-site clients

For additional information during this wet/cold weather please visit our website at: <https://hsh.sfgov.org/services/shelter/emergencysshelter/> , sf72.org, and follow us on Twitter @SF_HSH.

If you have further questions or concerns, please reach out to thanks for reaching out, and I hope this transition goes well for you. I didnt see jenbo's email on that, but Im sure we can use her phone to reach her.

Best of luck crossing over to the Red Bridge, and in all future ventures.

sincerely,

Kenn

Hey Mary and Kenn!

So I wanted to connect you to Jenbo here, who you may know from Dean's campaigns and DSA. She just joined the D5 City Hall Staff, is a D5 resident, and an all-around excellent person. Jenbo will be the new contact for all things Haight and homelessness. This is because my last day at the office is September 10th! Don't worry, don't think of this as me "leaving" but more like us expanding! I'll be starting a lefty political strategy firm with Avery called Red Bridge which will launch in September.

I'm still of course always a phone call away, and I'll be here for the transition over the next few weeks, but wanted you to have Jenbo's email, and here is her phone number: (408) 338-7425, shoot her a text.

We'll both see you on the 730 Stanyan call this evening!

Thanks for trying. Looping in our district 5 supervisor and program manager at the CCC so they're in the loop.

We have no wifi here now for the last 5 weeks of being open, when we need to be in near constant communication with the CCC and HSH about transfers for our residents. We will attempt to use Whole Foods wifi to operate our office.

Hi Eliza,

After doing everything I can possibly do, I was able to get some answers from SFMTA.

Unfortunately they cannot restore power to the cabinet, and to make matters even worse, our equipment and fiber was already removed.

Derrick went there this morning and confirmed everything is gone.

The fiber team could not give me an ETA how soon they can bring in fiber to the other cabinet.

There is nothing else we can do at this point.

No, there was a lot of "that's not our problem" and they wouldn't tell me much. They said the box was "decommissioned."

This has never happened before so please bear with us.

Hi all,

MTA and DPW were just here and disconnected the power box where our wifi originates from. When I asked them about our wifi they said they weren't told it was connected to that source and to contact you.

Let me know if there is any remedy for this. We are in the process of closing down and organizing transfers of 30+ people that requires constant communication with the city and access to the internet. We are trying to connect to whole foods for today but any help would be much appreciated.

Thanks,

Eliza

Good afternoon all,

I am checking in with my colleagues at the COVID-19 Command Center and DPH to provide any additional guidance. Will share more information shortly or would recommend following up with DPH to understand what resources in the Homelessness Response System are available for referrals through the public health system and how to make these referrals.

Hi Dylan,

I hope your new year is off to a great start. I just wanted to reach out on behalf of a homeless patient in need of shelter (her case manager, Amy Gee, is CC'd here). Do you know of any options through HSH that she might be eligible for?

Thank you in advance for your help.

All the best,
Avery

Hi Amy,

Thank you for reaching out. You can help your patient get on the waitlist for a tent spot at the safe sleeping village at 730 Stanyan by contacting Mary Howe at Homeless Youth Alliance. Mary's email is mary@homelessyouthalliance.org. I also reached out to Supervisor Dean Preston's office, and Avery is happy to connect you with Dylan Schneider at the City's Department of Homelessness and Supportive Housing to see if there are other options. Dylan's email is dylan.schneider@sfgov.org. I have cc'ed Mary and Avery on this email too.

Thanks again for reaching out and for advocating for your patient.

Be well,

Hello,

I have a homeless patient in the hospital, who continues to be readmitted every few weeks due to complex lower extremity wound care needs. She is independent with her wound care, but unfortunately her lack of shelter continues to exacerbate her medical condition. I was wondering if you could possibly assist with providing some type of shelter for this patient. It would greatly benefit her wound healing. The Doctor that I work with saw some white tents near UCSF Parnassus and thought this would be the perfect place for this patient to stay (even if temporary).

Please let me know what I can do or if you have any ideas on how to obtain shelter for this patient.
