Dear Nicholas Szokoly:

You appealed from the action of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on your Freedom of Information Act request for access to records concerning the deaths of Cynthia Ann Day and Nathaniel Edward Holmes. I note that your appeal concerns the FBI's withholding of responsive records pursuant to Exemption 7(A).

After carefully considering your appeal, and as a result of discussions between FBI personnel and this Office, I am remanding your request to the FBI for further processing. Although the FBI invoked Exemption 7(A) of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(7)(A), at the time your initial request was processed, that exemption is no longer applicable to withhold the records in full. Consequently, the FBI will process and send all releasable records to you directly, subject to any applicable fees. You may appeal any future adverse determination made by the FBI. If you would like to inquire about the status of this remanded request or to receive an estimated date of completion, please contact the FBI directly at 540-868-1535.

If you have any questions regarding the action this Office has taken on your appeal, you may contact this Office's FOIA Public Liaison for your appeal. Specifically, you may speak with the undersigned agency official by calling (202) 514-3642.

If you are dissatisfied with my action on your appeal, the FOIA permits you to file a lawsuit in federal district court in accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(4)(B).

Sincerely,
