PART	#	ENDNOTE
Filer's Information	1	This is a volunteer advisory committee convened biannually by the Legal Adviser's Office of the U.S. State Department. We are classified as "Special Government Employees". The position lapsed at some point last year (date uncertain) and we have been invited to re-apply.
Filer's Information	2	I am one of several academics who serve as Senior Fellows with the Lieber Institute.

PART	#	ENDNOTE
1.	2	I serve on the board of this human rights organization that represents survivors of torture seeking legal redress; I once served as staff attorney and acting executive director with CJA.
1.	3	This is an organization that works to end extreme poverty in fragile areas that are vulnerable to violent extremist organizations.
1.	4	This is an organization that represents human rights victims in their efforts to achieve justice in U.S., foreign, and international courts.
1.	5	This organization trains war crimes investigators.
1.	6	I assisted a research team from U.C. Berkeley on a grant proposal, ultimately successful, to the U.S. Commission on International Religious Freedom to study sectarian violence in India. I met with the principal investigator several times and then reviewed and commented upon drafts and the final paper.
1.	7	I was retained by the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum to help conceptualize, and launch, the Ferencz Institute for International Justice. This involved several conferences and simulations, which I helped organize, and publications, to which I contributed.
1.	8	I was originally retained by the Clooney Foundation in 2017-2019 to help conceptualize and launch their Trial Watch global trial monitoring program. This involved designing the program, identifying potential implementing partners, writing the trial monitoring protocol and curriculum, designing an online course and monitoring phone app, etc. I then served as an expert to monitor an early trial in Zambia. I continue to advise the Foundation informally (unpaid) and serve as an expert for additional monitoring missions and human rights litigation.
1.	9	I am a member of IFIT's Law & Peace Practice Group. We are academics and advocates who advise policymakers and civil society actors on transitional justice options/mechanisms.
1.	10	This blog, hosted by New York University School of Law, is devoted to publishing content at the intersection of human rights and national security. My role as Executive Editor (unpaid) is to help identify important voices to feature, to vet and edit submissions, to organize online symposia, to advise the editorial board, and to otherwise promote the blog.
1.	11	Over the years, I have been invited by the American Society of International Law to contribute to several ongoing projects, such as a judicial benchbook on international law. Within the reporting period, I co-chaired a non-partisan Task Force on the relationship between the United States and the International Criminal Court. The Task Force produced a major report, launched in April 2021.
1.	12	I was retained to serve as an expert witness in a case involving an attempted extrajudicial killing brought on behalf of Dr. Saad Aljabri. I was asked to opine upon the cognizability of this cause of action under international law.

PART	#	ENDNOTE
1.	14	Editorial fees to assist with the publication of Amal Clooney & Philippa Webb, "The Right to a Fair Trial in International Law" (Oxford University Press 2021).
1.	15	This volunteer committee assists our local Human Rights Watch office with fundraising and human rights outreach within the local community, although we are not involved in the substance of their work.
2.	3	This was an honorarium from the American Society of International Law for co-chairing a Task Force on the U.S.-International Criminal Court relationship in 2020-21.
2.	4	I served as an expert witness in a human rights case in U.S. federal court.
2.	5	This involved helping to edit a hornbook on fair trial rights under international human rights law: Amal Clooney & Philippa Webb, "The Right to a Fair Trial in International Law" (Oxford University Press 2021).
2.	6	This is an annual royalty payment for a law casebook on International Criminal Law & Its Enforcement published by Foundation Press. The royalties are usually within this range, although the exact amount remains uncertain.
2.	7	I guest lectured and participated in a simulation with professionals enrolled in George Washington University's Senior Management Course in National Security Leadership.
2.	8	I contributed guidance and advice to a report on sectarian violence in India (e.g., helping to conceptualize the project, reviewing and commenting upon drafts, meeting with the lead authors and researchers, etc.).
2.	9	This is a recently published book that has not yet begun to receive royalties.
2.	10	This is a recently published book that has not yet begun to receive royalties.
2.	14	This organization provides advice about transitional justice options; I was retained to assist with projects related to Colombia, Venezuela, and Nigeria. Once these are complete, I will receive the full honorarium.
4.	2	I was retained as a consultant with the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum to assist with their atrocities prevention and response initiative, the Ferencz Institute for International Justice. This included organizing a survivors' forum and contributing to a handbook on international justice mechanisms.
4.	3	I served as an expert witness in a human rights case filed on behalf of Mr. Al Jabri by Jenner & Block in U.S. federal court.

Summary of Contents

1. Filer's Positions Held Outside United States Government

Part 1 discloses positions that the filer held at any time during the reporting period (excluding positions with the United States Government). Positions are reportable even if the filer did not receive compensation.

This section does not include the following: (1) positions with religious, social, fraternal, or political organizations; (2) positions solely of an honorary nature; (3) positions held as part of the filer's official duties with the United States Government; (4) mere membership in an organization; and (5) passive investment interests as a limited partner or non-managing member of a limited liability company.

2. Filer's Employment Assets & Income and Retirement Accounts

Part 2 discloses the following:

- Sources of earned and other non-investment income of the filer totaling more than $200 during the reporting period (e.g., salary, fees, partnership share, honoraria, scholarships, and prizes)
- Assets related to the filer's business, employment, or other income-generating activities (1) that ended the reporting period with a value greater than $1,000 or (2) from which more than $200 in income was received during the reporting period (e.g., equity in business or partnership, stock options, retirement plans/accounts and their underlying holdings as appropriate, deferred compensation, and intellectual property, such as book deals and patents)

This section does not include assets or income from United States Government employment or assets that were acquired separately from the filer's business, employment, or other income-generating activities (e.g., assets purchased through a brokerage account). Note: The type of income is not required if the amount of income is $0 - $200 or if the asset qualifies as an excepted investment fund (EIF).

3. Filer's Employment Agreements and Arrangements

Part 3 discloses agreements or arrangements that the filer had during the reporting period with an employer or former employer (except the United States Government), such as the following:

- Future employment
- Leave of absence
- Continuing payments from an employer, including severance and payments not yet received for previous work (excluding ordinary salary from a current employer)
- Continuing participation in an employee welfare, retirement, or other benefit plan, such as pensions or a deferred compensation plan
- Retention or disposition of employer-awarded equity, sharing in profits or carried interests (e.g., vested and unvested stock options, restricted stock, future share of a company's profits, etc.)

4. Filer's Sources of Compensation Exceeding $5,000 in a Year

Part 4 discloses sources (except the United States Government) that paid more than $5,000 in a calendar year for the filer's services during any year of the reporting period.

The filer discloses payments both from employers and from any clients to whom the filer personally provided services. The filer discloses a source even if the source made its payment to the filer's employer and not to the filer. The filer does not disclose a client's payment to the filer's employer if the filer did not provide the services for which the client is paying.

5. Spouse's Employment Assets & Income and Retirement Accounts

Part 5 discloses the following:

- Sources of earned income (excluding honoraria) for the filer's spouse totaling more than $1,000 during the reporting period (e.g., salary, consulting fees, and partnership share)
- Sources of honoraria for the filer's spouse greater than $200 during the reporting period
- Assets related to the filer's spouse's employment, business activities, other income-generating activities (1) that ended the reporting period with a value greater than $1,000 or (2) from which more than $200 in income was received during the reporting period (e.g., equity in business or partnership, stock options, retirement plans/accounts and their underlying holdings as appropriate, deferred compensation, and intellectual property, such as book deals and patents)

This section does not include assets or income from United States Government employment or assets that were acquired separately from the filer's spouse's business, employment, or other income-generating activities (e.g., assets purchased through a brokerage account). Note: The type of income is not required if the amount of income is $0 - $200 or if the asset qualifies as an excepted investment fund (EIF). Amounts of income are not required for a spouse's earned income (excluding honoraria).

6. Other Assets and Income

Part 6 discloses each asset, not already reported, (1) that ended the reporting period with a value greater than $1,000 or (2) from which more than $200 in investment income was received during the reporting period. For purposes of the value and income thresholds, the filer aggregates the filer's interests with those of the filer's spouse and dependent children.

This section does not include the following types of assets: (1) a personal residence (unless it was rented out during the reporting period); (2) income or retirement benefits associated with United States Government employment (e.g., Thrift Savings Plan); and (3) cash accounts (e.g., checking, savings, money market accounts) at a single financial institution with a value of $5,000 or less (unless more than $200 in income was received). Additional exceptions apply. Note: The type of income is not required if the amount of income is $0 - $200 or if the asset qualifies as an excepted investment fund (EIF).

7. Transactions

Part 7 discloses purchases, sales, or exchanges of real property or securities in excess of $1,000 made on behalf of the filer, the filer's spouse or dependent child during the reporting period.

This section does not include transactions that concern the following: (1) a personal residence, unless rented out; (2) cash accounts (e.g., checking, savings, CDs, money market accounts) and money market mutual funds; (3) Treasury bills, bonds, and notes; and (4) holdings within a federal Thrift Savings Plan account. Additional exceptions apply.

8. Liabilities

Part 8 discloses liabilities over $10,000 that the filer, the filer's spouse or dependent child owed at any time during the reporting period.

This section does not include the following types of liabilities: (1) mortgages on a personal residence, unless rented out (limitations apply for PAS filers); (2) loans secured by a personal motor vehicle, household furniture, or appliances, unless the loan exceeds the item's purchase price; and (3) revolving charge accounts, such as credit card balances, if the outstanding liability did not exceed $10,000 at the end of the reporting period. Additional exceptions apply.

9. Gifts and Travel Reimbursements

This section discloses:

- Gifts totaling more than $415 that the filer, the filer's spouse, and dependent children received from any one source during the reporting period.
- Travel reimbursements totaling more than $415 that the filer, the filer's spouse, and dependent children received from any one source during the reporting period.

For purposes of this section, the filer need not aggregate any gift or travel reimbursement with a value of $166 or less. Regardless of the value, this section does not include the following items: (1) anything received from relatives; (2) anything received from the United States Government or from the District of Columbia, state, or local governments; (3) bequests and other forms of inheritance; (4) gifts and travel reimbursements given to the filer's agency in connection with the filer's official travel; (5) gifts of hospitality (food, lodging, entertainment) at the donor's residence or personal premises; and (6) anything received by the filer's spouse or dependent children totally independent of their relationship to the filer. Additional exceptions apply.

Privacy Act Statement

Title I of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, as amended (the Act), 5 U.S.C. app. § 101 et seq., as amended by the Stop Trading on Congressional Knowledge Act of 2012 (Pub.
