INDICTMENT

The Grand Jury charges that:

COUNT 1

On or about July 1, 2016, through March 15, 2018, within the District of Alaska, the defendant, LOUIS HOLGER EKLUND, a/k/a Louis Holger, with the intent to harass or intimidate Victim 1, a person employed by the State of Alaska, used the mail, any interactive computer service or electronic communication service or electronic communication system of interstate commerce, or any other facility of interstate or foreign commerce, to engage in a course of conduct that caused, attempted to cause, or would be reasonably expected to cause substantial emotional distress to Victim 1, an immediate family member of Victim 1, or a spouse or intimate partner of Victim 1. The course of conduct included, but was not limited to:

1. Repeatedly emailing and calling Victim 1;
2. Leaving a voicemail threatening to commit a “public suicide” in Victim 1’s office (“I will walk into your office and I’ll blow my head off”) so that “people will be held accountable;”
3. Leaving a voicemail stating “your gig is up, ma’am” and “it’s time for you to leave Earth. You got that? You are hereby ordered to leave Earth. Depart! If you can’t have a change of heart, you have to depart;”
4. Leaving a voicemail stating that Victim 1 would depart Earth on a specific date unless she files an “affidavit of apology and individual self-forgiveness;” and
5. Falsely representing himself to be a federal judge or other government official.

All of which is in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2261A(a)(2)(B).

COUNT 2

On or about August 1, 2016, through February 28, 2018, within the District of Alaska, the defendant, LOUIS HOLGER EKLUND, a/k/a Louis Holger, with the intent to harass or intimidate Victim 2, a person employed by the Native Village of Kotzebue, used the mail, any interactive computer service or electronic communication service or electronic communication system of interstate commerce, or any other facility of interstate or foreign commerce to engage in a course of conduct that caused, attempted to cause, or would be reasonably expected to cause substantial emotional distress to Victim 2, an immediate family member of Victim 2, or a spouse or intimate partners of Victim 2.

The course of conduct included, but was not limited to:

1. Repeatedly calling Victim 2's cellular and office phones;
2. Approaching Victim 2 in public;
3. Violating a Stalking or Sexual Assault Protective Order dated October 6, 2016, issued by the District Court for the State of Alaska, Second Judicial District at Kotzebue, in Case No. 2KB-16-00150CI; and
4. Falsely representing himself to be a federal judge or other government official.

All of which is in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 2261A(a)(2)(B) and 2261(b)(6).
