SA 4631. Mr. ROMNEY (for himself and Mrs. SHAHEEN) submitted an amendment intended to be proposed to amendment SA 3867 submitted by Mr. REED and intended to be proposed to the bill H.R. 4350, to authorize appropriations for fiscal year 2022 for military activities of the Department of Defense, for military construction, and for defense activities of the Department of Energy, to prescribe military personnel strengths for such fiscal year, and for other purposes; which was ordered to lie on the table; as follows:

At the end of section X, add the following:

Subtitle H—National Emergencies Act

SEC. 1071. SHORT TITLE.

This subtitle may be cited as the “Assuring that Robust, Thornough, and Informed Congressional Leadership is Exercised in Declaring National Emergencies Act” or the “ARTICLE ONE Act”.

SEC. 1072. REQUIREMENTS RELATING TO DECLARATIONS OF NATIONAL EMERGENCIES.

Section 201 of the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1621) is amended to read as follows:

“SEC. 201. DECLARATIONS AND RENEWALS OF NATIONAL EMERGENCIES.

“(a) AUTHORITY TO DECLARE NATIONAL EMERGENCIES.—With respect to Acts of Congress authorizing the President, during the period of a national emergency, of any special or extraordinary power, the President is authorized to declare such a national emergency by proclamation. Such proclamation shall immediately be transmitted to Congress and published in the Federal Register.

“(b) Suspension of Provisions of Laws To Be Exercised.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—No powers or authorities made available by statute for use during the period of a national emergency shall be exercised unless and until the President specifies the provisions of law under which the President proposes that the President or other officers will act.

“(A) a declaration declaring a national emergency under subsection (a); or

“(B) one or more Executive orders relating to the emergency published in the Federal Register and transmitted to Congress.

“(2) LIMITATIONS.—The President may—

“(A) specify under paragraph (1) only provisions of law that make available powers and authorities that relate to the nature of the national emergency; and

“(B) exercise such powers and authorities only to address the national emergency.

“(c) TEMPORARY EFFECTIVE PERIODS.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—A declaration of a national emergency under subsection (a) may last for 30 days from the issuance of the proclamation (not counting the day on which the proclamation was issued) and shall terminate when that 30-day period expires, unless there is enacted into law a joint resolution of approval under section 203 approving—

“(A) the proclamation of the national emergency or the Executive order; and

“(B) the exercise of the power or authority specified by the President in such proclamation or Executive order.

“(2) EXCEPTION IF CONGRESS IS UNABLE TO CONVENE.—If Congress is physically unable to lawfully meet, a declaration of a national emergency under subsection (a) terminates on the date the proclamation was issued and the President may not, during the remainder of the term of office of that President, declare a subsequent national emergency under subsection (a) with respect to the same circumstances.

“(3) EXERCISE OF AUTHORITIES.—If a joint resolution of approval is not enacted under section 203 with respect to a national emergency before the expiration of the 30-day period described in subsection (2), the President may not, during the remainder of the term of office of that President, declare a subsequent national emergency under subsection (a) with respect to the same circumstances.

“(d) RENEWAL OF NATIONAL EMERGENCIES.—A national emergency declared by the President under subsection (a) or previously renewed under this subsection, and not already terminated pursuant to subsection (c) or section 202(a), shall terminate on a date that is not later than one year after the President transmits to Congress a declaration terminating the emergency or previous renewal of the emergency.

“(e) EFFECT OF FUTURE LAWS.—No law enacted after the date of the enactment of this Act shall supercede this title unless it does so in specific terms, referring to this title, and declaring that the new law supercedes the provisions of this title.”.

SEC. 1073. TERMINATION OF NATIONAL EMERGENCIES.

Section 202 of the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1622) is amended to read as follows:

“SEC. 202. TERMINATION OF NATIONAL EMERGENCIES.

“(a) IN GENERAL.—Any national emergency declared by the President under section 201(a) shall terminate on the earliest of—

“(1) the date provided for in section 201(c); or

“(2) the date on which Congress, by statute, terminates the emergency;

“(3) the date on which the President issues a proclamation terminating the emergency; or “(4) the date provided for in section 201(c).

"(b) 5-YEAR LIMITATION.—Under no circumstances may a national emergency declared by the President under section 201(a) continue on or after the date that is 5 years after the date on which the national emergency was first declared.

"(c) EFFECT OF TERMINATION.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—Effective on the date of the termination of a national emergency under subsection (a) or (b)— AA) except as provided by paragraph (2), any powers or authorities exercised by reason of the emergency shall cease to be exercised;

BB) any amounts reprogrammed or transferred under any provision of law with respect to such emergency that remain unobligated on that date shall be returned and made available for the purpose for which such amounts were appropriated; and

CC) any contracts entered into under any provision of law relating to the emergency shall be terminated.

"(2) SAVINGS PROVISION.—The termination of a national emergency shall not moot—

AA) any legal action taken or pending legal proceeding not finally concluded or determined on the date of the termination under section 201(a) or (b); or

BB) any legal action or legal proceeding based on any act committed prior to that date.

SEC. 1074. REVIEW BY CONGRESS OF NATIONAL EMERGENCIES.

Title II of the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1221 et seq.) is amended by adding at the end the following:

"SEC. 202. REVIEW BY CONGRESS OF NATIONAL EMERGENCIES.

"(a) JOINT RESOLUTIONS OF APPROVAL AND TERMINATION.—

"(1) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

AA) JOINT RESOLUTION OF APPROVAL.—The term 'joint resolution of approval' means a joint resolution (including any amendment thereto that remains unincorporated) that is subject to the following provisions after its resolving clause:

AA) a provision approving—

BB) a proclamation of a national emergency made under section 201(a);

CC) an Executive order issued under section 201(b)(1)(A) or (B); or DD) an Executive order issued under section 201(e).

AA) a provision approving a list of all or a portion of the provisions of law specified by the President under section 201(b) in the proclamation or order that is the subject of the joint resolution.

BB) JOINT RESOLUTION OF TERMINATION.—

The term 'joint resolution of termination' means a joint resolution that contains only the following provisions after its resolving clause:

AA) a national emergency declared under section 201(a); or BB) the exercise of any powers or authorities pursuant to that emergency.

"(2) PROCEDURES FOR CONSIDERATION OF JOINT RESOLUTIONS OF APPROVAL.—

AA) INTRODUCTION.—After the President transmits to Congress a proclamation declaring a national emergency under section 201(a), or an Executive order renewing an emergency under section 201(e) or specifying emergency powers or authorities under section 201(b)(1)(A), a joint resolution of approval or a joint resolution of termination may be introduced in either House of Congress by any member of that House.

BB) REQUESTS TO CONVENE CONGRESS DURING RECESS.—If, when the President transmits to Congress a proclamation declaring a national emergency under section 201(a), or an Executive order renewing an emergency under section 201(e) or specifying emergency powers or authorities under section 201(b)(1)(A), a Congress has adjourned sine die, or has adjourned for any period in excess of 3 calendar days, the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President pro tempore of the Senate, if they deem it advisable (or if petitioned by at least one-third of the membership of their respective Houses) shall jointly request the President to convene Congress in order that it may consider the proclamation or Executive order and take appropriate action pursuant to this section.

CC) CONSIDERATION OF JOINT RESOLUTION OF APPROVAL OR A JOINT RESOLUTION OF TERMINATION.—

A joint resolution of approval or a joint resolution of termination shall be referred in each House of Congress to the committee or committees having jurisdiction over the emergency authorities invoked pursuant to the national emergency that is the subject of the joint resolution.

"(D) CONSIDERATION IN SENATE.—In the Senate, the following rules shall apply:

"(i) REPORTING AND DISCHARGE.—If the committee referred to a joint resolution of approval or a joint resolution of termination has been referred has not reported it at the end of 10 calendar days after its introduction, that committee shall be automatically discharged from further consideration of the resolution and it shall be placed on the calendar.

"(ii) PROCEEDING TO CONSIDERATION.—Notwithstanding Rule XIX of the Standing Rules of the Senate, when the committee to which a joint resolution of approval or a joint resolution of termination has been referred has reported the resolution, or when that committee is discharged under clause (i) from further consideration of the resolution, or at any time after the resolution has been referred to a committee (even though a previous motion to the same effect has been disagreed to) for a motion to proceed to the consideration of the joint resolution to be made, and all points of order against the joint resolution (and against consideration of the joint resolution) are resolved. The motion shall be 4 hours of debate divided equally between those favoring and those opposing the joint resolution of approval or the joint resolution of termination. The motion is not subject to amendment, or to a motion to postpone, or to a motion to proceed to the consideration of other business.

"(iii) FLOOR CONSIDERATION.—A joint resolution of approval or a joint resolution of termination shall be subject to 10 hours of debate, to be divided evenly between the proponents and opponents of the resolution.

"(iv) AMENDMENTS.—

AA) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in subparagraph (D)(ii), an amendment to a joint resolution of approval or a joint resolution of termination shall be in order with respect to a joint resolution of approval or a joint resolution of termination.

BB) AMENDMENTS TO STRIKE OR ADD SPECIFIED PORTIONS OF THE LAW.—An amendment (I) shall not apply with respect to any amendment to a joint resolution of approval to strike from or add to the list required by paragraph (B)(ii); and CCI) in the case of joint resolutions of approval, and such other rules as such procedures apply to a joint resolution of approval or a joint resolution of termination.

"(v) MOTION TO RECONSIDER FINAL VOTE.—A motion to reconsider a vote on final passage of a joint resolution of approval or of a joint resolution of termination shall not be in order.

"(vi) APPEALS.—Points of order, including questions of relevancy, and appeals from the decision of the Presiding Officer, shall be decided without debate and shall proceed in the following order:

AA) CONSIDERATION IN HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.—In the House of Representatives, if any committee to which a joint resolution of approval or a joint resolution of termination has been referred has not reported it to the House at the end of 10 calendar days after its introduction, such committee shall be further considered of the joint resolution, and it shall be placed on the appropriate calendar.

SEC. 1075. REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.

Section 401 of the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1641) is amended by adding at the end the following:

"REPORT ON EMERGENCIES.—The President shall transmit to Congress, with any proclamation declaring a national emergency under section 201(a), or Executive order renewing an emergency under section 201(e) or specifying emergency powers or authorities under section 201(b)(1)(A), a report, in writing, that includes the following:

"(1) A description of the circumstances necessitating the declaration of the national emergency, the renewal of such an emergency, or the use of a new emergency authority, as such procedures apply to a joint resolution of approval or a joint resolution of termination.

"(2) The estimated duration of the national emergency.

"(3) A summary of the actions the President or other officers intend to take, including any reprogramming or transfer of funds, and the statutory authorities the President and such officers expect to rely on in addressing the national emergency.

“(d) In the case of a renewal of a national emergency declared pursuant to section 201(a), the President shall transmit to Congress a final report describing—

(1) the actions that the President or other officers have taken and authorities the President and such officers relied on in addressing the emergency,

(2) the powers and authorities the President and such officers relied on to take such actions,

(3) the dates when the President or such other officers made any such report to Congress under such provision, if any, of title I, or if such report was made under any other section of title I, the provisions of such title or any other section of title I which would be unaffected by the renewal of an emergency under section 201(a) of the National Emergencies Act, and the statutory authorities the President or such other officers have relied on in addressing the emergency,

“(e) PROVISION OF INFORMATION TO CONGRESS.—The President shall provide to Congress other such information as Congress may request in connection with any national emergency in effect under title II,

“(f) PERIODIC REPORTS ON STATUS OF EMERGENCY.—Not later than 90 days after the termination under section 202 of a national emergency declared under section 201(a), the President shall transmit to Congress a final report describing—

(1) the actions that the President or other officers have taken and authorities the President and such officers relied on in addressing the emergency,

(2) the powers and authorities the President and such officers relied on to take such actions,

“(g) FINAL REPORT ON ACTIVITIES DURING NATIONAL EMERGENCY.—Not later than 90 days after the termination under section 202 of a national emergency declared under section 201(a), the President shall transmit to Congress a final report describing—

(1) the actions that the President or other officers have taken and authorities the President and such officers relied on in addressing the emergency,

(2) the powers and authorities the President and such officers relied on to take such actions,

(3) the dates when the President or such other officers made any such report to Congress under such provision, if any, of title I, or if such report was made under any other section of title I, the provisions of such title or any other section of title I which would be unaffected by the renewal of an emergency under section 201(a) of the National Emergencies Act, and the statutory authorities the President or such other officers have relied on in addressing the emergency.

SEC. 1076. CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.

(a) NATIONAL EMERGENCIES ACT.—This III of the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1631) is repealed.

(b) INTERNATIONAL EMERGENCY ECONOMIC POWERS ACT.—Section 207 of the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. 1706) is amended—

(1) in subsection (b), by striking “if the national emergency” and all that follows through “under this section.” and inserting the following: “if—

“(1) the national emergency is terminated pursuant to section 202a(2) of the National Emergencies Act; or

“(2) a joint resolution of approval is not enacted as required by section 203 of that Act to approve—

“(A) the national emergency; or

“(B) the exercise of such authorities;”;

and

(2) in subsection (c)(1), by striking “paragraphs (A), (B), and (C) of section 202a(2)” and inserting “section 202a(2)(3)”.

SEC. 1077. APPLICABILITY.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in subsection (b), this subtitle and the amendment by this subtitle shall take effect on the date of the enactment of this Act.

(b) APPLICATION TO NATIONAL EMERGENCIES PREVIOUSLY DECLARED.—A national emergency declared under section 201 of the National Emergencies Act before the date of the enactment of this Act shall be unaffected by the amendments made by this subtitle, except that such an emergency shall terminate on the date that is not later than one year after such date of enactment unless the emergency is renewed under subsection (e) of such section 201, as amended by section 1072 of this Act.
