Corin has admitted to "being paid to produce a report on salmon farming". Don't know who, and have never seen any report. Me thinks whoever is bankrolling him, likely wild angling group or individual, has generally liked his online attack approach and just continued to sponsor his sleuthing for an indefinite period, or until the trail is cold.

Yes, Corin has refused to meet with Mowi or visit our operations. I will send the proof of that.

Yup. Betfair. An industry that leads in causing suicides. Lovely.

Perfect thanks [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] briefly mentioned that Corin is sponsored by some of these environmental bodies. [REDACTED] mentioned Corin has admitted this – and it sounds like it is a paid agreement? Would be useful to point out if he is a paid up advocate for certain groups.

Can we also say that Corin has refused to meet with [REDACTED]?

It also appears that he was involved with Betfair the online gambling company and spread betting firms and this is now his latest hobby!
