Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

While the events that took place at the Capitol on January 6, 2021, are abhorrent and a direct attack against democracy, it is also evident due to the circumstances of 2020 that law enforcement is not always capable of discerning civil disobedience. A constitutionally protected act, from rioting and other illegal activity. This bill language was drafted before the Capitol siege and targeted civil rights protesters, many of whom were eventually proven innocent.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Melissa Goetia

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
[YOUR NAME]

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Graciela

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder and looting which do not infringe on the due process protections of protesters.

I was very concerned with the vote to push this bill through the Criminal Justice Subcommittee on 01/27/21, despite the overwhelming majority of commenters expressing opposition. It is as though our representatives are not representing the voice of their constituents, rather, attempting to fulfill their personal political agendas instead.

This bill will not stop assemblies, but it will fill more prisons; crowded prisons already at the mercy of covid-19, killing inmates and officers. Creating more felons is not the way to a better Florida.

In Florida, we had historic marches and businesses were not burned. In fact, many business owners supported the actions either financially, through goods and services, or by joining themselves, proud to make history. Protests brought communities across Florida together all summer, however, a bill like this will create an extra layer of fear and division.

It was shocking to see comments dismissed regarding the unclear 'mob intimidation' language, as well as the possibility that these restrictions would be used mainly to target communities of color protesting against police killings.

The response was that this is not the 'intent' of the bill, and that there are always some that can abuse any law; "bad apples." This is concerning to me as a citizen because our lawmakers should care if even one American's freedom is jeopardized. A law that can be manipulated to target innocent people is an unjust law, and that concern should not be brushed off. Giving bad apples more tools to exercise bad judgement is unnecessary.

The fact is, this bill language was drafted prior to the Capitol siege and targeted towards civil rights protesters, many of whom were proven innocent. We cannot ignore the hundreds of citizens, including the Tallahassee 19 and the over 70 protesters in Jacksonville, who were falsely targeted and arrested last summer. The police were wrong in their assessment, so it is very valid for people to not want more reasons for law enforcement to be 'on alert'.

As a concerned Floridian, I am asking you to not allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision

which could jeopardize the freedom of honest Americans. Please VOTE NO on HB1/SB484.

Thank you

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Angelina Kholodny

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Washington resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

While the events that took place at the Capitol on January 6, 2021, are abhorrent and a direct attack against democracy, it is also evident due to the circumstances of 2020 that law enforcement is not always capable of discerning civil disobedience. A constitutionally protected act, from rioting and other illegal activity. This bill language was drafted before the Capitol siege and targeted civil rights protesters, many of whom were eventually proven innocent.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Emily S

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Tiana

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder and looting which do not infringe on the due process protections of protesters.

I was very concerned with the vote to push this bill through the Criminal Justice Subcommittee on 01/27/21, despite the overwhelming majority of commenters expressing opposition. It is as though our representatives are not representing the voice of their constituents, rather, attempting to fulfill their personal political agendas instead.

This bill will not stop assemblies, but it will fill more prisons; crowded prisons already at the mercy of covid-19, killing inmates and officers. Creating more felons is not the way to a better Florida.

In Florida, we had historic marches and businesses were not burned. In fact, many business owners supported the actions either financially, through goods and services, or by joining themselves, proud to make history. Protests brought communities across Florida together all summer, however, a bill like this will create an extra layer of fear and division.

It was shocking to see comments dismissed regarding the unclear 'mob intimidation' language, as well as the possibility that these restrictions would be used mainly to target communities of color protesting against police killings.

The response was that this is not the 'intent' of the bill, and that there are always some that can abuse any law; "bad apples." This is concerning to me as a citizen because our lawmakers should care if even one American's freedom is jeopardized. A law that can be manipulated to target innocent people is an unjust law, and that concern should not be brushed off. Giving bad apples more tools to exercise bad judgement is unnecessary.

The fact is, this bill language was drafted prior to the Capitol siege and targeted towards civil rights protesters, many of whom were proven innocent. We cannot ignore the hundreds of citizens, including the Tallahassee 19 and the over 70 protesters in Jacksonville, who were falsely targeted and arrested last summer. The police were wrong in their assessment, so it is very valid for people to not want more reasons for law enforcement to be 'on alert'.

As a concerned Floridian, I am asking you to not allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision

which could jeopardize the freedom of honest Americans. Please VOTE NO on HB1/SB484.

Thank you
Jessica Machin

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Janese Marbury

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder and looting which do not infringe on the due process protections of protesters.

I was very concerned with the vote to push this bill through the Criminal Justice Subcommittee on 01/27/21, despite the overwhelming majority of commenters expressing opposition. It is as though our representatives are not representing the voice of their constituents, rather, attempting to fulfill their personal political agendas instead.

This bill will not stop assemblies, but it will fill more prisons; crowded prisons already at the mercy of covid-19, killing inmates and officers. Creating more felons is not the way to a better Florida.

In Florida, we had historic marches and businesses were not burned. In fact, many business owners supported the actions either financially, through goods and services, or by joining themselves, proud to make history. Protests brought communities across Florida together all summer, however, a bill like this will create an extra layer of fear and division.

It was shocking to see comments dismissed regarding the unclear 'mob intimidation' language, as well as the possibility that these restrictions would be used mainly to target communities of color protesting against police killings.

The response was that this is not the 'intent' of the bill, and that there are always some that can abuse any law; "bad apples." This is concerning to me as a citizen because our lawmakers should care if even one American's freedom is jeopardized. A law that can be manipulated to target innocent people is an unjust law, and that concern should not be brushed off. Giving bad apples more tools to exercise bad judgement is unnecessary.

The fact is, this bill language was drafted prior to the Capitol siege and targeted towards civil rights protesters, many of whom were proven innocent. We cannot ignore the hundreds of citizens, including the Tallahassee 19 and the over 70 protesters in Jacksonville, who were falsely targeted and arrested last summer. The police were wrong in their assessment, so it is very valid for people to not want more reasons for law enforcement to be 'on alert'.

As a concerned Floridian, I am asking you to not allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision

which could jeopardize the freedom of honest Americans. Please VOTE NO on HB1/SB484.

Thank you

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Mikela Cooper

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Ren Longo

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder and looting which do not infringe on the due process protections of protesters.

I was very concerned with the vote to push this bill through the Criminal Justice Subcommittee on 01/27/21, despite the overwhelming majority of commenters expressing opposition. It is as though our representatives are not representing the voice of their constituents, rather, attempting to fulfill their personal political agendas instead.

This bill will not stop assemblies, but it will fill more prisons; crowded prisons already at the mercy of covid-19, killing inmates and officers. Creating more felons is not the way to a better Florida.

In Florida, we had historic marches and businesses were not burned. In fact, many business owners supported the actions either financially, through goods and services, or by joining themselves, proud to make history. Protests brought communities across Florida together all summer, however, a bill like this will create an extra layer of fear and division.

It was shocking to see comments dismissed regarding the unclear 'mob intimidation' language, as well as the possibility that these restrictions would be used mainly to target communities of color protesting against police killings.

The response was that this is not the 'intent' of the bill, and that there are always some that can abuse any law; "bad apples." This is concerning to me as a citizen because our lawmakers should care if even one American's freedom is jeopardized. A law that can be manipulated to target innocent people is an unjust law, and that concern should not be brushed off. Giving bad apples more tools to exercise bad judgement is unnecessary.

The fact is, this bill language was drafted prior to the Capitol siege and targeted towards civil rights protesters, many of whom were proven innocent. We cannot ignore the hundreds of citizens, including the Tallahassee 19 and the over 70 protesters in Jacksonville, who were falsely targeted and arrested last summer. The police were wrong in their assessment, so it is very valid for people to not want more reasons for law enforcement to be 'on alert'.

As a concerned Floridian, I am asking you to not allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision

which could jeopardize the freedom of honest Americans. Please VOTE NO on HB1/SB484.

Thank you

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Courtney McClanahan

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
[YOUR NAME]

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Carmella Cicero

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Chelbi

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Raquel White

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
[YOUR NAME]

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder and looting which do not infringe on the due process protections of protesters.

I was very concerned with the vote to push this bill through the Criminal Justice Subcommittee on 01/27/21, despite the overwhelming majority of commenters expressing opposition. It is as though our representatives are not representing the voice of their constituents, rather, attempting to fulfill their personal political agendas instead.

This bill will not stop assemblies, but it will fill more prisons; crowded prisons already at the mercy of covid-19, killing inmates and officers. Creating more felons is not the way to a better Florida.

In Florida, we had historic marches and businesses were not burned. In fact, many business owners supported the actions either financially, through goods and services, or by joining themselves, proud to make history. Protests brought communities across Florida together all summer, however, a bill like this will create an extra layer of fear and division.

It was shocking to see comments dismissed regarding the unclear 'mob intimidation' language, as well as the possibility that these restrictions would be used mainly to target communities of color protesting against police killings.

The response was that this is not the 'intent' of the bill, and that there are always some that can abuse any law; "bad apples." This is concerning to me as a citizen because our lawmakers should care if even one American's freedom is jeopardized. A law that can be manipulated to target innocent people is an unjust law, and that concern should not be brushed off. Giving bad apples more tools to exercise bad judgement is unnecessary.

The fact is, this bill language was drafted prior to the Capitol siege and targeted towards civil rights protesters, many of whom were proven innocent. We cannot ignore the hundreds of citizens, including the Tallahassee 19 and the over 70 protesters in Jacksonville, who were falsely targeted and arrested last summer. The police were wrong in their assessment, so it is very valid for people to not want more reasons for law enforcement to be 'on alert'.

As a concerned Floridian, I am asking you to not allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision which could jeopardize the freedom of honest Americans. Please VOTE NO on HB1/SB484.

Thank you

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Pan Lovejoy

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder and looting which do not infringe on the due process protections of protesters.

I was very concerned with the vote to push this bill through the Criminal Justice Subcommittee on 01/27/21, despite the overwhelming majority of commenters expressing opposition. It is as though our representatives are not representing the voice of their constituents, rather, attempting to fulfill their personal political agendas instead.

This bill will not stop assemblies, but it will fill more prisons; crowded prisons already at the mercy of covid-19, killing inmates and officers. Creating more felons is not the way to a better Florida.

In Florida, we had historic marches and businesses were not burned. In fact, many business owners supported the actions either financially, through goods and services, or by joining themselves, proud to make history. Protests brought communities across Florida together all summer, however, a bill like this will create an extra layer of fear and division.

It was shocking to see comments dismissed regarding the unclear 'mob intimidation' language, as well as the possibility that these restrictions would be used mainly to target communities of color protesting against police killings.

The response was that this is not the 'intent' of the bill, and that there are always some that can abuse any law; "bad apples." This is concerning to me as a citizen because our lawmakers should care if even one American's freedom is jeopardized. A law that can be manipulated to target innocent people is an unjust law, and that concern should not be brushed off. Giving bad apples more tools to exercise bad judgement is unnecessary.

The fact is, this bill language was drafted prior to the Capitol siege and targeted towards civil rights protesters, many of whom were proven innocent. We cannot ignore the hundreds of citizens, including the Tallahassee 19 and the over 70 protesters in Jacksonville, who were falsely targeted and arrested last summer. The police were wrong in their assessment, so it is very valid for people to not want more reasons for law enforcement to be 'on alert'.

As a concerned Floridian, I am asking you to not allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision

which could jeopardize the freedom of honest Americans. Please VOTE NO on HB1/SB484.

Thank you

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Leila M

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
[YOUR NAME]

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
[YOUR NAME]

- Cameron Anderson

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Dear Elected Representatives,

I am contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder and looting which do not infringe on the due process protections of protesters.

I was very concerned with the vote to push this bill through the Criminal Justice Subcommittee on 01/27/21, despite the overwhelming majority of commenters expressing opposition. It is as though our representatives are not representing the voice of their constituents, rather, attempting to fulfill their personal political agendas instead.

This bill will not stop assemblies, but it will fill more prisons; crowded prisons already at the mercy of covid-19, killing inmates and officers. Creating more felons is not the way to a better Florida.

In Florida, we had historic marches and businesses were not burned. In fact, many business owners supported the actions either financially, through goods and services, or by joining themselves, proud to make history. Protests brought communities across Florida together all summer, however, a bill like this will create an extra layer of fear and division.

It was shocking to see comments dismissed regarding the unclear 'mob intimidation' language, as well as the possibility that these restrictions would be used mainly to target communities of color protesting against police killings.

The response was that this is not the 'intent' of the bill, and that there are always some that can abuse any law; "bad apples." This is concerning to me as a citizen because our lawmakers should care if even one American's freedom is jeopardized. A law that can be manipulated to target innocent people is an unjust law, and that concern should not be brushed off. Giving bad apples more tools to exercise bad judgement is unnecessary.

The fact is, this bill language was drafted prior to the Capitol siege and targeted towards civil rights protesters, many of whom were proven innocent. We cannot ignore the hundreds of citizens, including the Tallahassee 19 and the over 70 protesters in Jacksonville, who were falsely targeted and arrested last summer. The police were wrong in their assessment, so it is very valid for people to not want more reasons for law enforcement to be 'on alert'.

As a concerned Floridian, I am asking you to not allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision

which could jeopardize the freedom of honest Americans. Please VOTE NO on HB1/SB484.

Thank you

Allie

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
~Mary Edwards

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Kelly Purcell

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Whitney Mead

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Arielle Pulido

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
[YOUR NAME]

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Katherine Boling

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Chloe Suit

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Onya Schroeder

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Mary Ann Cordray

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Conner P

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Alexandria Griffin of Duval County

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Damian H.

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Sarah Knight

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative, I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532. While the events that took place at the Capitol on January 6, 2021, are abhorrent and a direct attack against democracy, it is also evident due to the circumstances of 2020 that law enforcement is not always capable of discerning civil disobedience. A constitutionally protected act, from rioting and other illegal activity. This bill language was drafted before the Capitol siege and targeted civil rights protesters, many of whom were eventually proven innocent. Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law. As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1. Sincerely, Celeste Lash

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Kristen

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Kalytra Millard

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL %2%7112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.
Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
[YOUR NAME]

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Derrick

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Makayla Shaffer

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Catherine Childs

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Salem

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
[Elisa Colon]

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder and looting which do not infringe on the due process protections of protesters.

I was very concerned with the vote to push this bill through the Criminal Justice Subcommittee on 01/27/21, despite the overwhelming majority of commenters expressing opposition. It is as though our representatives are not representing the voice of their constituents, rather, attempting to fulfill their personal political agendas instead.

This bill will not stop assemblies, but it will fill more prisons; crowded prisons already at the mercy of covid-19, killing inmates and officers. Creating more felons is not the way to a better Florida.

In Florida, we had historic marches and businesses were not burned. In fact, many business owners supported the actions either financially, through goods and services, or by joining themselves, proud to make history. Protests brought communities across Florida together all summer, however, a bill like this will create an extra layer of fear and division.

It was shocking to see comments dismissed regarding the unclear 'mob intimidation' language, as well as the possibility that these restrictions would be used mainly to target communities of color protesting against police killings.

The response was that this is not the 'intent' of the bill, and that there are always some that can abuse any law; "bad apples." This is concerning to me as a citizen because our lawmakers should care if even one American's freedom is jeopardized. A law that can be manipulated to target innocent people is an unjust law, and that concern should not be brushed off. Giving bad apples more tools to exercise bad judgement is unnecessary.

The fact is, this bill language was drafted prior to the Capitol siege and targeted towards civil rights protesters, many of whom were proven innocent. We cannot ignore the hundreds of citizens, including the Tallahassee 19 and the over 70 protesters in Jacksonville, who were falsely targeted and arrested last summer. The police were wrong in their assessment, so it is very valid for people to not want more reasons for law enforcement to be 'on alert'.

As a concerned Floridian, I am asking you to not allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision which could jeopardize the freedom of honest Americans. Please VOTE NO on HB1/SB484.

Thank you

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Jamie Fajardo

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
andie miller

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
[Delilah Pierre]

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder and looting which do not infringe on the due process protections of protesters.

I was very concerned with the vote to push this bill through the Criminal Justice Subcommittee on 01/27/21, despite the overwhelming majority of commenters expressing opposition. It is as though our representatives are not representing the voice of their constituents, rather, attempting to fulfill their personal political agendas instead.

This bill will not stop assemblies, but it will fill more prisons; crowded prisons already at the mercy of covid-19, killing inmates and officers. Creating more felons is not the way to a better Florida.

In Florida, we had historic marches and businesses were not burned. In fact, many business owners supported the actions either financially, through goods and services, or by joining themselves, proud to make history. Protests brought communities across Florida together all summer, however, a bill like this will create an extra layer of fear and division.

It was shocking to see comments dismissed regarding the unclear 'mob intimidation' language, as well as the possibility that these restrictions would be used mainly to target communities of color protesting against police killings.

The response was that this is not the 'intent' of the bill, and that there are always some that can abuse any law; "bad apples." This is concerning to me as a citizen because our lawmakers should care if even one American's freedom is jeopardized. A law that can be manipulated to target innocent people is an unjust law, and that concern should not be brushed off. Giving bad apples more tools to exercise bad judgement is unnecessary.

The fact is, this bill language was drafted prior to the Capitol siege and targeted towards civil rights protesters, many of whom were proven innocent. We cannot ignore the hundreds of citizens, including the Tallahassee 19 and the over 70 protesters in Jacksonville, who were falsely targeted and arrested last summer. The police were wrong in their assessment, so it is very valid for people to not want more reasons for law enforcement to be 'on alert'.

As a concerned Floridian, I am asking you to not allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision which could jeopardize the freedom of honest Americans. Please VOTE NO on HB1/SB484.

Thank you
Conner Pumphrey

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Annelise Lipsey

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Sentoria Albany

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Liv Sunná

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act
Elected Representative,

I am a DMV resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

While the events that took place at the Capitol on January 6, 2021, are abhorrent and a direct attack against democracy, it is also evident due to the circumstances of 2020 that law enforcement is not always capable of discerning civil disobedience. A constitutionally protected act, from rioting and other illegal activity. This bill language was drafted before the Capitol siege and targeted civil rights protesters, many of whom were eventually proven innocent. (Which is unpatriotic)

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated.(<---Justice) With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.
Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,

A person who values freedom and equality over blatant disregard for said statement.

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act
Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen of Florida and the United States, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.
Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Miranda

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Wisconsin resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

While the events that took place at the Capitol on January 6, 2021, are abhorrent and a direct attack against democracy, it is also evident due to the circumstances of 2020 that law enforcement is not always capable of discerning civil disobedience. A constitutionally protected act, from rioting and other illegal activity. This bill language was drafted before the Capitol siege and targeted civil rights protesters, many of whom were eventually proven innocent.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Jessica Fossell

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Bridgette Kennedy

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Jacksonville, Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

While the events that took place at the Capitol on January 6, 2021, are abhorrent and a direct attack against democracy, it is also evident due to the circumstances of 2020 that law enforcement is not always capable of discerning civil disobedience, a constitutionally protected act, from rioting and other illegal activity. This bill language was drafted before the Capitol siege and targeted civil rights protesters, many of whom were eventually proven innocent.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Lena Hernandez

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Bailey Miller

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Charlotte Cox

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Joe Mitchell

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act
Elected Representatives,

I am a citizen contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

While the events that took place at the Capitol on January 6, 2021, are abhorrent and a direct attack against democracy, it is also evident due to the circumstances of 2020 that law enforcement is not always capable of discerning civil disobedience. A constitutionally protected act, from rioting and other illegal activity. This bill language was drafted before the Capitol siege and targeted civil rights protesters, many of whom were eventually proven innocent.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.
Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Shannon Ward

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act
Elected Representative,

I am contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

While the events that took place at the Capitol on January 6, 2021, are abhorrent and a direct attack against democracy, it is also evident due to the circumstances of 2020 that law enforcement is not always capable of discerning civil disobedience. A constitutionally protected act, from rioting and other illegal activity. This bill language was drafted before the Capitol siege and targeted civil rights protesters, many of whom were eventually proven innocent.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.
Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
[YOUR NAME]

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Amy Cherie Copeland

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
A concerned U.S citizen

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Saloni chandra

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Leilee Sage

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Leena Flood

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Katie McFadden

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Stephanie Wong

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Jhana Butler

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a resident of Jacksonville, Florida contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

While the events that took place at the Capitol on January 6, 2021, are abhorrent and a direct attack against democracy, it is also evident due to the circumstances of 2020 that law enforcement is not always capable of discerning civil disobedience. A constitutionally protected act, from rioting and other illegal activity. This bill language was drafted before the Capitol siege and targeted civil rights protesters, many of whom were eventually proven innocent.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Amber Lajara

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Jacksonville, Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

While the events that took place at the Capitol on January 6, 2021, are abhorrent and a direct attack against democracy, it is also evident due to the circumstances of 2020 that law enforcement is not always capable of discerning civil disobedience. A constitutionally protected act, from rioting and other illegal activity. This bill language was drafted before the Capitol siege and targeted civil rights protesters, many of whom were eventually proven innocent.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Jared Apa

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Mariana

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
V Church

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act
Elected Representative,

I am contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

While the events that took place at the Capitol on January 6, 2021, are abhorrent and a direct attack against democracy, it is also evident due to the circumstances of 2020 that law enforcement is not always capable of discerning civil disobedience. A constitutionally protected act, from rioting and other illegal activity. This bill language was drafted before the Capitol siege and targeted civil rights protesters, many of whom were eventually proven innocent.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.
Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Mary Parker

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Virginia resident (with family currently living in Florida) contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

While the events that took place at the Capitol on January 6, 2021, are abhorrent and a direct attack against democracy, it is also evident due to the circumstances of 2020 that law enforcement is not always capable of discerning civil disobedience. A constitutionally protected act, from rioting and other illegal activity. This bill language was drafted before the Capitol siege and targeted civil rights protesters, many of whom were eventually proven innocent.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Janet Gooch

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Mike Kelly

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Lauren

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Merrell Goza

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Kent Marrero

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Cheryl Krug

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Yakara Thompson

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder and looting which do not infringe on the due process protections of protesters.

I was very concerned with the vote to push this bill through the Criminal Justice Subcommittee on 01/27/21, despite the overwhelming majority of commenters expressing opposition. It is as though our representatives are not representing the voice of their constituents, rather, attempting to fulfill their personal political agendas instead.

This bill will not stop assemblies, but it will fill more prisons; crowded prisons already at the mercy of covid-19, killing inmates and officers. Creating more felons is not the way to a better Florida.

In Florida, we had historic marches and businesses were not burned. In fact, many business owners supported the actions either financially, through goods and services, or by joining themselves, proud to make history. Protests brought communities across Florida together all summer, however, a bill like this will create an extra layer of fear and division.

It was shocking to see comments dismissed regarding the unclear 'mob intimidation' language, as well as the possibility that these restrictions would be used mainly to target communities of color protesting against police killings.

The response was that this is not the 'intent' of the bill, and that there are always some that can abuse any law; "bad apples." This is concerning to me as a citizen because our lawmakers should care if even one American's freedom is jeopardized. A law that can be manipulated to target innocent people is an unjust law, and that concern should not be brushed off. Giving bad apples more tools to exercise bad judgement is unnecessary.

The fact is, this bill language was drafted prior to the Capitol siege and targeted towards civil rights protesters, many of whom were proven innocent. We cannot ignore the hundreds of citizens, including the Tallahassee 19 and the over 70 protesters in Jacksonville, who were falsely targeted and arrested last summer. The police were wrong in their assessment, so it is very valid for people to not want more reasons for law enforcement to be 'on alert'.

As a concerned Floridian, I am asking you to not allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision which could jeopardize the freedom of honest Americans. Please VOTE NO on HB1/SB484.

Thank you

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Brittany Bowers

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder and looting which do not infringe on the due process protections of protesters.

I was very concerned with the vote to push this bill through the Criminal Justice Subcommittee on 01/27/21, despite the overwhelming majority of commenters expressing opposition. It is as though our representatives are not representing the voice of their constituents, rather, attempting to fulfill their personal political agendas instead.

This bill will not stop assemblies, but it will fill more prisons; crowded prisons already at the mercy of covid-19, killing inmates and officers. Creating more felons is not the way to a better Florida.

In Florida, we had historic marches and businesses were not burned. In fact, many business owners supported the actions either financially, through goods and services, or by joining themselves, proud to make history. Protests brought communities across Florida together all summer, however, a bill like this will create an extra layer of fear and division.

It was shocking to see comments dismissed regarding the unclear 'mob intimidation' language, as well as the possibility that these restrictions would be used mainly to target communities of color protesting against police killings.

The response was that this is not the 'intent' of the bill, and that there are always some that can abuse any law; "bad apples." This is concerning to me as a citizen because our lawmakers should care if even one American's freedom is jeopardized. A law that can be manipulated to target innocent people is an unjust law, and that concern should not be brushed off. Giving bad apples more tools to exercise bad judgement is unnecessary.

The fact is, this bill language was drafted prior to the Capitol siege and targeted towards civil rights protesters, many of whom were proven innocent. We cannot ignore the hundreds of citizens, including the Tallahassee 19 and the over 70 protesters in Jacksonville, who were falsely targeted and arrested last summer. The police were wrong in their assessment, so it is very valid for people to not want more reasons for law enforcement to be 'on alert'.

As a concerned Floridian, I am asking you to not allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision which could jeopardize the freedom of honest Americans. Please VOTE NO on HB1/SB484.

Thank you

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Susan Muller

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Meredith Brown

Alaina Begaye, a Navajo living in Nevada where I do endure prejudism and racism. My daughter should not have to be called "dirty" because of the color of her skin when we walk the aisles of grocery stores. The BLM protests were necessary in addressing the problem and it seems to make politicians uncomfortable when people of color ask for the same courtesy of living life as a human rather than being seeing for the color our skin first.

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
[YOUR NAME]

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Lesley Elizondo

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Kaitlin Thaggard

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Avri C

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative, I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532. While the events that took place at the Capitol on January 6, 2021, are abhorrent and a direct attack against democracy, it is also evident due to the circumstances of 2020 that law enforcement is not always capable of discerning civil disobedience. A constitutionally protected act, from rioting and other illegal activity. This bill language was drafted before the Capitol siege and targeted civil rights protesters, many of whom were eventually proven innocent. Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law. As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms. Please VOTE NO on HB1. Sincerely,
Lizzie Adams

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Haylee Swiger

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a CT resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

While the events that took place at the Capitol on January 6, 2021, are abhorrent and a direct attack against democracy, it is also evident due to the circumstances of 2020 that law enforcement is not always capable of discerning civil disobedience. A constitutionally protected act, from rioting and other illegal activity. This bill language was drafted before the Capitol siege and targeted civil rights protesters, many of whom were eventually proven innocent.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
SB

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Bianca Combs

Subject: Oppose HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act

Elected Representative,

I am a Florida resident contacting you today to urge you to OPPOSE HB1, the Combatting Violence, Disorder, and Looting Law Enforcement Protection Act. There are already laws in place regarding violence, disorder, and looting, which do not infringe on protesters' due process protections and extra protections for Law Enforcement Officers in the state of Florida under FL §112.532.

Just this summer in Jacksonville, over 70 peaceful civil rights protesters were unlawfully detained. Among these protesters were families, students, pastors, business owners, teachers, medics, and lawyers. All charges were dropped. Four protesters even sued the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and won a $100,000 settlement due to their rights being deliberately violated. With this new bill, these innocent people would have had incredible difficulty maintaining their freedom, even in the court of law.

As a concerned citizen, I am asking you not to allow fear and chaos to influence a hasty decision that could jeopardize honest Americans' freedom. We have seen the blatant double standards regarding protesting and treatment amongst groups, and this bill was proposed before this tyrannic event and is only being pushed into legislation in haste and to further suppress our freedoms.

Please VOTE NO on HB1.

Sincerely,
Yakara
