

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA :
: CASE NO. 21-CR-036 (CJN)
v. :
: GINA MICHELLE BISIGNANO, :
: Defendant. :
: _____

STATEMENT OF OFFENSE

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11, the United States of America, by and through its attorney, the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, and the defendant, GINA MICHELLE BISIGNANO, with the concurrence of her attorney, agree and stipulate to the below factual basis for the defendant's guilty plea—that is, if this case were to proceed to trial, the parties stipulate that the United States could prove the below facts beyond a reasonable doubt:

The Attack at the U.S. Capitol on January 6, 2021

1. On January 6, 2021, a Joint Session of the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate (the "Joint Session") convened at the United States Capitol to certify the vote of the Electoral College of the 2020 U.S. Presidential Election ("the Electoral College vote"). The U.S. Capitol, located at First Street, SE, in Washington, D.C., is secured 24 hours a day by U.S. Capitol Police. The Capitol Police maintain permanent and temporary barriers to restrict access to the Capitol exterior, and only authorized individuals with appropriate identification are allowed inside the Capitol building. On January 6, 2021, the exterior plaza of the U.S. Capitol was closed to members of the public due to the Electoral College vote certification proceeding.

2. The Joint Session commenced the certification process at approximately 1:00 p.m., with Vice President Mike Pence present and presiding in the Senate chamber. As the Joint Session got underway, a large crowd began to gather outside of the Capitol building. Crowd members eventually forced their way through, up, and over Capitol Police barricades and advanced to the building's exterior façade. Capitol Police officers, with the assistance of officers of the District of Columbia's Metropolitan Police Department (MPD), attempted to maintain order and stop the crowd from entering the Capitol building, to which the doors and windows were locked or otherwise secured. Nonetheless, shortly after 2:00 p.m., crowd members forced entry into the Capitol building by breaking windows, ramming open doors, and assaulting Capitol Police and MPD officers. The crowd was not lawfully authorized to enter or remain inside the Capitol, and no crowd member submitted to security screenings or weapons checks by Capitol Police or other security officials.

3. Shortly thereafter, at approximately 2:20 p.m., members of the House and Senate (including Vice President Pence)—who had withdrawn to separate chambers to resolve an objection—were evacuated from their respective chambers. The Joint Session and the entire official proceeding of the Congress was halted while Capitol Police and other law-enforcement officers worked to restore order and clear the Capitol of the unlawful occupants. Later that night, law enforcement regained control of the Capitol. At approximately 8:00 p.m., the Joint Session reconvened, presided over by Vice President Pence, who along with legislators and staff, had remained hidden within the Capitol building throughout these events.

4. As described more fully below, BISIGNANO participated in the January 6 attack by unlawfully entering the Capitol building, assisted others in breaking a window that allowed for that entry, and intended to stop or delay the Congressional proceeding.

Gina BISIGNANO's Role in the January 6th Riot at the U.S. Capitol

5. BISIGNANO is a resident of Los Angeles, California. In late 2020, BISIGNANO was a vocal supporter of then-President Donald Trump in his bid for re-election. After the 2020 Presidential election in November, BISIGNANO began to espouse rhetoric online supporting her mistaken belief that the Presidential election had been stolen.

6. BISIGNANO traveled from Los Angeles, California to Washington, D.C. on January 4, 2021. Between January 4, 2021 and January 5, 2021, BISIGNANO posted on Facebook several times about her trip, including “Washington DC bound #fightfortrump”, “We are going to Washington DC to take our country back The insurrection act begins! Praise Jesus!” and “patriots in Washington DC #StopTheSteal.”

7. On January 6, 2021, BISIGNANO attended the “Stop the Steal” rally at the Ellipse in Washington, D.C., which was organized to protest the result of the Presidential election. At the rally, BISIGNANO took videos of herself reacting to the speech given by then-President Donald Trump. Specifically, when Donald Trump stated, “I hope Mike Pence is going to do the right thing,” BISIGNANO responded, “I hope so, he’s a deep state” and then video cuts off.

8. As the “Stop the Steal” rally was finishing, BISIGNANO joined a large crowd that marched from the Ellipse to the Capitol, where the Joint Session to certify the Electoral College vote was underway. During the march to the Capitol, BISIGNANO filmed herself stating, “we are marching to the Capitol to put some pressure on Mike Pence.”

9. As BISIGNANO approached the Capitol grounds, she met up with two individuals who she knew from Los Angeles, California. BISIGNANO filmed herself with these other individuals from California, shouting things like “MAGA Gang!” and “gun toting patriots!” As the group reached a low wall on the edge of the U.S. Capitol grounds, BISIGNANO yelled “let’s go!" and "we are jumping the wall!" Once over the low wall, BISIGNANO filmed herself stating "okay, we are storming the Capitol. And I'm going up in there, I'm going to break into Congress." Once on the U.S. Capitol grounds, BISIGNANO walked through a dense crowd of people, past barriers that restricted access to the public, up a set of stairs on the exterior of the U.S. Capitol building, to the area of the U.S. Capitol grounds known as the Lower West Terrace.

10. At approximately 2:40 p.m., as legislators and their staff were being evacuated to secure locations, BISIGNANO, along with many rioters, ran up to a tunnel on the Lower West Terrace, which led inside the U.S. Capitol building. Capitol Police and MPD officers stationed to secure the Capitol were forced to retreat inside. As she ascended the stairs to the tunnel, BISIGNANO was hit with a direct shot of chemical irritants deployed by the retreating officers. BISIGNANO joined a group of individuals who continued forward towards the Capitol entrance and attempted to force their way inside.

11. The U.S. Capitol building doors were locked, and inside the building, Capitol Police and MPD officers wearing riot gear were preparing to meet the rioters. BISIGNANO and other rioters attempted to force their way into the building through these doors, causing the officers to establish a police line inside the entryway in order to hold the building. As the mob swelled inside the tunnel, and officers were being assaulted, BISIGNANO climbed on a ledge inside the tunnel, and waved other rioters into the tunnel to assist in the effort to break into the U.S. Capitol building. The officers struggled against the crowd in the tunnel, deploying more chemical irritants in an attempt to disperse the mob. After approximately 40 minutes of struggling with the crowd, officers were able to clear the tunnel of rioters, including BISIGNANO, forcing them all on to the Lower West Terrace at approximately 3:18 p.m.

12. After her removal from the tunnel, BISIGNANO spoke with other rioters on the Lower West Terrace about “what Pence’s done” and how to gain entry to the U.S. Capitol building. BISIGNANO and others were standing in front of a semi-circular window when BISIGNANO started shouting “break the window! Break the window!” Then, another rioter on the ledge of the windowsill took out a small hatchet-style tool and started to hammer away at the glass of the window, while BISIGNANO said “do it, do it!” BISIGNANO herself subsequently climbed on to the ledge of the same windowsill. BISIGNANO then assisted a second rioter on to the ledge, who immediately began to bang on the glass with a large object. That rioter was pulled off the windowsill, but BISIGNANO remained. Several minutes later, BISIGNANO assisted a third rioter up on to the windowsill, and that rioter used a fire extinguisher to smash in the glass of the window. According to the Office of the Architect of the Capitol, the cost to repair the damaged window was approximately $1500.

13. Once the glass on the window was broken, BISIGNANO entered the Capitol building through the window. BISIGNANO also encouraged others to enter, waving them in and calling them on a bullhorn she had received from another rioter. BISIGNANO shouted on the bullhorn from the windowsill each of the following:

- “They will not steal our votes!”
- “Everybody, we need gas masks! We need weapons! We need strong angry patriots to help our boys. They don’t want to leave. We need protection.”
- “We the people are not going to take it anymore. You are not going to take away our Trumpy Bear. You are not going to take away our votes.”
- “This is 1776! And we the people will never give up. We will never let our country go to the globalists.”

14. BISIGNANO obstructed, influenced, and impeded an official proceeding, that is, a proceeding before Congress, specifically, Congress’s certification of the Electoral College vote as set out in the Twelfth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and 3 U.S.C. §§ 15-18. When BISIGNANO unlawfully entered the Capitol grounds and building, she was aware that the Vice President was presiding over the certification of the 2020 Presidential election results. BISIGNANO believed that by forcing entry into the Capitol, the crowd could influence, affect, stop or delay what she believed was the Vice President's and the Congress's decision to certify or not certify the election results. BISIGNANO intended to affect the government by stopping or delaying the Congressional proceeding, and, in fact, did so. BISIGNANO accomplished this by intimidating and coercing government personnel who were participating in or supporting the Congressional proceeding. BISIGNANO also incorrectly believed that members of the military were there among the crowd to stop the certification of the Electoral College vote at the direction of then-President Donald Trump. At the time, BISIGNANO believed the 2020 Presidential election results were fraudulent or stolen. BISIGNANO admits that her belief that the Electoral College results were fraudulent is not a legal justification for unlawfully entering the Capitol building and attempting to influence, stop, or delay the Congressional proceeding.

Limited Nature of Factual Basis

15. This proffer of evidence is not intended to constitute a complete statement of all facts known by BISIGNANO or the government. Rather, it is a limited statement of facts intended to provide the minimal necessary factual predicate for BISIGNANO's guilty plea.

Respectfully submitted,

CHANNING D. PHILLIPS
Acting United States Attorney

By: _____ /s/
KIMBERLY L. PASCHALL
Assistant United States Attorney

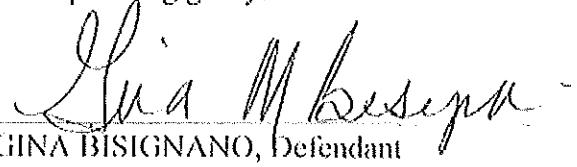

D.C. Bar No. 1015665
555 4th Street, N.W., Room 4116
Washington, D.C. 20530
202-252-2650
Kimberly.Paschall@usdoj.gov

DEFENDANT'S ACCEPTANCE

I have read every word of this Statement of Offense. Pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, after consulting with my attorney, Charles Peruto, Esq., I agree and stipulate to this Statement of Offense. The Statement of Offense is a summary made for the purpose of providing the Court with a factual basis for my guilty plea. It does not include all of the facts known to me regarding these offenses. I make this statement knowingly and voluntarily and because I am in fact guilty of the crime to which I am pleading guilty.

Dated:

July 27/2021

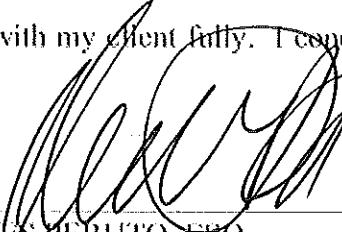

GINA BISIGNANO, Defendant

ATTORNEY'S ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I have read this Factual Basis and have reviewed it with my client fully. I concur in my client's desire to adopt and stipulate to this Factual Basis.

Dated:

7-27-21

CHARLES PERUTO, ESQ.
Attorney for Gina Bisignano