Gov. Jerry Brown praises Richmond teen for brave attempt to save a life

April 2, 2014

A quick-thinking 16-year-old Richmond girl recently received a commendation from Gov Jerry Brown for performing CPR on an overdosing woman near her Oakland high school. On March 13 about 5:30 p.m., Breonna Williams was waiting for her mother, Ebony Holbert, to pick her up after her soccer game when a man ran out of a... Continue reading
