

CONFIDENTIAL

Charles River Labs (CRL) is seeking a biomedical research license that allows them and their contracted fishermen [REDACTED] Horseshoe crab collection access within the state of South Carolina's jurisdiction. Certain restrictions on the [REDACTED] collected are being proposed per the schedule below. In exchange for this biomedical license, CRL is willing to commit up to [REDACTED] based on [REDACTED] which we hope [REDACTED] that will [REDACTED] CRL is happy to collaborate with SCDNR to define the [REDACTED] and is willing to openly share information that can assist in [REDACTED] CRL will continue to work with local fisherman and SCDNR to ensure safe collection practices and will [REDACTED] Our fisherman will be instructed to [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

We look forward to working closely with SCDNR on the proposal outlined above.