

Public Disclosure:
Ohio Valley University
Voluntary Resignation of Accreditation
Effective: June 30, 2022

Ohio Valley University in Vienna, West Virginia, has provided official notification that it will voluntarily resign accreditation with the Higher Learning Commission as a result of closing. The voluntary resignation is effective June 30, 2022.

The institution has informed the Higher Learning Commission that Alderson Broaddus University will house the college's student records after closing.

Current Ohio Valley University students who cannot complete their studies at the institution may transfer to other institutions. Any questions about student loans should be directed to the U.S. Department of Education.

About the Higher Learning Commission

The Higher Learning Commission accredits approximately 1,000 colleges and universities in the United States. HLC is a private, nonprofit accrediting agency. It is recognized by the U.S. Department of Education and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation. Questions? Contact info@hlcommission.org or call 312.263.0456.

Posting Date: December 22, 2021