Subject Risk Communications Introduction
Location Microsoft Teams Meeting
Show Time As Busy
Dear Colleagues,

I would like to invite you to participate in a one hour introduction to risk communication at EPA.

Risk communication is communication intended to supply audience members with the information they need to make informed, independent judgements about risks to health, safety, and the environment. Risk communication is about providing meaningful, understandable, and actionable information to our many audiences and it is fundamental to achieving the mission of the Agency.

This session will include:

- * An introduction to risk communication at EPA
(b) (6)
- * The SALT (Strategy, Action, Learning, and Tools) Framework
(b) (6) EPA's Agency-wide risk communication process framework
- * Examples of how the SALT Framework can be applied to work at the Agency
- * Risk communication and the climate crisis, EJ, and public health
- * Current risk communication activities
- * Upcoming activities and training opportunities

Madeline Beal (EPA's Senior Risk Communication Advisor) will lead this session and she will be joined by Jackie Harwood (Senior Public Affairs Advisor) and Meg Nakahara (COMPASS Science Communication

(b) (6)

If you are unable to attend but would like to send someone in your place, please let me know. And if you are interested but cannot accommodate this time, please let me know so we can follow-up with additional opportunities.

Thanks so much,

Lindsay

AO Executives, Managers, Supervisors & Staff:

Good afternoon. Due to increased race tensions and the innocent killings of unarmed African Americans, Dorien Blythers, Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations, Lance McCluney, Director, Office of Administrative and Executive Services, Shaunta Hill-Hammond, AO Black Employment Program Special Emphasis Program Manager, Tiffany Houser, Program Analyst, Office of Civil Rights, and I will be facilitating the subject AO African American Listening Session on May 19, 2021, at 10:00 a.m. to provide a safe and open environment for employees to share thoughts on these tragic events. We also want to listen to ideas or suggestions on what the EPA can do to address these social issues and ensure the agency is a model EEO work environment that is diverse and inclusive. Finally, we will provide a forum for employees to ask questions during the session.

Please see the attached PowerPoint slides for more details. I look forward to your participation in the listening session. A calendar invite will be forthcoming on the event shortly. If you have any questions in advance of the session, please send them to Shaunta Hill-Hammond at hill-hammond.shaunta@epa.gov <mailto:hill-hammond.shaunta@epa.gov> . Thanks, and have a nice weekend.

This session is for AO staff. Please do not forward the invitation to others.

AO Executives, Managers, Supervisors & Staff:

Good afternoon. As Administrator Regan shared Monday, EPA is collecting input from employees, supervisors, and senior leaders to understand your workplace concerns and to inform what flexibilities you need as we begin transitioning off of pandemic-related maximum telework. We are also collecting information on what changes we need to make to our pre-pandemic policies (e.g., telework and work schedules) incorporating what we have learned from our time away from the workplace during the pandemic. This is not about when we will be returning to the workplace. We will have an ample transition period after it is safe for an increased number of staff to return to the physical workplace, informed by government-wide guidance.

The AO will be conducting listening sessions to obtain input from employees. The AO listening sessions will occur next week on Tuesday, May 25, 2021, at 9:30-10:30 a.m., and Thursday, May 27, 2021, 2:00-3:00 p.m. Brian Twillman has graciously agreed to facilitate our listening sessions, so I want to personally thank him in advance. Neshawne Gibson has graciously agreed to capture listening session notes, so I want to personally thank her in advance. When the listening sessions are completed, we will be aggregating all input and providing it to OMS. OMS will be consolidating all input agencywide to provide to senior leadership. Calendar invites will be forthcoming, so please plan on attending one of the sessions.

I look forward to these listening sessions and obtaining your valuable input. Thanks, and have a nice day.

Wes
