REFERENCED PROPERTY: [REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]:

The Code Enforcement Division has received your complaint regarding rooster(s) at the above referenced property.

The Code Enforcement Division has notified the property owner about the concern, and has provided additional information to help correct the issue.

Matters such as these are best resolved by discussing your concerns with your neighbor(s). Sometimes, when needed, mediation can help achieve resolution.

Mediation Information: Another alternative to help resolve the situation could possibly be found through mediation, which can assist with neighbor relations. In mediation, disputing parties meet with trained, impartial mediators to resolve their problems. Although the City of San Diego currently does not provide these services, there are programs available in the area. Neighbors interested in mediation can contact the National Conflict Resolution Center at (619) 238-2400.
