Dear Mr. Moore:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated March 23, 2020, received by this office on March 25, 2020, and referenced above.

The referenced case has been contested and we are not able to release any information. Our office has contacted the Solicitor's Office to verify the status and currently, we are still unable to release any information. To date we have no knowledge of how long the litigation process will take; therefore we request that you contact our office in approximately 90 days for an updated status.

Additionally OSHA maintains an internet website at www.osha.gov, which is open to the public. While in it, visitors have easy access to our agency's data base which offers general information on companies inspected, violations cited and fines assessed. Also available is the latest information on OSHA's regulations, policies and publications.

If you need any further assistance or would like to discuss any aspect of your request please do not hesitate to contact this office or the DOL FOIA Public Liaison, Thomas Hicks, at 202-693-5427 or by email at hicks.thomas@dol.gov. Alternatively, you may contact the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) within the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) to inquire about the mediation services they offer. The contact information for OGIS is as follows: Office of Government Information Services, National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road, College Park, MD 20740-6001. You can also reach that office by e-mail at ogis@nara.gov, by phone at 202-741-5770, by fax at 202-741-5769, or by calling toll-free at 1-877-684-6448.

If you are not satisfied with the response to this request, you may administratively appeal by writing to the Solicitor of Labor within 90 days from the date of this letter. The appeal must state in writing the grounds for the appeal, and it may include any supporting statements or arguments, but such statements are not required.

In order to facilitate processing of the appeal, please include your mailing address and daytime telephone number, as well as a copy of the initial request and copy of this letter. The envelope and letter of the appeal should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."
