1 Plaintiff U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (the “EEOC”)
2 and Activision Blizzard, Inc. (“Activision Blizzard”), Activision Publishing, Inc.
3 (“Activision Publishing”), Blizzard Entertainment, Inc. (“Blizzard”), and King.com, 4 Inc. (“King”) (collectively, and including their respective subsidiaries with 5 employees in the United States, “Defendants”), collectively referred to as “the 6 Parties,” hereby stipulate and agree to entry of this Consent Decree (the “Decree”) 7 to fully and finally resolve any allegations contained in the Complaint filed by the 8 EEOC in EEOC v. Activision Blizzard, Inc., et al., with Case No. 2:21-CV-07682 9 DSF-JEM (“Action”).

10 I. RECITALS AND BACKGROUND

11 Plaintiff filed this Action in the United States District Court, Central District 12 of California, for violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (“Title 13 VII”); in EEOC v. Activision, et al., with Case No. 2:21-CV-07682 DSF-JEM (the 14 “Action”). The Action alleges that Defendants engaged in unlawful employment 15 practices by subjecting employees, individuals, or a group of individuals to sexual 16 harassment, pregnancy discrimination, and/or related retaliation in violation of 17 Sections 703(a) and 704(a) of Title VII 2000e-2(a), 2000e-3(a).

18 Activision Publishing and its related subsidiaries and companies with 19 employees in the United States, Blizzard and its related subsidiaries and companies 20 with employees in the United States, and King and its related subsidiaries and 21 companies with employees in the United States, are wholly owned subsidiaries of 22 Activision Blizzard. Since 2016 and through the present, Activision Publishing, 23 Blizzard, and King maintained separate workforces in distinct office locations.
24 Blizzard also maintained human resources and personnel functions separate from 25 those of Activision Blizzard and Activision Publishing until August 2019. Prior to 26 his departure in late 2018, Blizzard’s Chief Executive Officer was co-founder 27 Michael Morhaime.
28

1 Defendants expressly deny that they subjected any individual or group of 2 individuals to sexual harassment, pregnancy discrimination or related retaliation, 3 deny all allegations of wrongdoing, liability, damages and entitlement to other relief 4 set forth in the Action whether arising under Title VII or analogous state and local 5 laws, deny any group or systemic discrimination or harassment, and deny that any 6 of their policies and procedures are inadequate. However, the Parties recognize that 7 through this Decree the Parties can avoid the expense, distraction and possible 8 litigation associated with such a dispute and thus the Parties wish to resolve all 9 issues through this Decree.

10 II. PURPOSES AND SCOPE OF THE DECREE

11 In the interest of resolving this matter, the Parties have agreed that this 12 Action should be finally settled by entry of this Decree, and all claims brought by 13 the EEOC, including those arising out of any of the same factual predicates as those 14 in the Action, will be fully and completely resolved by this Decree. This Decree 15 shall be binding on and enforceable against Defendants, as well as their parents, 16 subsidiaries, officers, directors, agents, successors, and assigns. The scope of this 17 Decree includes all United States operations and United States-based employees of 18 all Defendants, unless otherwise indicated.

- 24 C. To ensure that Defendants maintain workplaces free of sexual
- 25 harassment, pregnancy discrimination, and related retaliation
- 26 throughout the Decree term;
- 27
- 28

- 1 D. To ensure that Defendants take reasonable steps to prevent and correct 2 sexual harassment, pregnancy discrimination, and related retaliation
3 throughout the Decree term;

5 with respect to discrimination, harassment, and related retaliation;
- 6 F. To review and ensure effective training for Defendants' employees, 7 managers, supervisors, and human resources personnel with respect to 8 the pertinent laws regarding gender discrimination, harassment, and 9 related retaliation throughout the Decree term;
- 10 G. To ensure proper accountability and appropriate and effective handling 11 of complaints of sexual harassment, pregnancy discrimination, and 12 related retaliation throughout the Decree term;
- 13 H. To ensure appropriate review, record keeping, and reporting related to 14 sexual harassment, pregnancy discrimination, and related retaliation in 15 Defendants' workplaces throughout the Decree term; and 19 electronically.

20 Information posted on the website and available on a recorded message on 21 the toll-free telephone number will be limited to the general information included in 22 the Notice of Settlement sent to Potential Claimants or updated information as to 18 Claims Administrator with the following forms: (a) Notice of Settlement (attached 19 to this Decree as Attachment A) and (b) Claim Form (attached to this Decree as 20 Attachment B). The EEOC will afford Defendants an opportunity to provide input 21 on the Notice of Settlement and Claim Form, but EEOC will make the final 22 determination regarding the form and contents of these documents.

23 d. Mailing Notice of Settlement, Claim Form, and 24 Utilization of Media

25 Upon receipt of the List of Potential Claimants from Defendants, the Claims 26 Administrator will first utilize available resources including a database search to 27 update email addresses and addresses. Using the updated addresses, the Claims 28

1 Administrator will mail via USPS Priority Mail and email the Notice of Settlement, 2 the Claim Form, and a return envelope addressed to the Claims Administrator to 3 each Potential Claimant not later than twenty-eight (28) calendar days after the 4 Claims Administrator receives the Notice of Settlement and Claim Form. The 5 Claims Administrator will provide to the EEOC a roster of the U.S. mail (sent via 6 USPS Priority Mail) and email transmissions no later than ten (10) calendar days 7 after they are completed.

8 e. Return Mail Handling

9 For each mailing to a Potential Claimant that is returned as undeliverable, the 10 Claims Administrator will, within ten (10) calendar days: (1) research the Potential 11 Claimant's most-recent address, using best efforts and a database search to locate 12 the Potential Claimant; and (2) (a) resend the Notice of Settlement, Claim Form, 13 and cover letter to the new or different address via USPS Priority Mail if a new or 14 different address is obtained, or (b) advise the EEOC of the efforts taken to locate 15 the Potential Claimant if no new or different address is obtained. The Claims 16 Administrator will make no more than two (2) attempts to locate a Potential 17 Claimant whose mailing is returned as undeliverable and in no event will any re-18 mailing of the Notice of Settlement and Claim Form occur more than six (6) 19 months later than the Effective Date unless the EEOC determines a re-mailing is 20 needed to advance the interest of the terms of this Decree.

21 f. Claim Filing Deadline

22 Potential Claimants who believe they are entitled to an award from the 23 Settlement Fund may submit a Claim Form. A Potential Claimant's final Claim 24 Form filing deadline will be the later of one hundred twenty (120) calendar days 25 after the Notice of Settlement and the Claim Form are originally mailed to that 26 Potential Claimant, or one hundred twenty (120) calendar days after the date the 27 Notice of Settlement and the Claim Form are re-mailed to that Potential Claimant.
28

1 Claim Forms postmarked or submitted electronically to the Claims Administrator 2 within these periods will be considered timely. However, Claim Forms that are 3 received after the aforementioned time periods may be considered by the EEOC at 4 its sole discretion.

5 g. Claim Form Evaluation

6 The EEOC and Defendants will discuss the general criteria for evaluating 7 claims made through Claim Forms. The Claims Administrator will provide to the 8 EEOC electronically all of the Claim Forms and accompanying information 9 submitted by each Claimant for the EEOC's use in assessing who is an Eligible 10 Claimant. The EEOC has sole discretion in determining the criteria, eligibility, and 11 monetary relief amounts for each Claimant. In order to determine each Claimant's 12 eligibility, the EEOC will review the information in the Claims Form and determine 13 if the individual: (i) was employed by Defendants from September 1, 2016 to the 14 Effective Date; (ii) based on the EEOC's assessment, could assert a viable claim for 15 sexual harassment, pregnancy discrimination, or related retaliation by Defendants; 16 and (iii) experienced a harm. Such Claimants may be eligible for monetary relief 17 from the Settlement Fund, as determined by the EEOC. The EEOC will also 18 consider whether or not the Claimant is precluded from seeking relief due to a prior 19 settlement or judgment and assess documents provided by Defendants to the Claims 20 Administrator. The Claims Administrator will work with the Defendants to secure 21 relevant documents including any prior releases signed by Eligible Claimants for 22 the EEOC to consider in its assessment. Defendants agree that the EEOC's 23 determination of these issues is final.

24 The EEOC shall provide the Claims Administrator and Defendants one or 25 more lists of Eligible Claimants including their names, current addresses, the 26 amount to be paid to each, the classification of such amounts to be paid, and any 27 additional relevant identifying information ("Distribution List") on a rolling basis.
28

1 The EEOC, based upon the claims process, will submit subsequent Distribution 2 Lists. The EEOC also will provide the Claims Administrator with a Notice of 3 Ineligibility for any Claimants whom the EEOC determines are not eligible for 4 payments from the Settlement Fund on a rolling basis.

5 h. Notices to Eligible Claimants

6 Upon receiving the Distribution List(s) from the EEOC, the Claims 7 Administrator will mail via USPS Priority Mail to each Eligible Claimant on the 8 EEOC's approved Distribution List(s) a Notice of Eligibility and Claim Share 9 Amount, a release of claims form (attached to this Decree as Attachment C), and a 10 return envelope addressed to the Claims Administrator. All Eligible Claimants 11 shall be provided an opportunity to consult an independent attorney to advise on the 12 release of claims to which the EEOC is not a party. Defendants shall pay for up to 13 one hour of attorney consultation to advise on the release of claims, at the rate of 14 $450/hour, for each Eligible Claimant. The EEOC shall provide a list of 15 recommended plaintiff attorneys for an Eligible Claimant to consult.

16 To each Claimant determined to be ineligible, the Claims Administrator will 17 mail a Notice of Ineligibility, and a return envelope addressed to the Claims 18 Administrator.

19 i. Receiving Acceptance and Release

10 interactive component. All employees will be paid their normal rate of pay during 11 the trainings.

12 Defendants shall give the EEOC and the EEO Consultant a minimum of 13 twenty (20) business days advance written notice of the date, time, and location of 14 each initial training provided pursuant to this Decree, not including the ongoing 15 trainings for new hires. An EEOC representative or the EEO Consultant may 16 attend any such training upon request by the EEOC or the EEO Consultant but will 17 not participate. The EEOC and the EEO Consultant may also review training 18 materials proposed and/or used by Defendants upon request.

19 E. Complaint Log

20 Defendants have implemented EthicsPoint as their centralized tracking 21 system for complaints, including those regarding sexual harassment, pregnancy 22 discrimination, and related retaliation. During the term of this Decree, Defendants 23 will continue to use EthicsPoint or a similar centralized tracking system for 24 complaints regarding sexual harassment, pregnancy discrimination, and related 25 retaliation and will generate reports from EthicsPoint or a similar centralized 26 tracking system related to such complaints ("Complaint Log") that will be shared 27 with the EEO Consultant. EthicsPoint is and will remain searchable by name of 28

1 individual(s) and by location(s) of alleged misconduct. If necessary the Complaint 2 Log will be supplemented with information from other databases to ensure that it 3 contains, for each complaint or investigation of sexual harassment, pregnancy 4 discrimination, or related retaliation, at least the following information:

- 5 1. full name, contact information, and gender of each complainant 6 and potential aggrieved individual;
- 7 2. full name and gender of any persons allegedly involved 8 (including but not limited to those identified as potential 9 perpetrators);

12 the Hotline), and the date the complaint was reported;

17 allegedly involved (e.g., “harassment,” “failure to hire,” “failure 18 to promote,” “demotion,” “failure to schedule/assign,” 19 “termination,” etc.);

- 21 8. description of action taken in response to the charge, complaint, 22 report, or investigation;

26 database (such as “open,” “pending,” “closed,” etc.).
27
28

1 The Complaint Log shall be maintained throughout the duration of the 2 Decree.

3 F. Performance Evaluations

4 Defendants will work with the EEO Consultant to evaluate performance 5 evaluation forms for managers, supervisors, and human resource personnel, to 6 include measures for performance on compliance with Defendants' anti-7 discrimination, anti-harassment, and anti-retaliation policies and procedures.
8 Defendants represent that they are developing and implementing performance 9 evaluation changes. Within ninety (90) days of the appointment of the EEO 10 Consultant, Defendants agree to provide the EEO Consultant with the proposed 11 revisions of the performance evaluation forms in order to provide an opportunity 12 for comment regarding the revisions before implementing the revised performance 13 evaluation forms.

14 Defendants agree to consult with the EEO Consultant regarding their 15 implementation of mechanisms for bottom-up feedback and reporting, in order to 16 encourage and solicit feedback through these mechanisms regarding discrimination, 17 harassment, and related retaliation and the inclusivity of Defendants' culture for 18 individuals of all genders. The EEO Consultant shall include a description of the 19 efforts being made by Defendants to obtain bottom-up feedback from employees in 20 each semi-annual report. Feedback received through these mechanisms that 21 indicates that gender discrimination, harassment, or related retaliation may be 22 occurring, will be promptly and adequately addressed by Defendants.

23 G. Mental Health Support

24 Within sixty (60) days of the Effective Date, Defendants shall work with the 25 EEO Consultant to make available expanded counseling for employees in need of 26 mental health or counseling services, reconfirming that they are available for 27 persons who may have experienced sexual harassment, pregnancy discrimination, 28

1 or related retaliation, regardless of whether any experience occurred while the 2 person was employed by any Defendants. The counseling will be with qualified 3 providers with experience in providing mental health services related to sexual 4 harassment. Notice will be disseminated to the workforce of the availability of this 5 service, a copy of which will be provided to the EEOC in the first semi-annual 6 report and annually thereafter. All other records associated with this service will be 7 kept confidential and will not be disclosed as part of the record keeping and 8 reporting required under this Decree.

9 H. Relationship with Staffing Agencies

10 Defendants will ensure that Defendants or the staffing agencies with which 11 they do business (“staffing agencies”) provide Defendants’ Workplace Policies and 12 Procedures compliant with Section XII.C.4. and 5. of this Decree, including the 13 Ask List, to all employees placed by staffing agencies to any of Defendants’ United 14 States worksites and, in no circumstance, more than five (5) days after their initial 15 assignment. As stated above in Section XII.C. Defendants’ Workplace Policies and 16 Procedures shall state that: (i) employees placed at Defendants’ worksites by 17 staffing agencies can complain to Defendants regarding alleged sexual harassment, 18 pregnancy discrimination, or related retaliation by Defendants’ employees; and (ii) 19 complaints of sexual harassment, pregnancy discrimination, or related retaliation 20 will not negatively impact a staffing agency employee’s opportunity to be 21 considered or hired for another position. Defendants will work with the EEO 22 Consultant to develop or evaluate protocols to ensure that there are proper 23 mechanisms for handling complaints raised by workers placed at Defendants’ 24 worksites by staffing agencies and to ensure that staffing agencies are informed of 25 complaints of sexual harassment, pregnancy discrimination, and related retaliation 26 when raised by employees placed at Defendants’ worksites.
27
28

1 Defendants agree to require staffing agencies to provide Defendants semi-2 annually during the duration of this Decree a statement attesting that employees 3 placed at Defendants' worksites are timely receiving notice of Defendants' 4 Workplace Policies and Procedures compliant with Section XII.C. Copies of the 5 staffing agencies' attestations will be provided to the EEO Consultant who, in turn, 6 shall report on Defendants' compliance with this obligation in its semi-annual 7 reports.

8 I. Hotline

9 Defendants agree to confirm that they have currently in place a hotline for 10 employees and staffing agency workers to report complaints, including those of 11 sexual harassment, pregnancy discrimination, or related retaliation ("Hotline").
12 The Hotline shall operate seven (7) days per week, twenty-four (24) hours per day.
13 The Hotline shall offer the option to employees to make an anonymous complaint.
14 The EEO Consultant shall ensure that all Hotline inquiries and response times are 15 tracked and logged by Defendants in the Complaint Log described in Section XII.E.

16 Annually during the duration of this Decree, Defendants shall communicate 17 the Hotline information to all employees and workers to encourage reporting of 18 complaints of harassment, discrimination, and related retaliation. Defendants shall 19 notify new employees, including temporary employees, of the Hotline no later than 20 within five (5) days of hire.

21 J. Record keeping

22 Within thirty (30) days of the appointment of the EEO Consultant, 23 Defendants will review with the EEO Consultant their record-keeping procedure 24 that provides for the centralized tracking of complaints, including those of sexual 25 harassment, pregnancy discrimination, and related retaliation complaints and the 26 ongoing evaluation of such complaints to prevent retaliation. The EEO Consultant 27 will confirm that the records to be maintained include:
28

- 1 A. documents generated in connection with any complaint of sexual 2 harassment, pregnancy discrimination, or related retaliation, including 3 documents relating to all investigations or resolutions of any 4 complaints and the identities of all witnesses identified by the

- 14 D. documents generated in connection with the establishment or review of 15 performance evaluation measures for supervisors and managers, 16 including if Defendants held managers accountable for not reporting 17 complaints of sexual harassment, pregnancy discrimination, or related 18 retaliation, and also for rewarding those managers who did report 19 correctly as part of Defendants' reporting process;
- 20 E. all communications with the EEO Consultant, the Claims 21 Administrator, and the EEOC;
- 22 F. documents generated in connection with the audits conducted by the 23 EEO Consultant under Section XII.C.;
- 24 G. all training evaluation forms collected under Section XII.D. and 25 H. non-privileged documents related to Defendants' compliance with this 26 Decree.
- 27
- 28

1 Defendants shall make the aforementioned records available to the EEOC 2 within fifteen (15) business days following a written request by the EEOC.

3 In the event that the EEO Consultant raises concerns about potential non-4 compliance with this Decree, the EEOC may request documents or information, 5 including interviews of witnesses, that the EEOC determines is necessary to 6 conduct an inquiry into the specific compliance issue. Defendants agree to make 7 the requested information or documents available to the EEO Consultant and the

(to Consent Decree)

ATTENTION

TO ALL INDIVIDUALS WHO ARE CURRENT OR FORMER EMPLOYEES OF ACTIVISION BLIZZARD, INC., BLIZZARD ENTERTAINMENT, INC., ACTIVISION
PUBLISHING, INC., OR KING.COM, INC., OR ANY OF THEIR SUBSIDIARIES, ANYWHERE IN THE UNITED STATES AT ANYTIME BETWEEN SEPTEMBER 1, 2016 AND MARCH 29, 2022:

The U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (“EEOC”), a United States government agency charged with enforcing the federal laws against discrimination and harassment in employment, has entered into a settlement with Activision Blizzard, Inc., Blizzard Entertainment, Inc., Activision Publishing, Inc., and King.com, Inc., and their respective subsidiaries, with employees in the United States (“Activision Blizzard Entities”), which resolves the EEOC’s Commissioner Charge, Charge Number 480-2018-05212, and U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission v. Activision Blizzard, Inc., et al., Case. No. 2:21-CV-07682-DSF-JEM, pursuant to Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. 2000e, et. seq. The EEOC’s lawsuit alleged that Activision Blizzard Entities engaged in unlawful employment practices by subjecting certain employees to sexual harassment, pregnancy discrimination, or related retaliation in violation Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. The settlement is in the form of a Consent Decree that was approved on March 29, 2022 by United States District Judge Dale S. Fischer.

As part of the settlement, the Consent Decree provides for comprehensive injunctive remedies that Activision Blizzard Entities will implement and a Settlement Fund in the amount of $18,000,000 to be distributed in amounts determined by the EEOC to “Eligible Claimants” who sign and return a Release of Claims. In the Consent Decree, “Eligible Claimant” is defined as a Claimant who, in the EEOC’s sole discretion, meets all of the following requirements:

- (i) The Claimant was employed by Activision Blizzard Entities at any time from September 1, 2016 to the Effective Date; and
- (ii) Based on the EEOC’s assessment, the Claimant could assert a viable claim for sexual harassment, pregnancy discrimination, or related retaliation.

If you were employed by Activision Blizzard Entities in the United States at any time between September 1, 2016 and March 29, 2022 and believe you were subjected to sexual harassment, pregnancy discrimination, or related retaliation during your employment, you may be eligible to receive money from the settlement.

If you are not a person who falls within this definition, you should disregard this notice.

The EEOC encourages anyone who believes they meet the above requirements to submit a “Claim Form” (attached) in this case. Participation is completely voluntary and submitting a Claim Form does not obligate you to participate further. If you wish to be considered for an offer of monetary relief in this case, you must submit the Claim Form as instructed below by the deadline of [DATE]. If you do not submit the enclosed Claim Form by the deadline, you may not be eligible to be considered for potential monetary relief from the Settlement Fund. Please note, however, that returning your Claim Form does not guarantee that you will receive monetary relief from the Settlement Fund.

The deadline for submitting this Claim Form is [DATE]. Your Claim Form must be submitted online at www.EEOCActivisionBlizzardConsentDecree.com or postmarked by [DATE] and mailed to:

E-Mail: Info@EEOCActivisionBlizzardConsentDecree.com

Please be advised that if you do not provide the information requested and return it to the Claims Administrator by the deadline, your claim may be rejected.

The EEOC will determine whether you are eligible and, if you are, what your allocation by the EEOC is in this case. The EEOC will make this determination based on consideration of the information you provide in your submitted Claim Form. The EEOC or the Claims Administrator may reach out to you by phone or email to ask questions and get further information from you if necessary. Participation in this settlement is completely voluntary.

If you are deemed eligible by the EEOC to receive monetary relief, you will receive a Notice of Eligibility and Claim Share Amount form (“Notice of Eligibility”) that will include the amount the EEOC has determined should be your monetary relief.

You will also receive a Release of Claims form from the Claims Administrator which is a separate agreement between you and Activision Blizzard Entities. The EEOC is not a party to the release of claims. Prior to signing the Release of Claims, you will have the opportunity to consult with an attorney of your choice or with an attorney selected from a list the EEOC has compiled of experienced attorneys who have confirmed they are willing to provide this consultation, to advise you on the Release of Claims. Up to one hour of such consultation will be provided at no cost to you. You must return the Release of Claims form by the deadline listed in the Notice of Eligibility to receive the Claim Share Amount.

If you are deemed ineligible, you will receive a Notice of Ineligibility that will inform you of the basis for the determination.

You may have already filled out the EEOC's e-survey questionnaire during the investigation or been interviewed by the EEOC during its investigation. The EEOC thanks you for your participation and assistance in its investigation. Please note, however, you will still need to submit a Claim Form to be considered for monetary relief even if you have previously communicated with the EEOC about your potential claims.

Please take notice that if you are or were employed by Activision Blizzard, Inc., Activision Publishing, Inc., or Blizzard Entertainment, Inc. in California, the California Department of Fair Employment and Housing ("DFEH"), a California state agency, has filed a lawsuit unrelated to the EEOC's lawsuit in the Los Angeles Superior Court against Activision Blizzard, Inc., Activision Publishing, Inc., and Blizzard Entertainment, Inc. in DFEH v. Activision Blizzard, Inc., et al., Case No. 21STCV26571. In that lawsuit, DFEH includes state law claims of sexual harassment, sex discrimination (including pay, promotion and termination/constructive discharge), retaliation, and failure to prevent harassment and discrimination. If you previously provided information to DFEH, that does not mean you have provided information to the EEOC. If you wish to be considered for monetary relief from the $18,000,000 Settlement Fund, you must submit a Claim Form as instructed herein. Again, the EEOC's settlement will compensate Eligible Claimants who experienced sexual harassment, pregnancy discrimination or related retaliation.

If you have any questions, please contact the Claims Administrator: by phone at 1-888-201-1070, by email at Info@EEOCActivisionBlizzardConsentDecree.com, or by facsimile at 1-888-326-6411, or via mail at PO Box 64053, St. Paul, MN 55164. If you have questions, you can also contact the EEOC at (213)-785-3095, Ext. 6 or ActivisionClaimants@eeoc.gov. The EEOC is available to you to answer any questions you may have throughout the claims administration process.

(to Consent Decree)

EEOC v. Activision Claim Form

If you are or were employed in the United States by Activision Blizzard, Inc., Blizzard Entertainment, Inc., Activision Publishing, Inc., or King.com, Inc., or any of their subsidiaries with employees in the United States (collectively “Activision Blizzard Entities”) and believe you were subject to sexual harassment, pregnancy discrimination, or related retaliation between September 1, 2016 and March 29, 2022, you may be eligible to receive money from the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity’s (“EEOC” or “Commission”) settlement if the EEOC determines you were a victim of sexual harassment, pregnancy discrimination, or related retaliation in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 during your employment with Activision Blizzard Entities.

To be considered for inclusion in the settlement, you must complete and return this Claim Form by [DATE] to the Claims Administrator. The EEOC will use this information to determine whether you are eligible for money from the settlement and, if so, how much. We may contact you to gather additional information when determining your eligibility to receive money from the settlement. Once the EEOC makes a determination, the EEOC will communicate with you about whether you are eligible and, if you are, what additional steps will be required in order to obtain any monetary relief. Please be sure to keep the EEOC informed about any change in your contact information; if the EEOC is unable to reach you, it may affect your ability to recover any money you are deemed eligible to receive.
