Hello, during the 2022 telecast of the Academy Awards, Will Smith physically assaulted Chris Rock on stage. This reprehensible act shocked my family and child, whom asked me innocently “ why did he hit that man?” I hope Mr Smith faces consequences for his actions as it demonstrates the wrong way to go about handling a disagreement. It also could embolden other individuals in similar events to assault people if they believe it is warranted.

The incident involving will smith and real time violence on prime time television is absolutely unacceptable and the fowl language that was mouthed from his mouth. I'm deeply offended by this and that they allowed him to stay for the rest of the show. With children watching to see a grown man walk ins rage and assault another individual over a joke and he is allowed to stay with no repercussions. This is not shocking coming from ABC as jimmy kimmel and the view are allowed to say whatever they want. The government needs to rein in on these showed as they are public broadcast and it's not cable television. Do something about ABC and the shows they broadcast. It's full of violence and hate and nothing never happens to them. Is this acceptable behavy?

Description

On the Oscars TV shot on March 27 2022 Will Smith climbed up on stage and assaulted Chris Rock on live television. Chris Rock immediately stated that Will Smith had physically assaulted him. Will Smith continued to swear at Chris Rock after he had returned to his seat. Chris Rock had not engaged Will Smith but address his wife in a joke about her bald head and GI Jane 2. Will Smith decided to approach Chris Rock and engage him in physical violence without saying a word.

The Oscars did not remove Will Smith from the audience and shortly thereafter awarded the criminal Will Smith with an award, further allowing him to go overtime in his self-serving crying speech when he proclaimed himself a protector of 3 women actresses (not including Jada Smith) and a vehicle of love. He apologized to everyone except Chris Rock and rationalized and justified his criminal violence by his love and protection, completely aware of what he had done and why, but failing to take responsibility or expressing regret to Chris Rock for his actions. Fine the Oscars and issue them a rebuke and bond wherein they must sign that they will not allow criminal acts on their show.

During the Academy Awards show being broadcast last evening, Mr Will Smith shouted profanities at least twice that were not deleted nor bleeped out. These expletives were part of a verbal assault and threat following a physical battery also being broadcast. These events are patently offensive when considered or measured with contemporary community standards used for television broadcast medium. Congress provided the FCC with the responsibility for administratively enforcing the law(s) that governs obscene, indecent and profane broadcasts. The FCC has authority to issue civil monetary penalties - please do so immediately! As a military radio operator, we were constantly informed and occasionally charged with uttering a profane word during a non-combat radio communications - with the fee being $10,000.00. It's time to charge Mr Smith with these same violations and increased fees for his repeated utterances of his selected and chosen obscene and profane words!

I was so offended and triggered to see Will Smith violently assault Chris Rock on a live family program like the Oscars. If you're are going to air this and allow ABC and Will Smith to not be held accountable they need to pay fines for this emotionally disturbing occurrence to the FCC and also all of the viewers who saw this seriously traumatic event happen live before our eyes. You go after Janet Jackson when Justin Timberlake ripped off her clothes and basically assaulted her on live TV as well. And she was the victim in that case. I want a response and what the FCC is going to do about it. The physical violence was not edited out and I could fully see what Will Smith was viciously yelling to Chris Rock this whole episode has me so shaken and ruined the Oscars and the very deserving winners due to your allowing this malicious activity on public airwaves. If you are going to allow it, you need to pay the price and also go after ABC and Will Smith for the monetary damages that now must be paid.

My 12 year old son was confused by why Will Smith marched up to the stage and smack Rock while he was about to present the best documentary award. The two started shouting at each other, you could easily understand Will Smith say "Keep my wife's name out of your f-king mouth." and Chris Rock say "Wow. Will Smith just smacked the s-t outta me," This seemed inappropriate, especially for the rating of the program.

Description

I wish to file a formal complaint about yesterday's Oscars broadcast on ABC and the incident with Will Smith physically assaulting the comedian host Chris Rock.

I don't know how this violence can be shown on a family friendly broadcast television show. Besides the violence, Will Smith then cursed several time--several times--- with no editing of his words.

I watch the Oscars with my family, it seems one of the few event shows we can all watch together. It's a special night for my children and we celebrate it with a late night viewing. My five-year-old daughter cried when he slapped Chris Rock, and started shaking when Will Smith foully cursed.

This display was disgusting, and beamed directly into our living room. I thought your agency was supposed to keep this type of violence and cursing off television. I hope you can bring sense and reason back to the public airways.

I am using this method of submitting my complaint because your website led me to this form for a formal complaint about something that appeared on television. It seems your questions ask about providers. I am severely disappointed that you have no convenient method of making a complaint about a violent episode on a family friendly show.

Live captioning was used during the Oscars telecast on ABC on Sunday, March 27, 2022, and in general it went well, except for when Will Smith slapped Chris Rock. The live captioning stopped when Chris Rock made a joke about Will Smith's wife, and did not start up again until after the commercials were done. I had to wait until the next day to find out what was said during that portion of the Oscars, from the news articles. Please have ABC take steps to ensure that no matter what happens during future Oscar telecasts, live captioning will not be affected. Thank you.

I was tramitized by seeing Will Smith assault that other poor man. I havent been able to sleep as a result. MY child was also scared.

I had to take medicine to calm me down. I think the Oscars were not child friendly and shouldn't be allowed on tv if they are going to have violent assaults LIVE.

I couldnt explain to my lgbtq son what happened and he just cried for hours.

ABC failed to post warnings prior to this year's Academy Awards which aired on 3/27/22. Not only did the show contain a violent assault on air but it also failed to censor the vulgar rant afterwards that explicitly contained the four-letter "F" word. ABC should be held accountable for the following failures: 1) They failed to take precautions to tape delay the show (like the Superbowl) to ensure no objectionable material gets broadcast. 2) ABC Failed to recognize the risk of unprofessional conduct by a large number of self-entitled actors. 3) ABC failed to post the required warnings for viewer discretion due to the show containing violence and crude language.

Here I am watching the Oscars and have to explain to children why a man went and assaulted another man on Live TV and then was rewarded for it.

No fines or anything?!

Yet Janet Jackson was stripped on live tv as well and you folks went after her in multiple ways.

Such a double standard once again....if it's men it's just boys will be boys, but when a woman is involved, you drag her through the mud and fine her?!

Fine Will Smith for promoting violence on national television.
