SUPERIOR COURT

LAFFERTY, ERICA Et Al
V.
JONES, ALEX EMRIC Et AlJUDICIAL DISTRICT OF WATERBURY
AT WATERBURY

3/30/2022

ORDERORDER REGARDING:
03/30/2022 786.00 MOTION TO REARGUE/RECONSIDER

The foregoing, having been considered by the Court, is hereby:

ORDER: DENIED

It would be inappropriate for the plaintiffs to serve a re-notice of deposition on Mr. Jones, as it is now entirely up to Mr. Jones as to whether and when he will be deposed. Mr. Jones is in contempt of court, and in order to purge the contempt, it is incumbent upon him, if he so desires, to provide, on two occasions, a minimum of 24 hours notice of his attendance at a weekday deposition at the office of plaintiffs' counsel in Bridgeport, and to actually sit for the depositions. Plaintiffs' counsel are expected to conduct the depositions provided that the minimum of 24 hours notice has been given to all parties. As such, the order stands. The court has imposed a $25,000 per-weekday fine commencing on Friday April 1, 2022, increasing by $25,000 per-weekday until Mr. Jones sits for two days of depositions, and the fine is stayed on the days that Mr. Jones attends his deposition.

Judicial Notice (JDNO) was sent regarding this order.

1 THE COURT: All right. Good afternoon,
2 everyone. This is Judge Bellis and we are on the 3 record in the three consolidated Lafferty versus 4 Jones matters. Lead docket number Waterbury 18-5 6046436.

6 Before I have counsel identify themselves for 7 the record, I noted that there was no objection to 8 the request from the media to tape the matter, so
9 that is noted and that can commence and so I'll -- I
10 have a few housekeeping matters of my own, but before
11 I address that, I'll have plaintiffs' counsel please 12 identify themselves for the record and then defense 13 counsel.

14 ATTY. MATTEI: Good afternoon, Your Honor.
15 Chris Mattei on behalf of the plaintiffs, joined by 16 my colleagues, Alinor Sterling and Matt Blumenthal.

17 ATTY. ATKINSON: Good afternoon, Judge. Cameron
18 Atkinson from Pattis and Smith on behalf of the Jones 19 defendants.

20 ATTY. CERAME: Good afternoon, Your Honor.
21 Mario Cerame of Brignole, Bush and Lewis for Genesis 22 Communication Network, Incorporated.

23 THE COURT: Good afternoon, everyone. So my 24 first housekeeping matter was, Attorney Cerame, I
25 know you had one issue, but I wasn't sure if you
26 wanted to address it today before we have our hearing
27 or if you wanted to address it at the next status

1 conference which is fine with the Court. Did you
2 have a preference?

3 ATTY. CERAME: Yes. I -- I was hoping to mark
4 it off for now. Principally, the issue -- For two 5 reasons. Number one, fact witness discovery is not 6 done and so I don't think we can properly move it
7 until fact witness discovery is done. I identified 8 the reason for that in the motion. And secondarily, 9 there is a hope that things will resolve, so I would 10 --

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 ATTY. CERAME: -- just mark it off for now and I 13 hope that that will -- that -- that we'll be able to 14 proceed after fact witness discovery is done or 15 withdraw, one or the other.

16 THE COURT: All right. So you're referring to 17 your motion to withdraw appearance. So that will be 18 on the very short list of items that we carry -- will 19 carry over without addressing it. So I will keep 20 that on the list and when you have a definitive
21 answer, you'll let me know, but I understand that it 22 won't be addressed at the next status conference.

23 ATTY. CERAME: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

24 THE COURT: So Attorney Mattei, are you arguing 25 for the plaintiffs today?

26 ATTY. MATTEI: Yes, Your Honor.

27 THE COURT: And Attorney Atkinson, are you

1 arguing for the Jones defendants?

2 ATTY. ATKINSON: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: And Attorney Cerame, I don't want to 4 leave you out. That's always my fear. Are you going 5 to look to be heard today on these issues or are you 6 just a bystander?

7 ATTY. CERAME: I think I -- We do not have any 8 skin in the game, Your Honor. I think it's best for 9 us to be a bystander.

10 THE COURT: Okay. I'm not sure that it's 11 necessary to say this, but I am going to say it 12 anyway before I mute myself and let everyone take 13 over. But this -- The argument today is on the 14 plaintiffs' motion for sanctions regarding Mr. Jones' 15 failure to appear for his depositions and then the 16 Jones defendants' objections thereto. We're going to 17 confine ourselves to that argument, so I'm not 18 looking -- I don't want to hear anything about 19 settlement offers. I don't want any -- You know, 20 this isn't a press conference. This is formal 21 argument of a motion, so I don't know that I needed 22 to say it, but I want to confine ourselves to the 23 proper argument that's before the Court today.

24 So my first question before I turn to Attorney
25 Mattei and mute myself is: Attorney Mattei, are you 26 presenting any new evidence today or is this solely 27 argument?

1 ATTY. MATTEI: Your Honor, we don't intend to 2 present any evidence during the hearing today. We 3 would ask that the Court accept as evidence the 4 exhibits that we've attached to our pleadings and 5 also the exhibits that the Jones defendants attached 6 to their pleadings in connection with this motion.
7 That, we think, is the record and -- and should be 8 sufficient for the Court to make any findings it 9 needs to make.

10 THE COURT: All right. Well, it's -- The way
11 I'm looking at it, it is already part of the Court 12 record by way of being attached as exhibits to the 13 motions.

14 And so, Attorney Atkinson, please, the same
15 question to you: Are you presenting any new evidence
16 today or are we proceeding on what's been submitted 17 to date?

18 ATTY. ATKINSON: Your Honor, as far as what 19 we're prepared to do today, we were proceeding on 20 what's been submitted. I would just note for the 21 record that -- that if you -- your intention is to 22 take up the motion for contempt today, we would 23 request additional law time to prepare witnesses for 24 -- to decide whether we're preparing witnesses for 25 that sort of a hearing.

26 THE COURT: That -- That is what is down today.
27 What is down today, which is clear, is the

1 plaintiffs' motions -- motion for sanctions which 2 request different relief including contempt and other
3 items and your objections thereto, so I am prepared
4 to proceed today because that is the clear agenda 5 that we all had.

6 What I think would be helpful to the Court would 7 be during plaintiffs' argument, if plaintiffs can 8 outline the relief that they're seeking and then if 9 the defendants can respond in kind to each of the 10 different areas of relief that the plaintiff is 11 raising with the Court. That would be helpful.

12 So at this point, I'm going to mute my 13 microphone and turn the floor over to Attorney Mattei 14 for his argument.

15 ATTY. MATTEI: Thank you, Your Honor. Your 16 Honor, I think the Court is pretty well apprised of 17 the facts that have been developed last week and in 18 our pleadings here, so I don't want to belabor what 19 was presented to the Court last week while we were in 20 Texas preparing to take Mr. Jones' deposition. I -- 21 I would just say that in terms of the orders that the 22 Court entered last week directing Mr. Jones to appear 23 for his deposition, both on March 23rd and then 24 subsequently on March 24th, we believe that the 25 record establishes that those orders were clear,
26 direct; that counsel for the defendants acknowledged 27 an understanding of those orders; and then later on

1 the record of Mr. Jones' deposition on March 24th
2 conceded that Mr. Jones himself understood that those 3 orders required him to attend his deposition and that 4 he had elected not to.

5 I also -- And so it -- When it comes to the 6 initial issue of whether the Court entered clear 7 orders directing Mr. Jones to appear, we think that 8 that has been clearly established. With respect to 9 Mr. Jones' willful disregard of the Court's orders, 10 we think the circumstances laid out in your pleadings
11 establish that Mr. Jones did so willfully and there 12 are several key factors, I think, to keep in mind.
13 They're -- Number one being counsel's own concession 14 on the record that Mr. Jones understood he was 15 required to be at his deposition and had declined to 16 show; the fact that the Court had given Mr. Jones
17 multiple opportunities to present evidence to support 18 a finding that he should be excused from attending;
19 and that the Court had found he had failed to do 20 that; and then of course Mr. Jones' appearance on his 21 show over the course of March 21st, 22nd, by way of 22 reporting on March 23rd, an apparent disregard of his 23 own doctor's orders, if in fact, that's what his 24 orders -- his doctors instructed him to do and 25 clearly showing an ability to appear for deposition 26 had he wished to comply with the Court's orders.

27 Getting to the -- the Court's request that we

1 focus on the relief that we're seeking, we are asking 2 essentially for the Court to set conditions that will 3 coerce Mr. Jones to appear for his deposition. What 4 we want more than anything else is for Mr. Jones to 5 sit for his deposition which is why the relief that 6 we've requested is conditional on him doing that.

7 So for example, we've requested that the Court
8 instruct the jury at the hearing in damages that it 9 should draw an adverse inference against Mr. Jones on 10 any issue relating to damages in light of his refusal
11 to be deposed in this case and that the Court enter 12 those findings, but withdraw that order should Mr.
13 Jones appear for his deposition. We've asked the 14 Court to order that Mr. Jones will not be permitted 15 to present any evidence -- affirmative evidence at 16 the hearing in damages should he fail to appear for 17 his deposition. We've asked the Court to incarcerate
18 Mr. Jones until he purges his contempt and we think 19 that that type of sanction is required here given the 20 -- the long trail of conduct Mr. Jones has engaged in 21 during the course of this case in order to induce him 22 to comply with the Court's order and we've asked the 23 Court to impose a fine on a daily basis up until the 24 time Mr. Jones purges his contempt, which fine will 25 revert to Mr. Jones when he does submit to 26 deposition.

27 So all of the relief that we've -- we've

1 requested, we think is in line with requiring Mr.
2 Jones to purge himself of his contempt and in line 3 with the -- the main goal here which is just to 4 change Mr. Jones' calculus. It seems to us that Mr.
5 Jones has made a deliberate decision that he would 6 rather suffer the contempt of the Court than expose
7 himself to deposition and so what we've tried to do
8 in fashioning the relief we've requested is change 9 that calculus to make it clear to Mr. Jones that the 10 penalties that will accrue to him as a result of his 11 further non-compliance are not worth it and that he 12 should sit for deposition in order to avoid them.

13 So -- And then of course, Your Honor, we've 14 asked for the -- the costs and fees incurred by the 15 plaintiffs in their attempt to take Mr. Jones' 16 deposition and then in their attempts to brief to the 17 Court why he should be required to sit for his 18 deposition last week and we've presented those costs 19 and fees in our motion.

20 So those are the different components of the 21 relief that we are seeking. Again, all of which we 22 think are reasonably designed to compel Mr. Jones to 23 comply with the Court's orders to sit for his 24 deposition and reflect the seriousness of the 25 violation that he -- that he committed last week.

26 You're muted, Judge.

27 THE COURT: Trying to be polite. I had a

1 question. Am I correct in that the specifics with 2 respect to the attorney's fees and costs that you're 3 claiming and the specifics with respect to the 4 adverse inferences and preclusions of ever -- 5 evidence, the specifics were not in your original 6 motion, but in your reply brief that was filed today?

7 ATTY. MATTEI: Correct, Your Honor. Correct.

8 THE COURT: All right. So I think as a matter 9 just of fundamental fairness that because costs and 10 fees and the adverse inferences and preclusions of 11 evidence were requested in the original motion that 12 you filed and then requested in the new motion for 13 sanctions, but there were no specifics, that I can 14 expect Attorney Atkinson to address overall the 15 topics of whether costs and fees should be awarded or 16 whether there should be any adverse inference or 17 evidence preclusions, but if the Court does believe 18 either or both are in order, any specifics would be 19 held to another day because that -- the specific 20 information on the amounts and the details were not 21 filed until your reply brief today and I don't think 22 that's sufficient time for the Jones defendants to 23 respond.

24 ATTY. MATTEI: One -- One note on the specifics, 25 Your Honor, with respect to the factual findings, 26 what -- what we tried to do in our reply was 27 articulate factual findings relating to Mr. Jones'

1 non-appearance, but because the facts that will be 2 presented at trial are not yet specifically known, 3 what we've indicated is that or what we've asked for 4 is for an adverse inference instruction specific to 5 issues that are later presented at trial on the 6 question of damages.

7 So in some ways, it's -- it's really impossible 8 for us to articulate with -- with precision what 9 inferences the jury would be asked to draw. We've 10 kind of set out a category where we expect there to 11 be multiple facts presented at trial, but anyway, I 12 just wanted to explain why we did it that way.

13 THE COURT: All right. But in -- In any event, 14 if Mr. Jones produces himself for a deposition, that 15 issue on the adverse inferences and evidence 16 preclusion would not need to be addressed, correct?

17 ATTY. MATTEI: Correct, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Did I interrupt you?

19 ATTY. MATTEI: That's all I have, Judge.

20 THE COURT: Oh, okay.

21 ATTY. MATTEI: Unless you have any questions.

22 THE COURT: I do not besides the ones that I
23 asked.

24 Attorney Atkinson?

25 ATTY. ATKINSON: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

26 If -- I would ask the Court's indulgence to bear with 27 me as I have a bit of a shaky internet connection

1 today.

2 Your Honor, at the outset, Mr. Jones recognizes 3 that the plaintiffs have a right to take his 4 deposition. He recognizes that he has to sit for one 5 in this case. He sat for three, by my account, in 6 cases relating to the Sandy Hook litigation in Texas.

7 As our motions and papers have indicated, what 8 has occurred here is he's ultimately listened to his 9 doctor's advice. There are two critical points that 10 I -- I think bear without hyperbolizing all of them 11 in the world. First, initially and today, there was 12 an uncontroverted record before this Court and there 13 still is that Mr. Jones' doctors thought his 14 conditions were serious enough to require emergency
15 medical care and that they rendered precautionary 16 advice that included a recommendation that he go to 17 the emergency room immediately. Mr. Jones had --

18 THE COURT: Attorney Atkinson, I have a question
19 in that regard. When you say uncontroverted record, 20 you're not suggesting to the Court that the Court had 21 to accept the evidence that was submitted as opposed 22 to evaluating the evidence to determine if it was 23 credible, genuine, reasonable, and the like?

24 ATTY. ATKINSON: Not at -- at all, Your Honor.
25 I'm not in any way suggesting to you not to do your 26 job as a judge. That -- That would be crazy, in my 27 view. What I am telling -- suggesting to you is --

1 is what has been presented to you shows without a
2 shadow of a doubt that Mr. Jones' doctors, the people
3 that he has sought his medical attention from, were 4 making these recommendations and that that kind of 5 leads into where I -- where I was going.

6 Mr. Jones had no desire to go to the emergency 7 room and I think most of us would share his lack of 8 enthusiasm for going to the emergency room. What we 9 had happen here was it took some serious persuading 10 for him to recognize the seriousness of his 11 condition, to follow his doctor's advice to avoid 12 stress until they cleared him to incur it again.

13 Second -- The second point that I think bears 14 emphasizing is Mr. Jones has never sought to 15 indefinitely postpone his deposition or to escape it 16 entirely in this case. All he sought is to postpone 17 it temporarily until his doctors cleared him to sit 18 for it. A deposition is a stressful undertaking and 19 with all due courtesies to my adversaries' accolades, 20 they are experienced attorneys of the bar. They've 21 had a long -- long and storied careers. It's a 22 stressful undertaking to go through two consecutive 23 days of depositions --

24 THE COURT: So Attorney Atkinson, I hear what 25 you're saying. I truly do. On the one hand, though, 26 you're telling me that he sat for depositions in the 27 past so he -- it's not like he's a neophyte at

1 depositions and there was nothing in the record to 2 suggest either that the doctor that said don't attend 3 the deposition even knew what a deposition was and 4 there was nothing -- no evidence that was submitted 5 from Mr. Jones or from anyone else that said it would 6 be stressful or that he found it stressful or that 7 the stress would exacerbate or endanger his health.

8 I just want to make sure that we have a clear
9 record. I hear what you're saying though. I do.
10 Continue.

11 ATTY. ATKINSON: And I -- I -- I think that goes
12 to where I'm heading, Your Honor, is -- and I -- I 13 don't mean to belabor the point or challenge your 14 earlier statement, but this is the reason why we 15 stated in our motion papers that Mr. Jones does not 16 waive his rights under Quin -- the Quin -- the Cooley 17 case to have an opportunity to present evidence as to 18 these issues.

19 Again, I'm not going to challenge your ruling on 20 that, but I -- I do want to make the record clear as 21 to that. This Court should not hold Mr. Jones in 22 contempt.

23 He -- There was a carveout to Your Honor's order 24 of if he experienced escalating symptoms that 25 required the need -- required him to be hospitalized, 26 that he would not need to attend his deposition. As 27 I --

1 THE COURT: So let me stop you there, Attorney
2 Atkinson. I don't -- No evidence was submitted to 3 the Court after that order. There's no evidence
4 whatsoever that there were -- and I believe my exact 5 language was escalating symptoms such that he was 6 hospitalized because, of course, it would be 7 unreasonable for the Court to order anyone to attend
8 a deposition when a medical professional -- a valid 9 medical professional actually admitted him to the 10 hospital, but I never was given any evidence that 11 suggested he had escalating symptoms such that he was 12 hospitalized and that was the only carveout. I think 13 we would all agree that it would be not a good thing
14 to -- to require someone who's hospitalized to attend
15 a deposition.

16 ATTY. ATKINSON: I --

17 THE COURT: Do you understand differently? Do
18 you understand that there was actual evidence
19 submitted to the Court that he developed escalating 20 symptoms such that he was hospitalized?

21 ATTY. ATKINSON: No, Your Honor, and what -- not 22 -- again, not to belabor the point, but the -- this 23 is why we believe additional time is necessary. The 24 -- The plaintiffs' motion for contempt was filed on a 25 Friday. It's incredibly hard to gather evidence in 26 three to four days and we would -- we would submit 27 that alone is enough for a reason for more time to

1 enable us to determine whether such evidence exists
2 that we -- in a form that we can present it to you.

3 It's -- In -- In our view, the Court's orders 4 created a difficult choice for Mr. Jones. He was 5 advised that if he incurred stress, that the 6 consequences to his health could prove disastrous.
7 While we freely concede he did not listen to the 8 initial recommendations that his doctors made and, as 9 I stated earlier, it took some persuading to get him 10 to take this seriously, he ultimately did listen to 11 his doctor's directives. The Court's order put him 12 in an extraordinary difficult -- extraordinarily 13 difficult position in that --

14 THE COURT: Attorney Atkinson, can I --

15 ATTY. ATKINSON: -- in that --

16 THE COURT: Can I please get back to an earlier 17 point that you made with respect to the submitting 18 additional evidence? So this hearing today was 19 scheduled one week ago. It was scheduled one week 20 ago today. I never received any motion for 21 continuance, formally or informally, from any party 22 indicating that more time was needed to arrange for 23 witness testimony or other -- other evidence. If I
24 had, I would have ruled on it.

25 So I just want to make sure the record is clear 26 on that. And I did notice, much to my surprise, and 27 I was delighted that the defendants' briefs, which

1 were due yesterday at 10 o'clock, were actually filed 2 a full day early, so the briefs were --

3 ATTY. ATKINSON: Your Honor, that --

4 THE COURT: -- early. I was then hoping that 5 plaintiffs' counsel would file theirs early, but they 6 just made their deadline, but continue with your 7 argument.

8 ATTY. ATKINSON: Your Honor, that may have been 9 due to me misreading the deadline for the briefs and 10 I may have inadvertently moved it up a day earlier.
11 I can represent with full confidence to the Court
12 that I was working as if the deadlines for the brief
13 were the ten -- 10 o'clock before I submitted it.

14 THE COURT: All right. Well, you did a terrific 15 job and I think we all probably worked over the 16 weekend, but in any event, the deadline was actually 17 yesterday, but -- for -- for the brief and again, no
18 continuance request, but I did -- I did interrupt you
19 and I'll give you as much time as you need, so
20 continue.

21 ATTY. ATKINSON: Thank you, Your Honor. Turning 22 to -- So just to wrap up, we -- we believe the Court
23 should not hold Mr. Jones in contempt, but if you 24 decide to hold him in contempt, the -- the first -- 25 the most important consideration that we would ask
26 you to take into account is not to issue an arrest
27 warrant for Mr. Jones. It is clear, at least before

1 -- before -- in the record before you, in our view,
2 that Mr. Jones has experienced some health problems.
3 We would submit that issuing an arrest warrant for 4 Mr. Jones procuring his incarceration would only 5 serve to exacerbate those health concerns and that 6 alone should counsel against the issuance of that -- 7 that warrant.

8 And also, as I stated earlier, Mr. Jones
9 recognizes that he must give a deposition in this 10 case. He recognizes that he must sit for one. An 11 arrest warrant would be a step -- would be a drastic 12 step towards procuring his attendance.

13 With respect to sanctions as to what -- what -- 14 pardon me, Your Honor. I'm consulting my notes for a 15 second. With respect to the adverse inferences, Your 16 Honor, if he doesn't depose, I think that's a bit 17 premature at this point. In terms of the denial of 18 an opportunity to present any evidence at trial, it
19 is -- in our view, would raise a due process concern 20 of sorts there. We believe that, if anything, an 21 order from this Court and the escalating fines are 22 sufficient to pro -- procure Mr. Jones' attendance.

23 And then finally, Your Honor, I did want to 24 address the -- in terms of just generally not the 25 specific -- the specifics, but in terms of attorney's 26 fees and costs, I believe we cited the Berzins case 27 in our motion papers where you must make a finding

1 that he has acted -- Mr. Jones has acted in bad
2 faith. Again, relying on the fact that Mr. Jones was 3 getting -- was listening to his doctors. He heeded
4 his doctors, et cetera. He's not sought to 5 permanently delay or escape his deposition in this 6 case and he forwent his deposition pending the 7 results of further medical tests.

8 Given the fact that he just went through a 9 remarkable pandemic where that -- we have all been 10 dependent on expert's advice, doctor's advice as to 11 who is at risk for what and we've deferred to those 12 recommendations, we would submit that the same wise
13 course of conduct here was to defer to that and it 14 was not an action taken in bad faith.

15 And with that, unless Your Honor has further 16 questions for me, I will rest on the papers.

17 THE COURT: I do not. Thank you, Attorney 18 Atkinson.

19 Attorney Mattei?

20 ATTY. MATTEI: Just briefly in response, Your 21 Honor. First, my own omission, I neglected to 22 mention that among the sanctions that we're seeking 23 is that should Mr. Jones appear for his deposition, 24 that he be required to appear in Connecticut and we 25 raised that in our initial motion and then again in 26 our reply. The -- At least in their papers, the 27 defendants did not object to that and so we would ask

1 that when the Court orders his deposition, it do so
2 in Connecticut.

3 Just in response to a couple of the points from 4 Attorney Atkinson, one, on the claim that 5 incarceration at this point would only exacerbate Mr.
6 Jones' health issues, whatever they may be, there is 7 no evidence in the record as to what his current 8 health status is other than what we presented to the 9 Court as being drawn from his March 25th broadcast in 10 which we cited to his broadcast and his claim that he 11 feels like a new person after whatever purported 12 health scare he claimed to have had brought about by 13 a sinus blockage. So there is no evidence that has 14 been presented despite ample opportunity by the 15 defendants to suggest that incarceration pending his 16 deposition would exacerbate any health problems.

17 I don't want to relitigate the evidence that was 18 previously presented to the Court on his medical 19 issues. The Court has reviewed the letter and the 20 affidavits that were submitted by Doctor Marble and 21 Doctor Offutt and found them wanting, found the 22 initial letter submitted by Doctor Marble to -- to 23 not be credible evidence justifying Mr. Jones'
24 excusal, so as far as we're concerned, the Court has 25 already made the findings it needs to make with 26 respect to the excuses that were proffered by -- by 27 Mr. Jones and -- and Your Honor, I think that's all I

1 have in -- in reply to Attorney Atkinson. Thank you.

2 THE COURT: Attorney Atkinson, I'm going to give 3 you a brief opportunity to respond, although I 4 normally wouldn't, to argue again if you want on the 5 issue of the location of the deposition. It was 6 clear to me that in all of the plaintiffs' moving 7 papers they were looking for the deposition to take 8 place in Connecticut at their offices and also, I --
9 I'm somewhat surprised that I -- I actually thought
10 that you -- whoever was arguing for Mr. Jones today
11 would come in and make some kind of offer, you know,
12 to the Court, don't -- we don't want sanctions; we're 13 willing to sit for a deposition on Monday or Friday.

14 Is that -- So if you want to address either or 15 both of those issues, you have an opportunity to. If 16 you don't, that's fine too. It's up to you.

17 ATTY. ATKINSON: Yes. I would -- I would love
18 to, Your Honor. Mr. Jones is willing to sit for a 19 deposition. We would ask both the Court and 20 plaintiffs' counsel to take into consideration that 21 he is unavailable during the first week of April and 22 towards the end of April. I can reveal, as I am 23 authorized to reveal, that at the end of April he 24 will be engaged in trial prep for a case occurring in 25 Texas. We would offer to make him available the week
26 of April 11th for a deposition if the Court orders 27 it.

1 With respect to the issue of him appearing in 2 Connecticut, that would certainly be within the -- 3 the Court's province to order. We -- We obviously 4 understand that. We obviously understand that it
5 would present a burden to Mr. Jones to travel here 6 and one of the considerations in specific -- 7 specifically that we would raise is to Mr. Jones.
8 And I am a bit reluctant to put this on the record,
9 but we understand that plaintiffs' counsel enforces a 10 fairly strict Covid protocol at their offices
11 including the wearing of masks, et cetera, something 12 that Mr. Jones is not willing to do and we would ask 13 that to be taken into consideration as well.

14 I believe that -- that's all the issues that you 15 were giving me an opportunity to address, Your Honor.
16 If I missed anything, feel free to remind me.

17 THE COURT: Thank you.

18 All right. So I'm going to order a transcript
19 of the following remarks and when it is prepared, I
20 will sign it and place it in the file.

21 So with respect to depositions in general, under
22 our rules of practice, particularly Practice Book
23 Section 13-29 Subsection (c) Subsection (2), the 24 plaintiffs were not required to subpoena Mr. Jones.
25 The plaintiffs properly issued a notice of deposition
26 on Mr. Jones, a defendant, which notice compelled him
27 to appear for a deposition in the county he resides

1 or within 30 miles of his residence and that was done
2 properly.

3 On Tuesday, March 22nd, the Court, after
4 argument on the record, denied the Jones defendants'
5 motion for protective order that had been filed
6 earlier that day and that had asked the Court to 7 postpone Mr. Jones' depositions which were scheduled
8 to take place on Wednesday the 23rd and Thursday the 9 24th. The Jones defendants were given an immediate 10 opportunity to argue their motion the same day it was 11 filed and both the evidence that was submitted and 12 the argument that was made indicated that Mr. Jones
13 was remaining at home under his doctor's supervision
14 when, in fact, he was working at his studios and 15 broadcasting his show.

16 Additionally, the Court painstakingly explained
17 on the record that its in-camera review evaluating
18 the doctor's note submitted by the Jones defendants
19 revealed that the note fell far short. Despite that 20 ruling, Mr. Jones did not appear for his deposition
21 on Wednesday, March 23rd.

22 In denying the Jones defendants' motion, the 23 Court clearly stated that while the logistics of the 24 depositions were left to the parties, the parties
25 could consider having Mr. Jones' physician on the 26 premises during the deposition.

27 On Wednesday, March 23rd, following the filing

1 of the plaintiffs' motion for order, which was filed
2 that day, and the Jones defendants' objection, which
3 was also filed that day, the Court, again on the 4 record after a hearing from counsel, ordered Mr.
5 Jones to appear for his deposition on Thursday, March
6 24th.

7 Despite these rulings from the Court, Mr. Jones
8 did not appear for his deposition on Wednesday, March 9 23rd and he did not appear for his deposition on 10 Thursday, March 24th. Immediately following the 11 hearing on the record on March 23rd, the Court also 12 ordered Mr. Jones, in writing, to appear for his 13 March 24th deposition stating, "The defendant, Alex
14 Jones, is ordered to produce himself tomorrow for his 15 duly noticed deposition as he has not submitted
16 additional evidence for the Court to evaluate on the 17 issue of his alleged medical conditions."

18 Additionally, after the parties filed briefs
19 relating to the plaintiffs' request for a capias, the 20 Court issued a second written order on March 23rd
21 declining to issue a capias at that time, indicating 22 that Mr. Jones would be in contempt of the Court's 23 order should he not appear for his deposition on 24 March 24th and setting a briefing schedule with 25 respect to the other sanctions requested by the 26 plaintiff.

27 Furthermore, after an additional motion for

1 protective order was filed by the Jones defendants at 2 the end of the day on Wednesday, March 23rd, the
3 Court, after evaluating the motions and affidavits,
4 denied the motion in writing and made clear that the 5 Court-ordered deposition was to proceed the next day,
6 although he would be excused from the deposition if 7 he was hospitalized. No such evidence of 8 hospitalization or, in fact, any other evidence has
9 been submitted to the Court, although the motions
10 that have been filed are replete with references to 11 Mr. Jones either broadcasting live from his studio,
12 recording shows, or calling into shows during the 13 time period in question.

14 So while the parties and counsel abided by the 15 Court-ordered deadlines with respect to the filing of 16 their briefs, Mr. Jones, as I said, did not appear
17 for his deposition on Thursday, March 24th.

18 So this hearing today is dealing with the 19 plaintiffs' motions relating to Mr. Jones' failure to 20 appear for his depositions on March 23rd and March
21 24th despite all these Court orders and Jones
22 defendants' objections thereto.

23 Now, I have to note, at this point we're maybe
24 16 or 17 weeks away from jury selection and Mr. Jones
25 has not even been deposed. So we're four years into 26 this case and the Court has repeatedly entered new 27 deadlines for witness depositions and the newest

1 deadline, as far as I know, is April 8th in this long
2 series of modifying scheduling orders for
3 depositions.

4 I have to say that due to these repeated
5 extensions, the several prior trial dates, as well as 6 the age of the case, the existing trial date, which 7 is jury selection on August 2nd and evidence on 8 September 1st, is a firm trial date and parties and 9 counsel should plan accordingly.

10 The Court's authority here is rooted not only in 11 Practice Book Section 13-14, but the Court also has 12 inherent sanctioning power. With respect to the 13 issue of contempt, the Court finds by clear and
14 convincing evidence that the defendant, Alex Jones,
15 willfully and in bad faith violated without 16 justification several clear Court orders requiring 17 his attendance at his depositions on March 23rd and 18 March 24th. That is, the Court finds that Mr. Jones
19 intentionally failed to comply with the orders of the 20 Court and that there was no adequate factual basis to 21 explain his failures to obey the orders of the Court.

22 Now, while the Court has adjudicated Mr. Jones
23 in contempt, Mr. Jones himself has the ability to 24 purge the contempt and Mr. Jones is on notice that he
25 has the ability to purge the contempt and the Court
26 has the power to reduce the fines that it is going to 27 impose once the contempt has been purged as follows:

1 The contempt will be purged when Mr. Jones completes
2 two full days of depositions at the office of 3 plaintiffs' counsel in Bridgeport. Mr. Jones is to 4 pay conditional fines of $25,000 each weekday
5 beginning on Friday, April 1st, increasing by $25,000
6 per weekday payable to the Clerk of the Court in 7 Waterbury and it will be suspended on each day that
8 Mr. Jones successfully completes a full day's 9 deposition where Mr. Jones has given all counsel a
10 minimum of 24 hours' notice of his availability to 11 sit for that particular deposition.

12 So for example, if Mr. Jones' counsel this 13 afternoon informs counsel that Mr. Jones will sit for 14 his deposition on Friday -- that's sufficient notice
15 to the parties, that's 24 hours -- and if he 16 successfully appears and sits for his deposition on 17 Friday, there will be no fine.

18 Another example: If Mr. Jones' counsel this 19 afternoon informs counsel that Mr. Jones will sit for 20 his deposition on Tuesday, April 5th and he does so
21 successfully, the fine will be $25,000 for this
22 Friday, April 1st. There will be no fine on Saturday
23 or Sunday and there will be a $50,000 fine on Monday
24 for a total fine of $75,000 to that point and so on.

25 The last day for the fines will be April 15th
26 and that then gives Mr. Jones an opportunity to purge
27 the contempt by producing himself for two full days

1 of deposition by April 15th. The Court recognizes
2 that this fine, while a conditional fine, is also 3 coercive, but finds that it is reasonable and
4 necessary in this matter and again points out that
5 Mr. Jones himself has the opportunity to complete his 6 deposition and then request reimbursement of the 7 fines that the Court has imposed.

8 The Court declines to issue a capias, although 9 it recognizes that the plaintiffs may pursue that
10 with the Texas Courts if they so desire.

11 The Court also finds that the plaintiffs are 12 entitled to fees and costs in connection with the 13 cancelled depositions that was requested in earlier 14 motions and the details of which were provided in the 15 briefs that were just filed today, so as I indicated
16 earlier, for that reason, the Court will address the 17 amount of the fees and costs that will be awarded at 18 the next hearing giving the Jones defendants adequate
19 time to respond.

20 It is clear, however, that the plaintiffs here
21 simply want and are entitled to the deposition of Mr.
22 Jones and that Mr. Jones has continued to attempt to 23 deliberately disregard the Court's orders and 24 attempts to manipulate the Court process. While 25 paying the fees and costs will reimburse the 26 plaintiffs for the costs incurred in attempting to 27 procure Mr. Jones' deposition, it is not a substitute

1 for his testimony. As such, should Mr. Jones not
2 complete his two full days of depositions by April
3 15, the Court finds that the preclusion of evidence,
4 that is, preventing Mr. Jones from offering evidence
5 which would include calling witnesses, cross-
6 examining witnesses, and the like, and adverse
7 inferences, that is, the establishment of certain
8 facts adverse to the Jones defendants, would be an 9 order as a remedy for non-compliance, the extent of 10 which is a very significant issue and would require
11 extensive briefing and argument from counsel.

12 That is not something, hopefully, that will have 13 to be addressed because Mr. Jones has the ability by 14 April 15th to purge himself of the contempt and avoid 15 any issue, preclusion, or adverse inferences. So if 16 and when that becomes an issue, if he has not
17 submitted to his two full days of deposition by April
18 15th, then the Court will set up a briefing schedule
19 to address issue preclusion and adverse inferences.
20 So really, it will be up to Mr. Jones.

21 All right. So I think that concludes our 22 business for today.

23 Our next status conference, Mr. Ferraro, do you
24 have that date handy? I know that we have to deal 25 with a motion to seal on that date.

26 THE COURT OFFICER: That would be April 20th,
27 Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: All right. It will be here before 2 you know it and then we'll have a good idea at that 3 point, since it's five days after our deadline, 4 what's in store.

5 All right. Thank you, counsel. I want to thank 6 you, and I mean this, for your very thorough and 7 helpful briefs and your professional argument today.

8 ATTY. MATTEI: Your Honor, thank you. May I
9 just raise one unrelated issue? We filed a motion on 10 consent for a commission to issue with respect to the 11 deposition of Rob Dew and since our next status 12 conference isn't until the 20th, I just wanted to put 13 that on the Court's radar because I don't expect -- 14 in fact, I know there won't be any responsive 15 briefing because all parties consent, but I just 16 wanted to focus the Court on it.

17 THE COURT OFFICER: Your Honor, I believe you 18 granted that.

19 ATTY. MATTEI: Oh, has it been granted? Okay.

20 THE COURT OFFICER: I believe so.

21 ATTY. MATTEI: Thank you. I apologize.

22 THE COURT OFFICER: Let me check to be sure 23 because --

24 THE COURT: I did. I granted it last night.

25 ATTY. MATTEI: I hadn't seen it. Thank you,
26 Your Honor.

27 THE COURT: I think -- You're not the only ones

1 that have been working on the weekends and at night
2 on this --

3 ATTY. MATTEI: Oh, I know.

4 THE COURT: -- just so you know, so --

5 ATTY. MATTEI: I know.

6 THE COURT: -- Attorney Atkinson, I hear what 7 you're saying about having to file your brief. We've 8 all been working hard.

9 ATTY. MATTEI: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 ATTY. ATKINSON: Your Honor, on that note, with 11 respect to any contesting of the fees and costs,
12 would -- are we allowed to file a written submission 13 as to that?

14 THE COURT: Absolutely. You can --

15 ATTY. ATKINSON: Thank you. We'll have that in 16 before April 20th and hopefully well in advance, Your 17 Honor.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you for that.

19 And we are adjourned. Thank you, counsel.

20 ATTY. MATTEI: Thank you.

21 ATTY. ATKINSON: Thank you, Your Honor.

22 ATTY. CERAME: Thank you, Your Honor.

23 (The matter concluded.)

2 proceedings:)

3 THE COURT: Thank you.

4 All right. So I'm going to order a transcript
5 of the following remarks and when it is prepared, I
6 will sign it and place it in the file.

7 So with respect to depositions in general, under
8 our rules of practice, particularly Practice Book
9 Section 13-29 Subsection (c) Subsection (2), the
10 plaintiffs were not required to subpoena Mr. Jones.
11 The plaintiffs properly issued a notice of deposition
12 on Mr. Jones, a defendant, which notice compelled him
13 to appear for a deposition in the county he resides
14 or within 30 miles of his residence and that was done
15 properly.

16 On Tuesday, March 22nd, the Court, after
17 argument on the record, denied the Jones defendants'
18 motion for protective order that had been filed
19 earlier that day and that had asked the Court to 20 postpone Mr. Jones' depositions which were scheduled
21 to take place on Wednesday the 23rd and Thursday the 22 24th. The Jones defendants were given an immediate 23 opportunity to argue their motion the same day it was 24 filed and both the evidence that was submitted and
25 the argument that was made indicated that Mr. Jones
26 was remaining at home under his doctor's supervision
27 when, in fact, he was working at his studios and

1 broadcasting his show.

2 Additionally, the Court painstakingly explained
3 on the record that its in-camera review evaluating
4 the doctor's note submitted by the Jones defendants
5 revealed that the note fell far short. Despite that
6 ruling, Mr. Jones did not appear for his deposition
7 on Wednesday, March 23rd.

8 In denying the Jones defendants' motion, the 9 Court clearly stated that while the logistics of the 10 depositions were left to the parties, the parties
11 could consider having Mr. Jones' physician on the 12 premises during the deposition.

13 On Wednesday, March 23rd, following the filing
14 of the plaintiffs' motion for order, which was filed
15 that day, and the Jones defendants' objection, which 16 was also filed that day, the Court, again on the 17 record after a hearing from counsel, ordered Mr.
18 Jones to appear for his deposition on Thursday, March 19 24th.

20 Despite these rulings from the Court, Mr. Jones
21 did not appear for his deposition on Wednesday, March
22 23rd and he did not appear for his deposition on
23 Thursday, March 24th. Immediately following the
24 hearing on the record on March 23rd, the Court also 25 ordered Mr. Jones, in writing, to appear for his
26 March 24th deposition stating, "The defendant, Alex
27 Jones, is ordered to produce himself tomorrow for his

1 duly noticed deposition as he has not submitted
2 additional evidence for the Court to evaluate on the
3 issue of his alleged medical conditions.”

4 Additionally, after the parties filed briefs
5 relating to the plaintiffs’ request for a capias, the
6 Court issued a second written order on March 23rd
7 declining to issue a capias at that time, indicating
8 that Mr. Jones would be in contempt of the Court’s
9 order should he not appear for his deposition on
10 March 24th and setting a briefing schedule with 11 respect to the other sanctions requested by the 12 plaintiff.

13 Furthermore, after an additional motion for
14 protective order was filed by the Jones defendants at 15 the end of the day on Wednesday, March 23rd, the 16 Court, after evaluating the motions and affidavits,
17 denied the motion in writing and made clear that the 18 Court-ordered deposition was to proceed the next day,
19 although he would be excused from the deposition if 20 he was hospitalized. No such evidence of
21 hospitalization or, in fact, any other evidence has
22 been submitted to the Court, although the motions
23 that have been filed are replete with references to 24 Mr. Jones either broadcasting live from his studio,
25 recording shows, or calling into shows during the 26 time period in question.

27 So while the parties and counsel abided by the

1 Court-ordered deadlines with respect to the filing of
2 their briefs, Mr. Jones, as I said, did not appear
3 for his deposition on Thursday, March 24th.

4 So this hearing today is dealing with the
5 plaintiffs' motions relating to Mr. Jones' failure to
6 appear for his depositions on March 23rd and March
7 24th despite all these Court orders and Jones
8 defendants' objections thereto.

9 Now, I have to note, at this point we're maybe
10 16 or 17 weeks away from jury selection and Mr. Jones
11 has not even been deposed. So we're four years into 12 this case and the Court has repeatedly entered new 13 deadlines for witness depositions and the newest
14 deadline, as far as I know, is April 8th in this long
15 series of modifying scheduling orders for 16 depositions.

17 I have to say that due to these repeated
18 extensions, the several prior trial dates, as well as 19 the age of the case, the existing trial date, which 20 is jury selection on August 2nd and evidence on 21 September 1st, is a firm trial date and parties and 22 counsel should plan accordingly.

23 The Court's authority here is rooted not only in 24 Practice Book Section 13-14, but the Court also has 25 inherent sanctioning power. With respect to the 26 issue of contempt, the Court finds by clear and
27 convincing evidence that the defendant, Alex Jones,

1 willfully and in bad faith violated without
2 justification several clear Court orders requiring
3 his attendance at his depositions on March 23rd and
4 March 24th. That is, the Court finds that Mr. Jones
5 intentionally failed to comply with the orders of the 6 Court and that there was no adequate factual basis to 7 explain his failures to obey the orders of the Court.

8 Now, while the Court has adjudicated Mr. Jones
9 in contempt, Mr. Jones himself has the ability to 10 purge the contempt and Mr. Jones is on notice that he
11 has the ability to purge the contempt and the Court
12 has the power to reduce the fines that it is going to 13 impose once the contempt has been purged as follows:
14 The contempt will be purged when Mr. Jones completes
15 two full days of depositions at the office of 16 plaintiffs' counsel in Bridgeport. Mr. Jones is to
17 pay conditional fines of $25,000 each weekday
18 beginning on Friday, April 1st, increasing by $25,000
19 per weekday payable to the Clerk of the Court in 20 Waterbury and it will be suspended on each day that 21 Mr. Jones successfully completes a full day's 22 deposition where Mr. Jones has given all counsel a
23 minimum of 24 hours' notice of his availability to 24 sit for that particular deposition.

25 So for example, if Mr. Jones' counsel this
26 afternoon informs counsel that Mr. Jones will sit for
27 his deposition on Friday -- that's sufficient notice

1 to the parties, that's 24 hours -- and if he
2 successfully appears and sits for his deposition on
3 Friday, there will be no fine.

4 Another example: If Mr. Jones' counsel this
5 afternoon informs counsel that Mr. Jones will sit for
6 his deposition on Tuesday, April 5th and he does so
7 successfully, the fine will be $25,000 for this
8 Friday, April 1st. There will be no fine on Saturday
9 or Sunday and there will be a $50,000 fine on Monday
10 for a total fine of $75,000 to that point and so on.

11 The last day for the fines will be April 15th
12 and that then gives Mr. Jones an opportunity to purge
13 the contempt by producing himself for two full days
14 of deposition by April 15th. The Court recognizes
15 that this fine, while a conditional fine, is also 16 coercive, but finds that it is reasonable and
17 necessary in this matter and again points out that 18 Mr. Jones himself has the opportunity to complete his 19 deposition and then request reimbursement of the 20 fines that the Court has imposed.

21 The Court declines to issue a capias, although 22 it recognizes that the plaintiffs may pursue that
23 with the Texas Courts if they so desire. .

24 The Court also finds that the plaintiffs are
25 entitled to fees and costs in connection with the 26 cancelled depositions that was requested in earlier
27 motions and the details of which were provided in the

1 briefs that were just filed today, so as I indicated
2 earlier, for that reason, the Court will address the
3 amount of the fees and costs that will be awarded at
4 the next hearing giving the Jones defendants adequate
5 time to respond.

6 It is clear, however, that the plaintiffs here
7 simply want and are entitled to the deposition of Mr.
8 Jones and that Mr. Jones has continued to attempt to 9 deliberately disregard the Court's orders and
10 attempts to manipulate the Court process. While 11 paying the fees and costs will reimburse the 12 plaintiffs for the costs incurred in attempting to
13 procure Mr. Jones' deposition, it is not a substitute
14 for his testimony. As such, should Mr. Jones not
15 complete his two full days of depositions by April
16 15, the Court finds that the preclusion of evidence,
17 that is, preventing Mr. Jones from offering evidence
18 which would include calling witnesses, cross-
19 examining witnesses, and the like, and adverse
20 inferences, that is, the establishment of certain
21 facts adverse to the Jones defendants, would be an 22 order as a remedy for non-compliance, the extent of 23 which is a very significant issue and would require
24 extensive briefing and argument from counsel.

25 That is not something, hopefully, that will have 26 to be addressed because Mr. Jones has the ability by 27 April 15th to purge himself of the contempt and avoid

1 any issue, preclusion, or adverse inferences. So if
2 and when that becomes an issue, if he has not
3 submitted to his two full days of deposition by April
4 15th, then the Court will set up a briefing schedule
5 to address issue preclusion and adverse inferences.
6 So really, it will be up to Mr. Jones.
