Lt. Col. Dave Grossman

One of the nation's leading law enforcement trainers, Lt. Col. Grossman is the author of the Pulitzer nominated book, On Killing. He has served as a trainer and keynote speaker for all major national and international law enforcement training organizations and has taught the representatives of literally thousands of federal and regional agencies in the U.S., Canada, New

Lt. Jim Glennon

A nationally recognized trainer, author, and award winning columnist. Jim is the Owner and Director of Training for the Calibre Press Street Survival Seminar and Lifeline Training. His book, Arresting Communication: Essential Interaction Skills for Law Enforcement was named "One of the Top 10 Best Law Enforcement Books of all time" by LawOfficer.com.

Zealand, and Australia.

BALANCING PERCEPTION & REALITY

Led by two of the nation's top trainers, this two-day training event is designed to prepare students psychologically, emotionally, and tactically for their role as law enforcement professionals in modern society. Participants will examine the current relationship between law enforcement and the community they are sworn to protect while also identifying the most current threats to both. Finally, officers will learn how their attitudes and personal perspectives could mean the difference between life and death in both violent confrontations and living as a law enforcement officer on and off the job.

TOPICS INCLUDE:

- Pre-Incident Preparation
- Current Threats & Criminal Behavior
- Police Violence: Facts vs. Myths
- Detecting Deception
- The Sheepdog Mentality
- Reality vs. Media Hype
- Communication and Citizen Service
- Preparing for the Aftermath
- Reading Body Language
- Understanding Stress Responses
- Secrets to Effective Human Interaction
- Guardians of Democracy
- Overcoming the Racial Divide
- Reality of Force and Violence
